Presbyterians to Raise Millions in Smashing Drive of Three Hours Sunday

$72,500 AMOUNT PRESBYTERIANS IN CITY MUST RAISE

First Church Is Fully Organized to Do Its Share of Securing Big Sum.

TOTAL NEARLY $40,000,000

Churches of Denomination in Entire Country Expect to Raise Tremendous Sum in Few Hours

The New Era Movement of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

By James F. Ewing

Tomorrow afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock every Presbyterian in the city, who can be found at home, will be asked to subscribe to the great victory new era fund which the Presbyterian church in the United States is planning to raise. This is a sum of some thirteen millions for benevolence in the whole United States. The share of this, which has been assigned to Portland, is $72,500.

This sum represents an advance all along the line of the activity of the church. Four millions of the money goes for enlarged work in the foreign mission field, $3,000,000 for special work in America, in the cities, among the immigrants, in the lumber camps, and in the frontier towns, where no churches have been built.

A large section of the money is to be used for educational work both at home and abroad and another large section for the improvement of the Sunday school work of the church.

$39,000,000 in Three Hours

Presbyterians are feeling that a new day has arrived in the history of the world and the church and they are preparing to cope with the new situation. Besides the $13,000,000 for benevolence, it is planned to raise about $26,000,000 for current expenses.

Thirty-nine million dollars in three hours is the total national quota.

Is Highly Organized

The First Presbyterian church is highly organized for the victory new era drive tomorrow afternoon with a general in charge, two colonels, 21 captains and over 200 workers.

The city has been divided into two sections—east side and west side. H. C. Ewing is colonel for the east side. His 10 captains are: Henry Kirk, R. S. McKibben, T. C. McIntire, G. N. Woodley, Charles F. Wright, H. M. Nisbet, B. A. Thaxter, F. R. Richards, W. W. Withie, A. McGill and Andrew Chrystall. The colonel for the west side is James F. Ewing. His 11 captains are: A. S. Pattullo, J. S. Bradley, William Bittle Wells, Fred Hiram Strong, Lawrence R. Wheeler, T. T. Munger, George C. Howard, George Mackenzie, W. D. Fraley, F. E. Cooper and B. Lee Paget. D. A. Pattullo is chairman of the finance committee and general in charge of the drive for First church.

These workers will go forth in pairs to every part of the congregation and get pledges to provide for the whole budget of the church for the year beginning April 1.

The total budget of the First church is $68,000; much larger than ever before, and it is clear that better system and organization must be applied if success is to crown the efforts. The church has adopted the methods used in all the war drives and is confident of going over the top as did the city in those drives.

Tomorrow morning Dr. John H. Boyd will preach on the "New Era Movement" and will prepare the people directly for the afternoon drive. At 7:30 in the evening Dr. Boyd will continue the series of evangelistic sermons preparatory to Easter.

The music on Sunday evening will be specially attractive. At 7:15 Edgar E. Coursen will give an organ recital. As an additional feature of the evening program, Frank Eichenlaub, assisted by Harry Knight on the flute, Helen Harper, Elmer Sneed and Flavius West with violins, will give instrumental selections.

Ready for Canvass

Rose City Park Community church is ready for the every member canvass on Sunday afternoon, which this year is a part of the new era movement of the entire Presbyterian church. A large increase in the contributions for work both at home and abroad is expected. The captains of the 10 teams are: A. M. Grilley, L. R. Bailey, R. F. Feemster, E. I. Cantine, L. R. Hubbard, C. J. Packer, O. N. Bittner, K. F. Thunemann, J. A. MacTarnaghan, C. J. Mathis, W. O. Feenaughty is directing the drive.

Is Victory Sunday

Sunday will be Victory campaign Sunday at Mount Tabor Presbyterian church, combined with "go-to-church" Sunday. The pastor, Rev. Ward MacHenry, will give an inspirational address in the morning. At 1 o'clock the colonels, captains, officers and high privates of the new era team will eat dinner together in the church dining room in true democratic style and then go out in the great campaign from 2 to 5 o'clock. They are to report back at the evening service. A special effort is being made to have every member present at the morning service.

Approaching Climax

Hope Presbyterian church is approaching the climax of the new era campaign with increasing enthusiasm, according to the pastor, Rev. Floyd E. Dorris. Twelve teams, under the leadership of Captains A. E. Brownhill and Mrs. Maude C. Gilman, are ready to complete the canvass and secure the allotment of the church in three hours. Every member of the church is expected to be present at the service Sunday morning, when the final word on the campaign will be spoken and the 24 solicitors commissioned.

Will Celebrate All Day

Kenilworth will celebrate the first victory fund campaign of the new era on Sunday with an all day meeting. The service will begin at 9:45 and continue until evening. Dinner will be served at 1 o'clock. The pastor will preach at 11 o'clock. The afternoon program will consist of addresses by members of the new era committee, music and praise. There will be no evening service.

In Full Swing

The new era movement is in full swing in Piedmont church. Twenty-five members comprise the campaign forces, under the colonelency of R. F. Hynd. Four companies of two teams each will cover the territory, captained by C. E. Griffiths, John A. Van Groos, W. O. Ashby, F. D. Lawrence, Walter H. Slusser and S. D. Clark. A recognition service will be held on Sunday morning at which time the full new era budget will be discussed for the benefit of the congregation by Colonel Hynd and the pastor, Dr. A. L. Hutchison. As usual, the women have their work well on the way before the men get started.

Pastor Returns Home

Rev. F. C. Laslette will return today from his tour in Crook county in the interest of the Baptist victory campaign and will occupy his pulpit at Glencoe Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.

CONVENTION TO BE INNOVATION

Gathering of County Sunday Schools to Be School of Methods.

The annual convention of the Multnomah County Sunday School association will be held this coming week from Tuesday to Friday. Several prominent Sunday school workers in the west have been secured to take part in the program. Among them are Walter C. Moore, general secretary of the Western Washington Sunday School association; Mrs. E. C. Knapp of Spokane, wife of the general secretary of the Inland Empire Sunday School associatoin; Dr. John H. Matthews of Seattle, religious education director in the west for the Congregational church; and James F. Ewing, director of religious education at First Presbyterian church.

Charles A. Staver, Multnomah county president, and Harold F. Humbert, secretary of the Oregon association, will have charge of the program. The convention this year will be a new innovation for local Sunday school workers, as it will be a school of Sunday school methods, and not the old fashioned sort of meeting where only reports of past achievements are read. This school was planned for last January, but owing to the influenza epidemic, the convention was postponed. The sessions will be held at the First Congregational church. The afternoon sessions are from 3 to 4:30 o'clock, and the evening sessions from 7:30 to 9:15 o'clock.

A new special feature has been introduced this year and that is a conference class for pastors. This class will meet at 4 o'clock on Thursday and Friday afternoons only. A Sunday school exhibit will also be conducted each afternoon. This school will be free to the public. Sunday school workers are inviterd to attend and take advantage of the classes.

African Life Is Chalk Talk Topic

The second in a series of chalk talks will be given Sunday night at Pilgrim Congregational church by the pastor, the Rev. R. M. Pratt. He will describe the social side of African life. The first lecture last Sunday night attracted a large audience. The male quartet will render music, including a number entitled, "In Liberty's Name." Mrs. Jessie O. Steckle has charge of the music.

Dr. Waldo's Themes

Sunday morning Dr. William A. Waldo will take up the different elements of Christianity as presented by human personality in his sermon at the White Temple. In the evening he will deliver his third sermon in the pre-Easter series. Miss Eleanor Clinton will lead the young people's meeting at 6:15 o'clock.

ST. MARYS PLANS 2 WEEKS' MISSION

First Half of Period Will Be for Women and Last Half for Men; Father Anthony Conductor.

A two weeks' parochial mission will commence at St. Mary's cathedral on Sunday. The first week will be for the women and the second week for men. Although the first week is primarily for women, men will be welcome at the services and the same will be true regarding the women during the men's week. The mission will be conducted by Rev. Father Anthony, O. F. M. Beginning on Sunday evening the special mission services will be held each day. The weekday masses will be at 6, 7 and 8 a. m., and the evening services will take place at 8 p. m. The evening services will be preceded by organ music commencing at 7:45 p. m. The subjects of the evening sermons for the first week will be as follows: Sunday, March 23, "Whether Crowned or Crownless When I Fall, No Matter, so That God's Work Is Done"; Monday, March 24, "A Wonderful Assurance"; Tuesday, March 25, "Tidings of Great Joy;" Wednesday, March 26, "Fighting for the Hearth;" Thursday, March 27, "An Important Lesson"; Friday, March 28, "The World's Greatest Masterpiece"; Sunday, March 30, "At Home at Last."

Noonday Meetings St. Andrews' Plan

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew of the Episcopal church is planning for the annual noonday meetings held under its auspices at a downtown theatre during Passion week and Holy week. Two speakers have been secured for Passion week with special reference to their army experience—the Very Rev. William C. Hicks, dean of All Saints' cathedral, Spokane, and George Harvey of American Lake. Dean Hicks spent a year at the front as a Y. M. C. A. secretary, and Mr. Harvey held the same position at Camp Lewis. The Portland clericus will hold a special meeting at the Percival Memorial library Monday morning. A paper will be read by the Rev. T. F. Bowen, and the clergy will be entertained at luncheon at Bishopcroft.

Evangelist Reid to Speak

The evangelistic services in Sellwood Baptist church will be conducted by Dr. S. J. Reid, state evangelist, beginning on Sunday morning. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., and every evening except Saturday. The song service will commence at 7:30.

Revival to Close

The special series of revival meetings being conducted in the West Piedmont Friends church by Evangelist Harry Hays and Rev. Leurana Terrel, will close Sunday. Services will be held at 11 a. m., 3 and 7:45 p. m. Rev. Lewis I. Hadley is pastor.

Leaders Are Conducting Baptist Drive

Sermons Told in Story and Song

A poetical and musical interpretation illustrating the scenes in the life of Jesus will be given Sunday night at the Highland Congregational church, of which the Rev. Edward Constant is pastor.

• • • •

R. W. Harrison, who has just returned from the front in France, will relate a few of his personal experiences in the trenches on Sunday night at University Park Baptists church.

A stereoptican lecture by Dr. J. Hunter Wells on Korea, will be given Sunday night in the South Portland Community church, Fourth and Gibbs streets. The Rev. Levi Johnson will preach in the morning.

• • • •

Walter J. Stevenson, the Canadian basso, will sing at the morning service at the United Presbyterian church of strangers, Wasco street and Grand avenue.

Major Jack Hamilton To Talk at Sunnyside

Jack Hamilton, late major of infantry, will address the audience at the Sunnyside Congregational church Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Major Hamilton's experiences as a soldier are so extensive that his recital cannot fail to be of intensive interest to all. As a captain in the English army for 14 years he served during the mutinies in India, during the Boer war in South Africa and other great campaigns. At the outbreak of the present war he enlisted with the French army and served in the ambulance department; later he joined the American army. His story covers 20 months of continuous service.

Annual Meeting Wednesday

The annual meeting of Woodlawn Christian church will be held Wednesday night, April 2, at 8 o'clock. Every member is expected to be present at this service, when the yearly reports of all departments of the church will be read. The minister, Rev. Joseph D. Boyd, reports the church is progressing.

Endeavorers. Will Hold Rally Friday

The Multnomah county Intermediate Christian Endeavor union will hold a rally Friday night at the Pilgrim Congregational church. The meeting will be in charge of the intermediate society and the following intermediate presidents will give short talks: Howard Standsbury, Gertrude Lanning, Irene Welcome, Fern Hudson, Vernon Duncan and Harold McEwan. Misses Hering and Fund will give a vocal duet. Miss Jane Bane will give a vocal solo, assisted at the piano by Miss Pauline Gear. Effie Torgeson, state superintendent, and Elma Rewalt, Multnomah county intermediate supedintendent, will be present. The closing address will be given by Sergeant Lloyd Carrick, formerly state president. A social hour will follow the rally.

East Side Baptist Membership Grows

The ordinance of believers' baptist will be administered at the East Side Baptist church Sunday morning following the preaching service by Dr. W. B. Hinson. Sixteen have already been baptized during March. The women's society will hold an all day meeting on Thursday. Friday evening the young people of the church will entertain their friends at a social in the church parlors. During the weeks preceeding Easter, Dr. Hinton will conduct services every night, the general theme being "His Last Week."

Topic Announced By Dr. Morrison

Sunday morning Dr. A. A. Morrison will preach on the teachings and sayings of Jesus concerning the "strait gate." He says: "Some alarming statements were made by Jesus in this connection, well worthy of most serious consideration." The text is Matthew 7:14. The pearl of great price will be considered in the evening. A meeting of the brotherhood of St. Andrew has been called for Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the parish house.

BAPTIST VICTORY CAMPAIGN STARTS SUNDAY MORNING

Drive Will Continue Until March 31 Unless Quota Is Secured Before Time Limit Expires.

OREGON'S SHARE IS $65,000

House to House Canvass Will Be Begun by Laymen and Continue Throughout Coming Week.

The Love of Christ Constraineth Us — The Victory Campaign

The $6,000,000 Victory campaign of the Baptist church will be launched in Oregon Sunday morning and will continue until March 30, unless the quota is reached before that date. Of this total, Oregon Baptists must raise $65,000. Harley K. Hallgren, state director, and Rev. F. C. Laslette, Willamette association director, have been busy during the past week lining up all the local churches so that the drive will be put across quickly. One small church which was apportioned about $200 already has $500 in sight and has now set $1000 as its goal.

The campaign was presented to the members of the White Temple last Sunday morning by four laymen, but in all other Baptist churches the formal presentation will be made tomorrow morning. Following the morning service a house to house canvas of Baptist members will be made until the quota shall have been reached.

Following are the men who are directing the campaign in the churches of Portland and Oregon City: Arleta church, C. C. Hessmer; Bethany church, Walter D. Guy; Calvary church, J. W. Howell; East Side church, Rev. H. T. Cash; First church, Grant Phegeley; Glencoe church; George Downs; Grace church, W. L. Bartlett; Highland church, Kris Gudnason; Lents church, G. R. Nichols; St. Johns church, Dr. E. P. Borden; Third church, N. J. Sykes; University Park church, W. A. Hall, and Oregon City church, D. C. Latourette.

Next Sunday, the closing day of the drive, a "Victory Thanksgiving Offering" will be taken in special envelopes in every church throughout the land. The campaign headquarters in New York has sent an envelope for each of the 15,000 Baptists in Oregon. This offering will be a loose collection and will be separate from the pledges, which are payable in cash or not later than April 30 of this year.
