French Band Comes To Aid Red Cross

An Atlantic Port, May 17.—(I. N. S.)—Direct from the allied trenches on the western front, the famous French military band, known as "President Poincaire's Own," arrived at this port today to take part in the new Red Cross drive and other patriotic movements. Captain Gabriel Pareu, who, in San Francisco during the Panama Pacific exposition, refused to play "Die Wacht Am Rhein" on German day, is commander of the band.
