TODAY'S FORECASTS

Portland and vicinity—Tonight and Wednesday probably rain; southwesterly winds.
Oregon and Washington—Tonight and Wednesday probably rain west portion, probably rain or snow east portion; moderate southwesterly winds.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

Low pressure prevails over most of the Pacific slope, reaching eastward to the Southern Plains states and upper Lake region; the point of greatest depression is in Southeastern Idaho. Elsewhere the pressure is moderately high, the highest readings being in Saskatchewan. Precipitation has occurred on the Pacific slope south of the Columbia river and on the northern Rocky mountain slope. Snow is falling in eastern Oregon, Northern Montana, and Northern Alberta. The weather is much colder in the Western Canada provinces and Northern Montana and in the San Joaquin valley in California, and is much milder on the North Pacific slope and over an area extending from the Southern Plains and West Gulf states to New York. The temperature is generally below normal along the Canadian boundary, on the North Pacific coast, and east of the Mississippi river and above normal elsewhere.

Relative humidity at Portland: Noon yesterday, 49 per cent; 5:00 p. m. yesterday, 37 per cent; 5:00 a. m. today, 89 per cent.

Better Dentistry for Less Money

DR. PAINLESS PARKER
DENTISTRY is like many other things—it can be done better and for less money on a large scale than on a small scale. You get the advantage of full equipments of X-Ray machines and new appliances that Science has produced. You also get the benefit of the specialist plan, which means that your work will be done by skilled dentists who are trained in doing the kind of work your teeth need.
Registered Dentists using the E. R. Parker System operate twenty-four offices and have the largest dental practice in the world. Their big organization has resulted not only in better dentistry, but in lower prices, for they save money buying supplies in large quantities, and in conductng their practice according to system. What they save is shared with their patients.
Call and have your teeth examined free, and learn how little the price will be to have them looked after.
