Church People of Portland Will Gather Sunday to Take Up Work With New Vigor

FALL PROGRAMS START WITH FULL FORCE ON SUNDAY

Services in Nearly All Houses of Worship in City Will Be Resumed Once More.

RALLY DAYS ARE PLANNED

'Go to Church Sunday' Will Be Observed on Oct. 5; Sunday Schools Ready for Winter.

Many hearty hand clasps will be given tomorrow as the members of the various churches of Portland gather once more in their chosen pews and before or after the service, tell of their vacation experiences. The full fall program of church activity starts in with full force Sunday morning. Nearly all regular church services are to be resumed. Church doors, which have been locked for the past few Sunday nights, will be unbolted, and the bell in the spire will once more peel out its note of welcome to any and all who may have the desire to worship in its sacred sanctuary.

Sunday schools will also commence on their winter's work. In many schools announcements will be made concerning the annual rally day, which may be held any Sunday between now and the 5th of October, which is "Go to Church Sunday."

WHITE TEMPLE

Dr. William A. Waldo, pastor of the White Temple, has returned from his vacation hale and hearty and will preach twice Sunday in his pulpit. He spent his vacation visiting with his son, Ralph, in New York city. At the conclusion of the morning service the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered and the hand of fellowship extended to new members. The Temple quartette will have charge of the music at both services, rendering special selections.

FIRST CHRISTIAN

With the return of many workers from their vacations the fall and winter work at the First Christian church promises to open on Sunday with renewed zeal and energy, particularly in view of the preparations being made by this congregation for the erection in the near future of a new and commodious house of worship. The Rev. Harold H. Griffis will occupy the pulpit at both services Sunday. In the morning worship he will discuss what he considers the weakest point of modern church life. At the evening hour a devotional and musical period will be followed by a discourse on "The Conversion of a Distinguished Citizen."

ST. STEPHENS

The evening service will be resumed at St. Stephen's pro-cathedral on Sunday, the hour being 7:45 p. m. Other services will be: Holy communion at 7:45 a. m. and preaching at 11 a. m. by Dean Hicks. Holy communion will also be celebrated every Thursday morning at 7:30 o'clock.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL

Although their new pastor can not arrive in the city until October 1, the First Congregational church will commence its fall work under the leadership of Dr. W. W. Willard, who was acting pastor of the church for six months. The new pastor, who is expected here about October 1, is Dr. W. T. McElveen, D.D., of New York city. The Bible school will begin its sessions again Sunday, all departments meeting at 9:45 a. m., under the supervision of J. L. Bowlby, the superintendent. The women's association will also begin its fall work, meeting each Wednesday from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m.

WESTMINSTER

After a vacation at the beach, Dr. Edward H. Pence, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, has returned home and resumed the work of his pastorate. During his absence Dr. Daniel L. Williamson of Peoria, Ill., was in charge. Dr. Pence will preach twice Sunday, in the morning discussing first century and twentieth century religion. In the evening he will answer the question, "Can We Learn to Pray."

CENTENARY

At Centenary Methodist church, the pastor, Dr. J. C. Rollins, will occupy his pulpit in the morning for the first Sunday after his vacation. Excellent music has been arranged by the choir. All interested in the work of the public schools for the coming year are invited to hear Dr. Rollins Sunday evening.

MT. TABOR PRESBYTERIAN

Sunday Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church will start the fall and winter schedule of church activities. The pastor, the Rev. Ward W. MacHenry, will preach in the morning. Motion pictures entitled "Son of Democracy" and "Through Perils to Victory" will be shown at 8 p. m.

HIGHLAND CONGREGATIONAL

Full services will be resumed Sunday at the Highland Congregational church. The Rev. Edward Constant will preach morning and evening. The morning soloist will be Mrs. Vogel, and the evening soloist Miss M. Specht.

ROSE CITY PRESBYTERIAN

The evening service at Rose City Park Presbyterian church will be resumed this Sunday. Dr. Robert H. Milligan, pastor, will preach both morning and evening. Dr. Milligan expects that there will be a large attendance of those who have taken a vacation from the church during the summer months.

RODNEY AVENUE CHRISTIAN

Rodney Avenue Christian church will begin their fall program with a new pastor, the Rev. S. Earl Childers of the Eugene Bible University faculty. During the past week the Rev. Mr. Childers accepted the call of the church. Special music has been prepared by the church choir under the direction of Mrs. Maud Watkins Sammons.

PIEDMONT PRESBYTERIAN

The Rev. A. L. Hutchison, pastor of Piedmont Presbyterian church, expects to be able to occupy his pulpit Sunday morning and evening after being absent for several Sundays. He sustained an injury to his knee, which has hindered him in his work. The hour of the evening service has been changed from 8 to 7:30 o'clock. The Thursday evening prayer services have taken the form of a series of cottage meetings in the homes of the people. The plan is reported satisfactory. The women's missionary society held the first after-vacation meeting at the manse on Wednesday afternoon.

WAVERLY HEIGHTS

All services will be resumed Sunday at the regular hours at the Waverly Heights Congregational church, according to an announcement made by the Rev. Oliver Perry Avery, pastor, who announces that he will preach at both services.

FIRST FRIENDS

Regular services will be held at the First Friends church on Sunday. The summer schedule of mid-week prayer meetings is closing with the largest attendance in the history of the church. Many members of the First church are expected to attend the September quarterly meeting, to be held over the week-end at the Second church in Lents. Rev. Homer L. Cox of First church will address the meeting. Sunday afternoon Prof. Kirk of Oregon City will give an educational address. The business session will be held this evening, H. A. Hinshaw presiding. The young people of the three churches in the city will hold a Christian Endeavor rally at 5 p. m.

PILGRIM CONGREGATIONAL

The fall and winter program of Pilgrim Congregational church will be formally launched at a community rally in the church next Thursday evening. The pastor, the Rev. R. M. Pratt, has returned from his vacation spent at the Seabeck Missionary conference, and will preach Sunday morning and evening. The church bulletin will be published this year by the Christian Endeavor society.

SUNNYSIDE CONGREGATIONAL

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Staub have returned from a two weeks' outing at "Arrah Wanna." Dr. Staub, pastor of the Sunnyside Congregational church, will occupy his pulpit morning and evening. The chorus choir of this church will be reorganized for the work of the coming fall and winter.

Dr. Irwin Takes Up Work as Leader of New Era Movement

The Rev. Walter M. Irwin, D. D., has begun his work at district secretary of the New Era movement of the Presbyterian church with his office at 454 Alder street. His territory will embrace the states of Washington, Oregon and Idaho. Dr. Irwin comes from Wichita, Kas., after having served as synodical superintendent of home missions of Kansas for six years, and previous to that as pastor of the West Side Presbyterian church in Wichita for nine years. His first Presbytery appointment will be with the Columbia River Presbytery and he will give an address at its meeting next Tuesday night at Centralia.

Friends Quarterly Meeting Is Held

The September quarterly meeting of the Friends churches in this part of the state is being held over the week end at the Lents Friends church. The business session will be held this evening at 7:45 o'clock, with H. A. Hinshaw presiding. The young people of the three churches of Portland will hold a Christian Endeavor rally Sunday evening at 5 o'clock. The public is invited.

Ministers to Meet

The first meeting in the new year of the Portland Ministerial association will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. The ministers of all Protestant Evangelical churches of the city are urged to be present at this opening session. Harold H. Griffis, president; D. Lester Fields, secretary.

EPISCOPALIANS TO EXTEND SCOPE

Nationwide Campaign Will Be Discussed at Conference in New York Sept. 10.

Local leaders of the nation-wide campaign of the Protestant Episcopal church in America have received notices from the Rev. Robert W. Patten, director, of an important meeting of the national committee to be held in New York city on Wednesday, September 10. This conference will be the only meeting of the committee prior to the general convention of the Episcopal church in October, when a comprehensive program for extension of the church's activities at home and abroad will be presented.

"All the preliminaries of the nation-wide campaign are practically completed," says the call for the conference. "The time has come when a definite program for the active campaign must be determined on, and the manner in which the findings of the survey are to be presented to the general convention.

"These, with other considerations, especially the fact that the outlook for the campaign is better than our best expectations, show that it is imperatively necessary that there should be a meeting of the national committee not only to confer about matters connected with the campaign, but in order that there may be full and complete understanding with regard to all its details and that the members of the national committee may be informed before the general convention meets, so that they may render the service which they should render there."

The membership of the national committee numbers 125 of the leading clergymen and laymen of the church.

New Vigor Attends Resumption of Work

The Fourth Presbyterian church is beginning its work for the coming year with new vigor. The pastor has returned from his vacation at Ocean park and will be in his pulpit Sunday morning. In the evening George H. Street will tell the story of his year's work with the Italian army. Mr. Street went to Italy under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. and had charge of the community sing work with the entire Italian force. He found the Italian army had little of the spirit of song that meant so much to the American army. Mr. Street sang his way into the life of Italy and left the whole nation singing their national and folk songs. His story is full of interest.

Church Federation Committee

Virginia Pastor Is Coming Here

The Rev. J. W. Byrd of Virginia has been transferred to the Oregon conference of the Methodist church and will become pastor of the First church of Portland about September 20. The city in which he has been pastor is not known by the Rev. James T. French, pastor for the past three years, who has been transferred by the bishop to the Pacific conference of California. The Rev. Mr. French does not know the charge he is going to be assigned to. He will take his vacation between now and October 8, when the Pacific conference meets at Fresno. The presiding elder has requested Dr. French to conduct the Sunday services here for the next three weeks.

Assistant Begins Work

Miss Laura G. Henry began her work as pastor's assistant at the Fourth Presbyterian church last Tuesday. Miss Henry is a graduate of the Chicago Bible Training school and has served in large churches in Detroit and Spokane, coming from Spokane to the Westminster church, Portland. She has for some time past been secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at St. Johns.

Special Lecture Sunday

Special lectures will be given Sunday afternoon and evening at the First Spiritualist church, East Seventh and Hassalo streets, by Mrs. Loe Elmore of Seattle. The subject of the 8 p. m. lecture is "Man Limitless."

Will Speak Sunday

The Rev. Ralph McAfee, executive secretary of the Portland Church federation, will speak at 11 a. m., Sunday, at the Kenilworth Presbyterian church. He will answer the question, "Why Should the Christian Churches Federate?" In the evening the Rev. Paul W. Gauss of Parma, Idaho, will preach.

DR. ROBINSON WILL STAY OVER SUNDAY

First Presbyterian Again to Hear Noted Chicagoan; New Choir to Sing.

The well known Chicago scholar, Rev. George L. Robinson, D. D., will continue his ministry Sunday at the First Presbyterian church. Each service at which Dr. Robinson speaks attracts greater crowds than the preceding service. The Thursday evening Bible lectures are proving so popular that it has been necessary to hold them in the large church auditorium. It was soon found that the chapel would not hold the crowds which are thronging to these lectures. The subject next Thursday night will be "The Christ of the Old Testament." On Sunday Dr. Robinson will preach both morning and evening.

A new choir will begin its ministry at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow. Edgar E. Coursen will preside at the organ but the choir will be directed by Otto Wedemeyer. Mr. Wedemeyer also will sing bass in the quartet, the other parts of which are soprano, Mrs. Blanche Williams Fegersien; contralto, Mrs. Virginia Spencer Hutchinson; tenor, J. MacMuan Muir.

The missionary pictures will be continued at the Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church tomorrow. In the older room James F. Ewing will lecture on David Livingstone the apostle of Africa, and in the younger room, Miss Elizabeth Carothers will speak on Adoniram Judson, the apostle to Burma.

Church Has Moved

The Divine Science church, which has been holding its services in the Tilford building, has moved to the church at East Twenty-fourth street and Broadway. The Rev. T. M. Minard announces that the first service in this place will be held Sunday morning. The building was built by the Universalist association, and was recently occupied by the Portland Pentecostal assembly.

Will Occupy Pulpit

The Rev. William G. Eliot, minister of the Church of Our Father, has returned from his vacation and will preach Sunday morning in his pulpit. The Sunday school will resume its sessions at 9:45 a. m. There will not be an evening service this Sunday.

Dr. Lewis to Speak

Dr. Lewis, one of the Centenary preachers, will occupy the pulpit of Central Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. The pastor has been called to attend a funeral service in Southern Oregon.

Sunday to Schools Observe Rally Day In the Near Future

Rally day will soon be observed in the Sunday schools of the city, and as usual the various superintendents will be looking for new ideas to make their program attractive. At a recent Sunday school institute held by the Multnomah County Sunday School association the following suggestions were brought forth by the speakers.

Appoint all committees early. Appoint at least three committees as follows: Invitation, program and decoration. Let the decoration committee take into consideration the season of the year and secure corn stalks, pumpkins, etc., for the decorative scheme.

The program committee generally know about their work. Let the invitation committee see that no one is missed when the invitations are given out. After the invitations are given out, the committee might be made a follow up committee, providing for a program for the Sunday following Rally day. They should also see that those who attended Rally day merely out of curiosity become regular attendants.

The speaker advised the superintendents to get out a letter to his teachers and officers informing them of his Rally day plans. "A great general always advises his officers of his plans," he said. It was also suggested that the school choose a motto for each year and adopt it.

Young Collegians To Conduct Service

A unique service has been planned by Rev. S. Earl DuBois at the United Presbyterian Church of the Strangers on Sunday evening. Four young men and four young women are going to college this fall from this congregation. It is planned to make this a farewell service for them. Different persons will give helpful five minute talks on "Keeping Yourself Fit," "Selecting Companions," "Your Religious Life," "Special Message to Boys," "Special Message to Girls," and "The Home Hopes and Prayers." All college students will be welcome to this service.

Bishop Sumner to Be at St. Davids

Bishop Walter T. Sumner will speak at 11 o'clock Sunday morning at St. David's Episcopal church and the Rev. C. H. L. Chandler in the evening. There will be no early service. The Rev. Thomas Jenkins, pastor, is in Alaska conducting a campaign for the Armenian-Syrian relief fund. He expects to return to Portland soon.

Communion to Be Held

Communion will be observed at the Glencoe church Sunday and 12 new members will receive the hand of fellowship. The choir and chorus will render good music. Strangers are welcome.

Service for Aged

A service for the aged people at the German home, "Altenheim," on the Section Line road, will be conducted Sunday afternoon by the members of the Clay Street Evangelical church. The Rev. Jacob Stocker will preach.

FINE MUSIC TO BE FEATURE OF FALL SERVICES

Several Churches in City Have Secured New Choirs for Coming Winter and Spring.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS PLANNED

Beautiful Singing Will Be Heard in All Portland Houses of Worship Sunday.

New musical arrangements have been made for Sunday in the churches of the city, many of them providing new choirs. Where no new choir has been selected, the former choir has prepared special music for this Sunday, when every church member is expected to rally once more to the work of the church.

At the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday, the new chorus choir, under the leadership of E. T. Jones, will begin its year's work. Also the quartet choir composed of Miss Goldie Peterson, soprano; Mrs. W. H. Chatten, alto; Walter S. Stephenson, bass; and E. T. Jones, tenor. Dr. Joshua Stansfield, pastor, will administer holy communion and deliver a short address in the morning. In the evening he will discuss "the directions the Saviour left with us for our present day living."

The quartet of the First Christian church, directed by Mrs. Fred B. Newton, has returned from a vacation during the month of August and will be ready on Sunday morning with special musical offerings, including a baritone selection by Guy Maxman, and the anthem, "By Babylon's Wave" (Gounod.)

Under the direction of J. Hutchison, organist, the quartette of Westminster Presbyterian church has returned for its fall and winter work. The quartet is composed of Mrs. Jane Burns Albert, Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, Dom J. Zan and Joseph P. Mulder.

The choir of the First Norwegian-Danish Methodist church have returned from their vacation and will sing Sunday morning and evening. The pastor (the Rev. Elias Gjerding) will preach on two unique subjects Sunday. In the morning he will speak on "Always at Home," and in the evening, "Always at Work."

The Sunday morning service at Mount Tabor Methodist church will be turned into a rally day service, special instrumental music being furnished by the church orchestra, under the direction of George Israelson. The Sunday school will also give a short program. The Rev. E. Olin Eldridge will preach in the evening.

The Rev. Theodore P. Smith, pastor of Trinity Presbyterian church, and the Rev. F. H. Mixsell, new pastor of Anabel Presbyterian church, have announced services of song for Sunday evening at their respective charges. Both ministers have announced that their sermons will be evangelistic.
