BIBLE AUTHORITIES' CONFERENCE TO BE GLADSTONE FEATURE

H. A. Ironside, Noted Bible Scholar, to Deliver Address Monday Evening.

SENIORS WILL GRADUATE

Big Meeting, Inter-Denominational in Character, Is Under Auspices of Portland Bible Institute.

With impressive features, the Oregon Bible conference will open next Monday evening at Gladstone park. H. A. Ironside, the noted Bible expositor, will deliver the opening lecture on "Nebuchadnezzar's Dreams, the A, B, C of Prophecy."

The largest aggregation of noted Bible teachers ever gathered together in Oregon, will be at this conference. Bible students of Portland and the state are expected to attend in numbers, to take advantage of the opportunity of hearing them.

The list of speakers includes: H. A. Ironside, author, lecturer and expositor; Rev. Mark Matthews of Seattle, pastor of the largest Presbyterian church in the world; Rev. Walter B. Hinson of Portland, one of the foremost Baptist preachers in the country; Rev. Sam J. Reid, D. D., of Belfast, Ireland, author, lecturer and evangelist; E. J. Bulgin, D. D., one of America's foremost evangelists; Rev. Alexander Beers, pastor of the First Free Methodist church of Portland; Rev. Homer L. Cox, pastor of the Sunnyside Friends church; Mrs. J. E. Fee, Canadian missionary to China for 14 years, and Mrs. Walter Duff, former secretary of a large evangelistic society among the Ulster Scotch.

Graduation Is Planned

A feature of the conference will be the graduation of the senior class of the Portland Bible Institute, some of whom are preparing for work in the foreign field.

The conference, which will be interdenominational in character, is under the auspices of the Portland Bible Institute.

The conference will be open to the public, and the expenses will be defrayed by free-will offerings.

What Must Church Member Do?

On Sunday morning at the First Christian church the pastor, Harold H. Griffis, will discuss the question, "What Must the Church Member Do to Be Saved?" In the evening Rev. Mr. Griffis will speak on "Redeeming the Time or the Parable of the Clock." Special music numbers will be provided at both services by the precentor, R. V. McKalson.

Resinol

will heal those mosquito bites

A touch of Resinol takes the itch and smart right out of mosquito-bites, and soothes and cools sun-burned, wind-burned skin. This gentle healing ointment seems to get right at the root of skin-troubles like eczema, ivy-poisoning, heat-rash, and hives, clearing them away in a surprisingly short time. Resinol is sold by all druggists.

State Evangelist to Fill Pulpit Sunday At White Temple

At the First Baptist church (White Temple) Rev. H. E. Marshall, recently appointed state evangelist for Oregon by the Oregon Baptist state convention, will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning and evening. In the morning his theme will be "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and in the evening "Thinking, Turning, Running."

The morning offertory will be "Consider the Lilies," by Topliffe, and in the evening "Tarry With Me, Oh! My Savior," by Beethoven.

MRS. THOMAS ESTILL TO CONDUCT MEETINGS FOR SALVATION ARMY

Prominent Worker for Western States to Be Chief Speaker in Portland Sunday

Mrs. Thomas Estill, one of the most prominent of Salvation Army workers in the western states, will be in Portland to lead a series of meetings Sunday in the Salvation Army Corps No. 1 hall, 243 Ash street.

Mrs. Estill is considered as one of the most energetic of leaders in army slum work and rescue work. She has been interested in an active way in children's home in the west.

She is visiting the rescue homes in this territory, with a view toward observing methods and suggesting improvements.

Mrs. Estill is accompanied by her daughter, Corps Cadet Catherine Estill. Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. T. W. Scott of Seattle will assist in the meetings Sunday, which will be held as follows: 11 a. m., United Holiness meeting; 3:15 p. m., praise service; 8 p. m., salvation meeting.

Exceptional ability as a speaker is attributed to Mrs. Estill. She has traveled extensively, having accompanied her husband, Commissioner Thomas Estill, western territorial leader of the Salvation Army, on his many travels. He was at one time stationed in Japan in the interests of the Salvation Army.

Dr. Hinson's Sixth Sermon Is Sunday

At the East Side Baptist church on Sunday morning Dr. Hinson will preach his sixth sermon on the "Second Coming of Christ," his topic being "How We May Enter the Kingdom of God." At night he will preach on "Spilt Water." The text is in the Bible, even to the identical word. And in its setting, it stands for three great facts which the preacher will disclose in his sermon, and he will show how personal and universal and serious are those same three facts.

On the following Sunday, which will be Communion Sunday, there will be an opportunity given for any to join the church, either by letter, experience or baptism. A large number have expressed their intention of uniting with this church. It is growing so rapidly it bids fair to double its membership during the first year of Dr. Hinson's pastorate. In spite of the vacation season being at hand, the church is crowded whenever the doctor preaches, and the interest in all the church's activities is unabated.

Dr. Hinson preached at the Albany Chautauqua last Sunday night, and attended the Preachers' conference at Boise, Idaho, last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, where he delivered eight lectures. In addition to occupying his pulpit twice today, he will preach next Wednesday night, his topic being "The Second Epistle to the Corinthians."

Bible Institute to Be Church Feature

A Bible institute will be held from July 27 to August 5, at the First Friends church, East Thirty-fifth and Main streets, under the leadership of William M. Smith, principal of the Union Bible Seminary of Westfield, Indiana, and editor of the "The Friends Minister."

Rev. H. L. Cox, pastor of the church, invites attendance at the afternoon meetings at 2:30, and especially at the popular meetings for the public at 7:30.

Dr. Clarence Wilson Will Speak Sunday

Dr. Clarence True Wilson will speak in the Sunnyside Methodist church Sunday at 11 a. m. Mr. Wilson is speaking and preaching frequently while taking his vacation. Last Sunday he spoke at Seaside, Or., and assisted Rev. Dr. Youngson and Rev. R. E. Smith in celebrating the eighteenth anniversary of the church there, of which Rev. Charles T. McPherson is pastor.

Summer Program Active

Considerable activity is to be found in the First Congregational church this summer. Dr. Luther R. Dyott, the pastor, who has been preaching every Sunday during July, will be in his pulpit July 22 at 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m., discussing the interesting theme in the morning "As One Thinketh" and in the evening "They Went to Get a Drink." Dr. Dyott is conducting devotional studies in the psalm on Thursday evenings. The Bible school at the summer assembly hour, beginning at noon, will on July 22 have a "Chalk Talk" by W. G. Pearson.

Pastor Baptizes Own Family

Services at the New Church society, Eller's hall, last Sunday contained an unusual feature in the baptism by the pastor, Rev. William R. Reece, of his wife, mother and son. This was the first baptismal service in this city by the recently ordained pastor.

Following a vote of the membership it was decided to dispense with services during the summer until September 2. The pastor will spend a considerable portion of his vacation period in missionary effort at various towns near Portland.

OREGON BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION TO HOLD SUMMER ASSEMBLY IN SALEM

The Oregon Baptist Young People's union and summer assembly will be held at Salem on the state fair grounds beginning July 27 and continuing until August 6. An excellent program has been arranged. The forenoon sessions will be devoted to class work under the leadership of an able corps of teachers. The Bible class will be taught by Dr. Young of Albany and the social service class by Dr. Batten of Philadelphia, social service secretary for the American Baptist Publication society.

Classes will be held in methods of young people's work, missions and Sunday school work.

Miss Meyers, missionary editor for the American Baptist Publication society, will teach junior classes. Miss Crissman of Chicago, superintendent of "The World Wide Guild," will conduct a choral class each day.

The afternoons will be devoted to recreation, such as hikes, bathing, boating, field games and tennis. Professor W. R. Stowe of O. A. C. will have charge of the athletic and recreation features.

Professor Flarida will give a "chalk talk" on "Hiawatha" one evening. There are to be evening addresses by prominent speakers, such as Dr. W. B. Hinson and others.

The first evening will be featured by a camp fire around which story tellers will hold sway.

Dr. Wright will give an illustrated missionary address each evening, using slides depicting all lands and phases of missionary progress.

There will also be addresses by prominent educators and returned missionaries.

Harry Wade Hicks of New York, general secretary of the missionary education movement, will speak on Saturday and Sunday, July 28 and 29, set aside as B. Y. P. U. and missionary days.

Credit for the successful arranging of the assembly is given to the untiring efforts of Rev. J. D. Springston, who is an active worker in behalf of the young people's organizations.

Union Services at Waverly Church

At the union service of the Clinton Kelly Methodist church, Kenilworth Presbyterian church and Waverley Heights Congregational, which will be held in the latter church on the corner of Thirty-third street and Woodward avenue, at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, the message will be given by Rev. E. P. Lawrence, pastor of Kenilworth Presbyterian church. His theme will be "Christian Unity," in which he will show some of the movements of recent years toward a closer affiliation of the great Christian forces of the nation. Speical music will be furnished by the choir of the Kenilworth church. These union services have been well attended, and all have enjoyed the excellent music and sermons.

"Summer" Dr. Boyd's Topic

At the First Presbyterian church, Eleventh and Alder streets, the pastor, Dr. John H. Boyd, will preach both morning and evening. His sermon subject will be "Sunshine—A Cheery Message for Midsummer," and his evening subject "Twilight Thoughts and Hopes," a meditation on Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar," which will be sung as a duet by Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller and Mrs. Leah Slusser Hathaway. All departments of the Sunday school will meet together at 12:10 in the Sunday school auditorium for one of the series of illustrated lectures on "Heroes of the Old Testament." The subject will be "Moses," given by B. A. Thaxter.

Theological Meeting Will Not Be Held

The annual meeting of the Pacific coast theological international conference announced to be held at Victoria, B. C., July 24-27, has been given up on account of war conditions. President Stephen B. L. Penrose of Walla Walla hopes it may be resumed next year.

Red Cross Entertainment

On Tuesday evening, July 24, a musical and literary entertainment will be given at the First Christian church for the benefit of the Red Cross. The program will be under the direction of Miss Eugenia Craig, and will consist of readings by Miss Craig, also music numbers by others. A silver offering will be taken and proceeds will go to the Red Cross.

Quarterly Service at Bethel M. E.

Sunday will mark the fourth quarterly service of Bethel A. M. E. church. Rev. C. N. Douglass, P. E., will preach morning and evening.

At 3:20 in the afternoon Rev. W. I. Rowan will preach the sacramental sermon.

Miss Lena James Douglass, M. B., the daughter of the presiding elder, will accompany her father from Seattle Saturday and will appear in recital at the First M. E. church, corner Twelfth and Taylor streets, Monday evening. Miss Douglass will be assisted by Miss Freita Shaw, Portland's dramatic soprano.

Berkeley Minister Will Fill Pulpit at Unitarian Church

Rev. Frank R. Kennell of the Pacific Unitarian School for the ministry, of Berkeley, Cal., is spending a vacation in and about Portland and will preach Sunday at 11 o'clock at the church of Our Father, Broadway and Yamhill streets. Mr. Kennell has many friends in Portland. He was a student in Washington High schoool and was a member of the Oregon Field Artillery. This will be the first time he has preached in Portland. As a minister of the younger generation, his coming is looked forward to by a host of young people, comprising his friends and admirers.
