FARM—$65
140 acres, positively no better soil in Oregon. Close to the city of Portland, out Gresham way, short distance from the Sandy river; paved street leading almost to the farm. The owner of this farm is forced to sell before the 1st day of the month. This farm is practically all cleared, more than 70 acres in cultivation and the balance in pasture of the best kind. A good house, several other good buildings in the way of barns and other outbuildings. Finest water on earth, piped to the house and barns. Five acres in prunes in full bearing with all other varieties of fruit. All kinds of fruits and vegetables are four weeks earlier than in any other part of Oregon from the fact that this farm is sheltered from winds and severe cold weather from its peculiar location. This farm can be bought if taken right away for $65 per acre and no farm adjoining this which not nearly so favorably located for less than $250 or $300 an acre. This is the biggest snap for the finest soil and close in location ever offered for the price of $65 per acre. To see it will convince any buyer in the land. M. J. Clohessy, 451 Abington Bldg.

A SNAP $750.
Three acre chicken ranch, in the heart of the prune belt in Clarke county, Washington. Mostly all cleared and in first class shape. Plenty of bearing fruit trees of assorted kinds, a good well and pump, a fine spring, and creek running through place, a good 4 room bungalow, in good condition; new woodshed, 3 good chicken houses and dusting sheds and other small pens and coops. A good duck house, good rabbit house and runs, 2000 feet of good fencing and yards, good garden patch and a fine strawberry patch; plenty of chickens, ducks and rabbits; house furnished, in fairly good shape; plenty of wood, good roads and good shipping point to Portland or Seattle, Wash. Old age and other business forces me to go to California. Title perfect and clear. A good home for an old couple. Can give immediate possession, some terms. Route 2, Box 37A, Ridgefield, Wash.

10,000 ACRES of farm lands located in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana; these lands are free of all incumbrance; will sell on easy terms or will exchange for good, first class city income property, either in Portland, Seattle or San Francisco; would be willing to assume a reasonable amount of incumbrance.
