AUCTION SALE
EXTRA HIGH GRADE HOLSTEINS

One-Half Mile West of Woodland, Wash.
Friday, March 14, at 11 a. m.

22 cows, 3 fresh, 5 more this month, 7 in April; 5 2-year-old springer heifers, 10 yearling heifers, 3 calves, registered Holstein bull; team bay mares, weight about 2800 lbs., one 2-year-old colt, 2 yearling colts; disc, 1-horse cultivator, plow. Planet Junior seed drill, grindstone, 3-inch wagon, spring wagon, low wheel truck, 11 milk cans, set double harness, set heavy work harness and other articles.

This is undoubtedly the best bred herd of grade Holstein cows in this section. Mr. Heitman purchased ¾-blood cows a number of years ago and a registered bull for a start and these cows are the result of this fine foundation stock. I saw these cows and pronounce them the finest herd of Holsteins I have ever been permitted to offer for sale. Due cow test 7 years old. All the others are younger. I believe some of the cows will weigh close to 1400 pounds. I you want to get a milk route on four legs, be sure to attend this sale. You'll not be disappointed. W. S. WOOD.

Unavoidable circumstances compel me to sell. Everything goes—no reserve. These cows will be tuberculin tested by Dr. A. C. Brown of Vancouver and a certificate of health goes with each cow. Stock sold at 1 p. m.
