Honors to Nation's Dead Will Be Paid in Portland Churches on Sunday

CHURCH SERVICES SUNDAY TO BE OF MEMORIAL NATURE

New Significance Is Added This Year by Reason of Heroes Who Gave Lives in France.

HONOR MEN OF THREE WARS

Those Who Fell in '65, '98 and '19 Will Be Remembered in Sermons to Be Given Sunday.

Full honors will be paid the nation's dead tomorrow in nearly all of Portland's churches, with special services and music. A new significance will be added to the day this year, as the nation will now pay tribute to the young men who recently perished in France while bravely defending the cause of liberty from the hand of the Hun. Many pastors have announced that they will pay respects in their sermons to the heroes of '65, '98 and '19.

A large number of churches will dispense with their evening service in order to allow their members the freedom of attending the union memorial service to be held at The Auditorium for all allied soldiers, who perished during the war.

A memorial service for the dead soldiers whose names are inscribed upon the honor roll of Trinity Episcopal church will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Bishop Paddock, who has just returned from France, will be the speaker. Men who have been in the army or navy are invited to attend the service in uniform by the rector, Dr. A. A. Morrison. A select musical program suitable to the solemn occasion has been prepared. The evening service will be omitted in order to give the choir and congregation an opportunity to join in the memorial service to British soldiers at The Auditorium.

VICTORY MEMORIAL DAY

Sunday will be called "Victory Memorial day" at the First Methodist church. In the morning Dr. Stansfield will preach a sermon on the prophecy and program of the church of God and in the evening he will conduct a "world's memorial service." All returned soldiers and sailors in the city are invited to this service, as well as veterans of former wars. Special memorial, national and international, music has been arranged.

The George Wright, Lincoln-Grant and Gordon Granger posts of the Grand Army of the Republic will attend service Sunday morning at Wilbur Methodist Episcopal church, which meets in the assembly room of the Multnomah. The pastor, Dr. F. B. Short, will preach and the whole service will teem with patriotic fervor. The music will be one of the pleasing features, and will be furnished by the famous Wilbur quartet, with Professor William Mansell Wilder, organist.

On Sunday evening, June 2, a special "fireside memorial service" will be conducted in the lobby of the hotel, the entire mezzanine floor will be used. This will be in recognition of the sacrifices of our Civil war veterans and our World war heroes.

TWO TO BE HONORED

The two young men of First Christian church who perished during the war will be held in affectionate remembrance at the Sunday morning service by the Rev. H. H. Griffis, pastor of the church. They are Harvey Palmer and Remington Kelly. Due respect will also be paid to the other 73 young men and women who are represented on the service flag of the church. The pastor has prepared a special address and in keeping with the hour a special musical program will be rendered by the church quartet. The evening service will be suspended in order that all members may feel free to attend the union memorial service of the Allied British societies at The Auditorium. Friday the Rev. Mr. Griffis will go to Turner to deliver the Memorial day address to the Pearl Masonic lodge.

Sunday evening's service at the Sunnyside Congregational church will be of a memorial character, held under the auspices of the Men's league. A program of unusual strength has been prepared for the occasion. Two men, Messrs. Burgess Ford and F. J. Glass, returned from the advanced sector of the great world war, will make vivid the memory of the khaki-clad heroes who fought and won in the last battles of the great conflict. A bugler will give some of the leading calls so familiar in the routine of a soldier's life, and the choir, under the direction of Professor J. H. Cowen, will render choice patriotic selections appropriate to the spirit of this service. The Grand Army chapter of this memorial will be vividly portrayed by a specially inspiring serial from the famous motion picture, "The Son of Democracy," entitled, "A Call to Arms," picturing that tensest moment in Lincoln's life when, for the preservation of the Union, he called for the first 75,000 volunteers and received the memorable reply: "We are coming, Father Abraham." The public is cordially invited to attend.

MEMORIAL IN SPIRIT

The services on Sunday at the Highland Congregational church will be in keeping with the spirit of the Memorial season. In the morning the pastor, Rev. Edward Constant, will preach on the following topic, "In Memory of the Brave and True." The members of the Canadian War Veterans' association of Portland, of which Mr. Constant has been made an honorary member, will be in attendance at this service. All who served on the Canadian forces are invited. Appropriate music will be rendered by the choir under the direction of Miss O. Rose. In the evening Ralph C. McAfee, director of religious work in the Y. M. C. A., will give an address on "Heroes of Yesterday and Today." Special music will be furnished at the evening service by the Forbes quartet.

Atkinson Memorial Congregational church will conduct a commemoration day service Sunday night. This will be in honor of returned and enlisted soldiers who went out from the church and community. Thirty-seven stars are on the service flag of this church. A majority of the boys have returned and will attend in a body and be addressed by the pastor. The singing of war songs will be a special feature of the service.

Memorial services will be held in all the United Brethren churches of the city. At First church Sunday evening Bert A. Powell, a returned missionary from Korea, also a Y. M. C. A. secretary for 10 months in France, will have charge of the service. At Second church Sunday morning Mr. Garver, a returned soldier, will tell the congregation what Christ meant to him while in the trenches. The pastor will give a memorial address in the evening. At Third church the Rev. E. O. Shepherd will hold his memorial service in the morning, while at Fourth church it will be held in the evening, where the service will be addressed by G. A. Prentiss, a veteran of the Civil war.

SPECIAL PROGRAM

Memorial day will be observed by a special program at Our Savior's Lutheran church Friday, May 30, at 8 p. m. Music will be furnished by the Bethlehem church choir and addresses appropriate for the day will be made by visiting clergymen and delegates to the young people's convention.

A special memorial service will be held Sunday morning at Centenary Methodist church by Dr. J. C. Rollins. In the evening the results of the Centenary drive will be reported.

The morning service at Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church will be a memorial service. In the evening the new moving picture machine will be dedicated with the film, "The Son of Democracy."

The G. A. R. of Ben Butler post No. 27 and the Women's Relief corps will attend the Sunday morning service at the First United Presbyterian church, when the Rev. H. F. Given will preach a memorial sermon.

Kenilworth Presbyterian church will observe Memorial day Sunday morning with a fitting sermon and music. No evening service will be held as the church has accepted the invitation to attend the union service at The Auditorium.

The Rev. B. Lee Gray of Millard Avenue Presbyterian church has announced his Sunday evening service as a memorial service.

Sunday morning Chaplain Bronson of Vancouver barracks will conduct a Memorial day service at the Third Baptist church. The Rev. W. J. Beaven, pastor of the church, is in Denver, attending the Northern Baptist convention. The evening congregation will attend the memorial service at The Auditorium.

Luncheon Is Postponed

The lunch and entertainment to have been given Friday, May 23, by the women of Grace Memorial Episcopal church to returning soldiers and sailors of the parish, has been postponed until Friday, June 6, the committee announced.

Pastor to Remain

Rev. C. U. Fowler

Prosperity has marked the life of the Brentwood Nazarene church during the past two years under the leadership of Rev. C. U. Fowler, according to reports read at the recent annual business session, so he was called by the congregation to serve for a third year. Reports indicated prosperity in every department of the church. When the little church was first built in Brentwood it had a hard struggle, as few people lived near it. Sergeant Charles L. Fowler, son of the pastor, recently returned home from service, and is helping his father by furnishing special music for the church services. The annual convention of the churches in Oregon will be held at Newberg on June 18. Miss Louretta Stodghill and Miss Bertha Riser were elected delegates to this assembly.

CHURCH SEEKS TO RETAIN CONVERTS

Committee of Northern Baptist Laymen Opens Campaign to Instruct Workers.

New York, May 24.—Realizing that the average church does not pay enough attention to new members, the national committee of Northern Baptist laymen, of which F. W. Ayer is chairman, has inaugurated an educational campaign to instruct religious workers in general how to care for the convert. Dr. Fred P. Haggard, director of the committee, believes that Baptist churches should be conducted along business lines. He holds that pastors, their assistants and leaders in church work should follow up people who have manifested religious interest, just as business houses have their salesmen keep in constant communication with prospective customers.

NEGLECT IS APPARENT

This campaign which is being conducted by the Northern laymen is not a financial drive, but a movement to keep new members interested in the churches they have joined.

Lamenting that there is abundant evidence to show that the average church does not properly care for the convert, the Rev. W. E. Monbeck, who is one of the most active workers in the new movement, today pointed out that there are hundreds of Baptists who at one time professed conversion, but are not making any effort to live a Christian life. The large percentage of inactive, indifferent and even worldly church members existing today is another strong argument that the churches are not caring for their own, said Dr. Monbeck.

SOMETHING RADICALLY WRONG

As a third indication he deplored the lack of Baptist loyalty among professing Baptists, which, he said, was another argument to show something radically wrong in the care of converts.

"The new convert must be enlisted in definite Christian service," said Mr. Ayer. "Members of our churches must be led to see that they are not banded together for social and intellectual amusement, but for worship and service. As long as they feel that the church is a charitable institution to be kept alive by alms they will have a passive, apologetic attitude toward the world. They must realize that the church is not a poorhouse, but a powerhouse giving light and life to the community."

Veteran to Speak

L. D. Mahone, of the Spanish-American war, will be the speaker at Patton Methodist church Sunday evening. His address will be in keeping with Memorial day. The public in general is invited to the service, which will be at 8 p. m.

Work Is for All Returning Soldiers

All Creeds Are Asked to Cooperate

Various war welfare organizations and the war time commission of the Federal Council of Churches have appealed to the churches of the nation to back up the plan of the army and navy department of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew for the appointment of a church welcome committee by every congregation to greet and serve returning soldiers and sailors. Many such committees have already been appointed.

In order to prevent the churches from losing time while working out plans, the brotherhood has developed a working schedule, which may be secured from the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, 105 East Twenty-second street, New York city.

Churches are advised first to secure the correct name and address of every man in their community who entered the service, and then to send letters to his family informing them of the existence of the organization. It is suggested that members of the committee call at the soldiers' home to learn of the young man, so that his ambitions may be satisfied when he returns home.

The schedule also advises the appointment of learned business men and lawyers on the committee, so that competent advice may be given the soldiers and sailors upon their return home. Others are urged to study government rules and regulations covering insurance, allotments, compensation, etc., in order that all questions may be properly answered.

Get-together banquets for returned service men are also recommended as a means of getting in better touch with the men.

It is recommended that the committee see that seats are always ready for assignment to returned men and their families, especially in churches where pews are rented and the family have no regular sittings.

The committees are warned against duplicating the work of secular organizations or with trying to compete with them. Church committees are advised to always keep in mind that their objective is the winning of the returned service men to the life and membership of the church.

Visiting Pastor to Preach Here Sunday

Rev. James Clement Reid, Ph.D., of San Francisco, will deliver an address on the interchurch world movement Sunday morning at the White Temple. This address will be in the interest of the movement. In the evening at 8 o'clock Rev. David R. Peterson, who has been assisting the pastor several months, will speak. The Temple quartet will render special music. An organ recital will be given 15 minutes before the evening service by Miss Nellie Kennedy. The pastor, Dr. William A. Waldo, has invited the public to both services. The young people's meeting at 6:45 o'clock will be led by Miss Mary Ayres, who will tell of her work among the Russians and also her experiences in rural churches in this country. Special music has been arranged.

Men's Club to Give Dinner on Tuesday

The Men's club of Central Presbyterian church will give a dinner prepared by the women of the church, next Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock in the church parlors. Former City Attorney Frank S. Grant and James E. Brockway, executive of the Boy Scouts, will speak. Mr. Grant will explain the measures to be voted on at the coming election, and Mr. Brockway will talk on "Juvenile Delinquency." Mrs. Freeman McNary is arranging a musical program. All friends and those interested in the subjects to be discussed are welcome.

Story of Garden of Eden Pastor's Theme

Sunday night the Rev. R. H. Sawyer of the East Side Christian church will tell the story of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. Much of the religious unrest of today, according to Mr. Sawyer, is due to "private interpretation" of the Scriptures, or the practice of religious leaders denying to the people the right to read the Bible as they would read any other book, accepting the plain, simple meaning of the language employed. "The mistake of Eden is one very common to the human family," said the pastor, "and the average man and woman may learn a valuable lesson from a frank, honest consideration of it."

Two Pastors to End Labors Here Sunday

With the convening of the Oregon conference of the Free Methodist church at the First Free Methodist church on Wednesday, the pastorate of two local pastors will close. Rev. Alexander Beers of First church and Rev. W. N. Coffee of Central each has servid his church three successive years, which is the limit allowed in one charge by the law of the church. Bishop William Pearce of Philadelphia will preside. The convention will last over next Sunday. Both preachers will occupy their respective pulpits Sunday morning and evening, when their farewell sermons will be preached.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING JUNE 3

Christian Endeavor Union to Elect, Install and Hear Reports on Tuesday Evening.

The annual business meeting of the Multnomah County Christian Endeavor union will be held Tuesday, June 3, in the First Christian church, Park and Columbia streets. The session begins at 8 p. m. At this time the annual election and installation of officers will be held, followed by a consideration of the coming year's budget. Those in charge of the meeting have also arranged a program to help liven the session. Miss Faye Steinmetz is county president.

Reports of the various department heads show that successful work has been done during the past year, even though the necessities of war deprived the society of many of its ablest young men workers. Many of the young women also left home to engage in war work.

Following are a few of the points to be reported at the business meeting:

"The quiet hour drive in December under the direction of Mattie Cleland gathered over 100 members. The coworkers' drive in January under Mary Parkinson, the tenth legion pledge in February under Edna Canning, and the life worker recruit drive in March under Mable Galey, were also very successful. Interesting and enthusiastic junior and intermediate rallies have been held under the direction of Miss Mary Jones and Miss Elma Rehbault, respectively."

Prospects are reported good for the state jubilee convention to be held in Portland, June 19 to 22.

Mrs. Bowrene Will Sing in Afternoon

Mrs. Marguerite Moore Bowerene will sing Sunday afternoon at the Warren vesper service in the First Presbyterian church. A large audience of young people is in attendance each Sunday afternoon at the service and program, which is from 4 to 5 o'clock. Entrance to the room is 454 Alder street. Young people who are strangers in the city are especially invited to this service.

Evangelist Announces Subject

Evangelist L. K. Dickson will speak Sunday night at 7:45 o'clock in Christensen's hall, Eleventh street between Morrison and Yamhill, on the subject, "Why Christ Must Come Again." This will be a Bible lecture and evidence will be given for each position taken. These services are held under the auspices of the Portland Seventh-day Adventist church and are for the public. Special music will be directed by Professor I. C. Colcord. Seats are free.

25th Anniversary

Rev. G. F. Ghormley

Sunday, May 25, will be celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the coming of Dr. J. F. Ghormley to Portland and the twenty-fifth anniversary of the dedication of the Rodney Avenue Christian church. Dr. Ghormley will speak at 11 o'clock, taking for his theme, "Then and Now." Special music for the occasion will be given by the large chorus choir, under the direction of Mrs. Maud Springer Sammons.

The evening service will be a memorial service in honor of the heroes of our country. The chief speakers will be Lieutenant Carlos W. Huntington of the famous Ninety-first division, and Dr. J. Carlos Ghormley, assistant surgeon of the navy.

Monday evening a reception will be given the pastor and his wife in the church in recognition of their long term of service in Portland.

Mr. Poling to Speak In Church of Boyhood

Daniel A. Poling, associate president of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, Boston, who is an Oregon boy, will preach in the church of his childhood on Sunday morning. This is the First United Evangelical church, East Sixteenth and Poplar streets, of which the Rev. J. A. Goode is pastor. "He needs no introduction to people in the land of his nativity," said the Rev. Mr. Goode. "There will be many present Sunday who will think of him as 'Dannie.' From the spontaneous impulses of his heart produced by his varied experiences in the war zone, we are expecting many rich things in his message." The pastor has invited the public to this service, and also to the Sunday evening service when he will discuss the value of the prophetic word.

Dr. Milligan Will Give Evening Talk

Sunday evening Dr. Robert H. Milligan will preach the first of a series of evening sermons on "The Life and Character of Joseph" at the Rose City Park Community church. The first of the series will deal with Joseph's dreams. Walter Jenkins will lead the singing. This Sunday morning Dr. Milligan will continue his subject of last Sunday morning, namely, "The Effect of the War Upon the Practice of Prayer."

W. S. Hale to Fill Pulpit at Glencoe

As Rev. F. C. Laslette, pastor of Glencoe Baptist church, is absent from the city, attending the Northern Baptist convention at Denver, varied services will be held Sunday in the church. At 11 o'clock W. S. Hale, formerly superintendent of the state reform school, will talk. At 7:45 o'clock the Highland church evangelistic team will have charge.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF LUTHERAN CHURCH WILL MEET HERE

Delegates From Washington and Oregon Coming for Convention in Portland May 30 to June 1.

OPENING SESSION SOCIAL

Stereopticon Lecture on Missions, Papers on Christian Duty, Addresses and Music on Program.

The Oregon and Washington Young People's Luther league annual convention will be held in Our Savior's Lutheran church, East Tenth and Grant streets, May 30 to June 1. Young people from both states will gather to lay plans for the coming year's work.

The convention opens at 8 p. m. Memorial day. This meeting will be of a social nature, when the delegates and visitors will get acquainted. A short memorial address will be delivered in honor of the nation's soldier dead.

The convention business session will be held Saturday morning, and in the afternoon a paper will be read on the theme, "After Confirmation—What?" This reading will be followed by a discussion. A stereopticon lecture on missions will be given Saturday evening.

The Rev. George Henriksen of Silverton will preach the convention sermon at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. At the closing session Sunday evening a paper will be read on "The Call of the Hour to Christian Young People."

The committee in Portland is doing everything possible to arrange for good addresses, and music. They have chosen hymn number 382, "Come, Holy Ghost in Love," as the convention hymn, and psalm 100 for the convention psalm.

The Rev. M. A. Christensen is pastor of the entertaining church.

Rev. Mr. Christensen is president of the Oregon and Washington league; Dr. L. Christopherson of Silverton, vice president; Miss Sigrid Pettersen of Portland, secretary; Rev. O. Thompson of Chinook, Wash., corresponding secretary, and Miss Martha Oppedal of Silverton, treasurer.

Bible Conference To Open on June 1

The third annual summer prophetic Bible conference for Oregon will open June 1 in the Salem district and June 3 in the Portland district. These meetings will continue until Rose festival week and will be held in the Sunnyside Congregational church; Reformed church, Twelfth and Clay streets, and Swedish Baptist church. Speakers who have been secured for the conference by Dr. Walter Duff are Rev. John McPherson of Minneapolis, Rev. J. L. Kanutsen, Dr. Mark Mathews of Seattle and Dr. A. L. Hutchison of Piedmont Presbyterian church.

Dr. Hinson Absent; Associate to Speak

In the absence of Dr. W. B. Hinson from the city, the pulpit of the East Side Baptist church will be occupied Sunday morning and evening by the associate pastor, Rev. H. T. Cash. Dr. Hinson is attending the Northern Baptist convention meeting in Denver. He will return during the coming week. The young people of the church are planning a memorial service and excursion to Bull Run park on May 30.
