PRESBYTERIANS PREPARE FOR DAY

Elaborate Programs of Rejoicing Will Be Presented in Celebration of Resurrection of Jesus.

Easter Sunday will be a day of rejoicing in the many Presbyterian churches of the city. Pastors and Bible school superintendents have arranged programs for this year's celebration of the resurrection of Christ that show careful preparation and forethought. In the larger churches special singers will furnish the Easter music, while in the suburban churches local talent, which will include the Sunday school, will provide the entertainment. Baptismal services will be held in a few churches in connection with the Easter celebration.

Westminster

Sacred music will feature the Sunday services at Westminster Presbyterian church, East Sixteenth and Schuyler streets. Following is the program as announced by Dr. Edward H. Pence:

Song, Sermon to Tell Triumph of Day

Bishop Sumner to Be at Pro-Cathedral

The most important Easter in the history of living man, if not in all Christian history since the day of resurrection when the Savior of man rose from the dead, will be the one which will be celebrated tomorrow. Songs of triumph and sermons of rejoicing, not only because of the conclusion of the world's greatest combat, but because of the conspicuous physical manifestation of the regeneration of mankind, will be heard in all the churches of Portland, morning, afternoon and evening.

Church choirs, pastors and Sunday school students have been exerting every effort during the past few weeks toward making Easter Sunday a glad day.

Elaborate decorations of lilies, palms and flowers are being placed today in the churches by florists and special committees to help add charm to the day of days to be celebrated Sunday.

Episcopal clergymen have bent every energy toward making Easter a glad day in their parishes. The church choirs and children of the Sunday school have prepared musical numbers that will be rendered. Easter communion will also be celebrated in the various churches at the appointed hours. Easter Sunday is also the day when Episcopal children open their mite boxes and bring their Lenten offering to the church. Rt. Rev. Walter Taylor Sumner will be celebrant at the 7:30 o'clock early morning service at St. Stephens Pro-Cathedral and he will also preach at the 11 o'clock service.

Trinity

Services at Trinity church, Nineteenth and Everett streets, on Easter Sunday, will be a celebration of the holy communion at 7 o'clock, at which the full vested choir will sing Tertius Noble's service. At the 11 o'clock service will be sung:

BAPTIST PROGRAMS ARE TO BE UNUSUAL

Almost Every Church in City Has Announced Special Musical Services for Easter.

Easter programs of an unusual nature will be rendered in the churches of the Baptist faith Sunday. Almost every church in the city, even to those without regular pastors, have announced special musical services in commemoration of the resurrection of the Saviour. Easter Sunday sunrise prayer meetings will be held in a few churches by the young people. Evangelistic services, which have been conducted by several pastors during the past week, will culminate Sunday morning in a big jubilee service, when new members will be received into the church. The ordinance of believers' baptism will be administered in churches where candidates have presented themselves.
