

Then Tom Malone got up. Said he: "I wish to amend that motion, Mr. Chairman, so as to read that the ballot Chairman, so as to read that the ballot be cast by Dr. W. H. Saylor, a man who has been a Republican whenever there was anything in it for him and a boiter was anything in it for him and a differ. "you Republicans turning to the house, "you Republicans watch him cast it." Mr. Malone was in the minority, however, and he was ruled out of order.

others reported equally satisfactory results from following this plan. All these fruit-raisers have used the particular spray

The losses of the past 19 years were a severe burden on him. He was a thor-ough business man, of integrity and energy. He left a wife and two children, Mrs. Emma Logan and Herman Logus. Mrs. Adolph Burckhardt was his sister, and he give him any information concerning the condition of affairs, and excluded him from participation in the conduct of the Power further asserts that the partner

283-285 Morrison Street, Portland, Oregon HIGHEST PRICES PAID FOR RAW FURS Send for Price-List.

recommended by the board, and, in view of such testimony, the conclusion was un-avoidably reached that the contention that

Eastertide Millinery Sale Dress Skirts

60 Pattern Hats No Two Alike At $3.98 Each

All are new creations, fresh from the hands of our expert milliners, and the best values yet shown this season. There are styles suitable for all faces and complexions.

> With other house's $6.00 hats. They'll stand the test. Yet sell at $3.98 each.

Sixty such hats at such a price will not last long. May be just what you want for Easter among them. If not, you can save time and another trip down town by placing your order then.

Independent Candidates.

There are rumors afloat to the effect several rejected candidates for office will go it alone on an independent ticket, but how far these rumors will materialize is

Thomas A. Jordan is among the first to make the plunge, having last evening filed his independent nomination for Sher-iff, signed by 69 electors. It is an old saying that the more the merrier and perhaps this may prove correct in this

Ri S. Greenleaf announces himself as an independent candidate for County Assessor. He has not yet filed his certifi-cate of nomination by electors, but will do so shortly, and may receive the indorsement of some due of the independ-ent movements spoken of, provided any of these materialize. Mr. Greenleaf has not yet perfected his plans of campaign, but says he is sure to run. He is now in his third term as Assessor. Rumors continue to circulate to the effect that Mayor Storey will be in the run in spite of the fact that the conven tion turned him down.

terday, some of them as chipper as ever, but others wearing a sort of "Oh-what-a-difference-in-the-morning" aspect.

Club Invites Delegates.

The Multorpor Republican Club, the old-st of the Republican club organizations in this state, and the only one that keeps open social rooms for the members, throughout the year, has made special preparations for the entertainment of Reblican visitors during the sessions publican visitors during the sessions of the state and Congressional conventions. Like the famous Union League and Lân-coln Clubs, the Multorpor Club combines the features of a social club with politica. Its well-furnished quarters at the northmast corner of Fifth and Alder streets are be kept open for delegates and friends during the week, and all are cordially invited by the members and officers to make the clubrooms headquarters.

RAISED $600.

Methodist Women Make Good Start on Twentieth Century Offering.

The Columbia River branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society met yes terday at the Taylor-Street M. E. Church. The first business transacted was the elec-tion of Mrs. M. C. Wire, of Albany, as temporary president, on account of the absence of the president, Mrs. Earl Cranston. Immediately on taking the chair, Mrs. Wire appointed the following com-mittees: Courtesies, Mrs. Dell Stuart; enmittees: Courcestes, Mrs. Den Stuart; en-rollment, Mrs. Lane; resolutions, Mrs. C. R. Thoburn, Mrs. M. A. Smith, and Miss Stanford. Reports then followed by Miss Anna Farrell, chairman of the supply committee; Mrs. M. E. Whitney, of Tacoma, treasurer, and Mrs. A. N. Fisher, ding secretary.

The afternoon session began at 1:30 with devotional services, led by Mrs. E. H. Todd, which were followed by a vocal solo, "The Holy City," by Miss Evelyn Hurley. Papers were then read on the following subjects, "Hirosaki Girls" subjects, "Hirosaki Girls" Mrs. E. A. Niblin; "Singapore Miss Mary Jones; Deaconess Home." "Young Ladies' Institute, Rome," Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden, of Vancouver; "Lucknow Woman's College," Mrs. C. R. Tho- rilla.

The board convened at 1:30 P. M. for the afternoon session. The main question that came up for consideration was the matter of adopting a shipping package of uniform dimensions. It was decided that what is known as the "California box" is the one best adapted for the shipping of fresh ap ples. This box is of the following dimensions; End pieces, 9%x11 inches; side pieces, 22 inches. counts of the board were audited The and adjournment taken to July 9.

GOOD NURSE RETURNS.

Miss Killian Home From Manila on a Furlough.

Miss Lena Killian, one of the two Red Cross nurses sent by the local Emergency Corps and Red Cross Society to Manila in 1898, returned to Portland yesterday, and is now the guest of Mrs. Dr. Osmoo Royal, Seventeenth and East Morriso streets. She will remain in the city about a week with friends, when she will start East to visit her mother, before the expiration of her 90 days' furlough. Mis-feet that Mayor Storey will be in the ace. School Superintendent Armstrong will un in spite of the fact that the conven-ion turned him down. A number of ace with the conven-ion turned him down. A number of persons who were before the convention Monday, looking for nom-inations, were around the City Hall yes-usually placed. in ward 2, where the worst wounded were usually placed.

Her work in all departments was alway very faithful and satisfactory, and many of the Oregon boys who occupied No. 2 will never forget the sympathetic interest she manifested for them. When she reached Manila she did not tarry in try-ing to have organized some scheme for ing to have organized some scheme for hospital work not approved by the Gov-ernment officials, and in which she could simply supervise and control, but imme-diately sought a position in one of the wards and commenced hard, womanly work. There she won the esteem of all coming in contact with her, and was on coming in contact with her, and was one of the very first Red Cross nurses offered a position by the Government. She signed for a year about the time the Second Oregon left for home, which time is not yet up. Her furlough of 90 days is now only one-third expired, which will enable her to what her Eastern home and reach her to visit her Eastern home and reach the islands again if she desires to continue her work there.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

Mass Meeting Tonight at Calvar Presbyterian Church.

A mass meeting of the Portland Chris tian Endeavor Union will be held at 7:45 P. M. this evening, at the Calvary Pres-byterian Church, Eleventh and Clay streets. Following is the programme: Praise service, W. S. Pond, leader. Scripture reading and prayer, Rev. J. F. Ghormeley. "Why Have the Pledge?' Rev. W. S

Gilbe

"How Secure Fidelity to the Pledge," open conference. Offertory.

"Why Have Committees?" Rev. W. T. Wardh

"How They Work in Your Society -Good Things Done and Good Things Lack-ing," open conference, "Why Have the Consecration Meeting?"

Rev. C. T. Hurd. "How Increase Spirituality of the Consecration Meeting," open conference, "Consecration Service," Rev. E. P. Hill.

No words of ours can foretell the benefit you would derive from Hood's Sarsapa-

Charles Logus, an old resident of Port-land, fell from his buggy while driving near the mill of the Western Lumber Company at noon yesterday, and when he was picked up he was dead. A sudden attack of heart disease is assigned as the cause of his unexpected taking off. Mr. Logus had been in apparently good health and the news of his death was severe shock to his relatives and frie The body was taken to the morgue, from which it was soon removed to the family residence, on Ninth and Flanders streets. Mr. Logus had been identified with the growth of Portland for many years. He was born in Germany 72 yeans ago, and came to New York in 1853. Three years later he removed to California, and the following year, 1857, came to Oregon,

His Career.

In the early days, when East Portland was a struggling village and the Stark-Street ferry was the principal means of crossing the Willamette River at Portland, Mr. Logus and Joseph Burkhard, had many other relatives in Portland.

PADEREWSKI APPRECIATED.

All Portland Music Lovers Will Rear Great Planist.

If advance sale of seats counts for any ng, the great planist Ignace Paderewski will be greeted at the Marquam Grand tonight by the record-breaking house of the season. This may not be literally true regarding numbers, but it is when musical taste and culture is concerned While there are still a considerable num ber of excellent seats left in all parts of the house, the sale shows that very few people of real musical taste in the city feel that they can afford to be absent There can be no doubt that Paderewak is the greatest living planist-probably the greatest this generation will eve the sum of $400, evidenced by a note which is past due, and which Davis has falled lar amount, was denied by the court. Mission Society of Oregon, and who is Judge George held that according to two now teaching a mission school in her nafailed o make arrangements to pay. The as sets of the firm, the plaintiff avers, con-sist in the main of oil, manufacturing extracts, the receipts for the manufacture of extracts, books, accounts, a typewriter, caricons, boxes, bottles, labels, gas stove, vanila beans, cologne spirits and appar-atus. Power says he is the owner of an undivided one-half of the property, and that it is in danger of being squa and lost unless the same is taken charge

Was the Gun Londed!

A motion for a new trial was argued in the Criminal Court yesterday in each of the two robbery cases against Andrew The principal point made was Carlson. that there was no evidence introduced at the trials showing that the rifle used by Carlson when he committed the robberles was loaded. The indictments set forth that he was armed with a rifle loaded with powder and ball. This constitutes "robbery, being armed with a dangerous weapon," and admits of 20 years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. "Simple robbery" is where no dangerous weapon tried out in this action.

is employed, and the penalty is not to ed five years. Counsel arg the greater crime was not proved at el the greater crime was not course, could not trial. The witnesses, of course, could not tell whether the rifle pointed at them by Carison was loaded or not. The further question was argued that the verdicts were not justified by the evidence. Judge George will pass upon the motions later on. Carlson was convicted of holding up a street-car at Willamette Heights, and also Mrs. Dickinson. In both cases he made strong effort to establish an alibi

New Suits.

Suits have been filed in the State Circuit Court as follows:

Jerry Maloy against John S. Bays, to recover $624 on a note executed January 11, 1898, and $300 balance due for service performed by the plaintiff as foreman for the defendant at $75 per month, beginning the defendant at $75 per month, beginning in September, 1839. Katie Sattler and Kasper Sattler against Lena Collins, Charles Collins, Eliza Ship-man and William Shipman, heirs of Anna Voos, deceased, for partition of 33 1-3x59 at Fourth and Market streets, and one acre of land, Nathan B. Jones D. L. C., which it is said cannot be made without which, it is said, cannot be made without Canada Settlers' Loan & Trust Com-pany vs. H. C. Allen and wife and William Clark et al., to foreclose a mortgage for $9327 on lots 6, 7 and 8, block 41, Caruth-

The inventory and appraisement of the estate of Anthony Whittaker, deceased, was filed. The valuation is $15,037, of Whittlesey, deceased, was filed. The ap-praisers state that nothing whatever was were $560 and the disburse nents a like

Muse Gets One Year.

James F. Muse, the embezzling book-keeper of the Title Guarantee & Trust Company, was sentenced to one year in the County Jail by Judge George yester-day. The motion to quash the verdict of the jury on the ground that the verdict stated the amount embezzled to be less than $35, without specifying any particu-

Judge George held that according to two decisions by the Oregon Supreme Court, it is not necessary that the verdict of a jury state the precise amount embezzled or stolen, while courts in other states have decided that the jury must fix the exact sum. Muse was charged with the embezzlement of $50 and the jury fixed the compute at less than $55 out of $50. the amount at less than $35, out of sym-pathy, so he would be punished as for One year in the county petit larceny. of by the court and a receiver apponited. jail is the full penalty. To Recover on a Bond. Ladd & Tilton have sued Chas. Cook, W. F. Burrell and B. G. Whitehouse, to recover on a redelivery bond given March 23 last to secure the release

10 horses, camping outfits, tents, etc., at-tached by the plaintiffs, as the property of Joseph Cook. At that time Charles J. Cook set up ownership to the property. Ladd & Tilton now hold a judgment against Joseph Cook for 1431, which they are seeking to collect, and the morits of the controversy will probably be all

Court Notes.

J. V. Pipes, of Albany, miller, ye filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States Court. His liabilities amount to bout $15,000 and his assets to about $350.

DEVOTED TO MISSIONS.

Presbytery of Oregon.

BUSINESS ITEMS. Second Day's Proceedings of If Baby Is Cutting Teeth, Church.

sented.

Be sure and use that old and well-tried semid Mrs. Winstow's Scothing Syrup. for childre-techning. It soothes the child softens the guin allays all pain, cures wind colle and diarrhoss.

tive land. Miss Tate showed in her ar-ticle a remarkable ability for relating stories, and the review was easily equal to the original of Miss Campbell. The typewritten paper was read by Mrs. Dalgrean, In the evening, Mrs. Dr. Wallace, of Salem, presided. The exercises wero opened with prayer, followed by a mu-sical selection by the choir. Mrs, Huber Ferguson, wife of the pastor, read a paper, the subect of which was "Woman in Missions," in which she showed how important a part woman has taken in helping to spread Christianity among the heathen. Thank offerings to the amount of $157 30 were received from delegations representing the various churches throughout the state.

After prayer by the Rov. Mr. Steven-son, of Albany, a missionary address was delivered by the Rov. J. H. Gibson, pastor of the Grand-Avenue Presbyterian

At the close of the address, Mrs. Ham-ilton, of Albany, read the report of the committee on resolutions, thanking the pastor and the members for the hospitabeen received and treated since their ar-rival in the city. The society will meet again this morn-ing at 10 o'clock, when a detailed report of the work of the past year will be ble manner in which the

Knabe Planos. Wiley B. Allen Co.

The Presbytery of Oregon. The Presbytery of Oregon continued its session yesterday at the United Presby-terian Church, Sixth and Montgomery streets. The meeting was called to order in the morning by G. E. Henderson, of Oakville. The only business transacted was the election of a new moderator. C. R. Stevenson, of Albany, was the unani-mous choice of those present. The sev-eral committees reported their special lines of work in good condition. At the afternoon session the commit-tee on "work among the Indians" reported that they had decided on $2000 as the amount to be expended this year for the education of the Indians of the Warm Springs reservation. The rest of the af-А education of the Indians of the Warm Springs reservation. The rest of the af-ternoon was spent in discussion, particu-larly along the line of Indian work. The Presbyterial Woman's Mission So-clety met yesterday afternoon at the same place. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. H. F. Wallace, of Salem, with Mrs. D. Daigleish, of Port-land as secretary. The session was land, as secretary. The session was purely an educational one, and it proved very instructive.

very instructive. After devotional exercises, conducted by Mrs. J. H. Gibson, two short papers, en-titled "News Items," were read by Mrs. C. W. Yates and Mrs. J. A. Speer, on freedmen's mission and Indian mission, respectively. Mrs. A. R. McCoy followed with a thorough and exhaustive paper on "Why I Study, Give To and Pray for Missions?" and Miss L. E. Hamilton gave an exceedingly interesting talk.

an exceedingly interesting talk. The most remarkable thing on the pro-gramme, however, was the review of Miss Campbell's book, "One Hundred Girls in India," by Miss Laura Tate. The latter is totally blind, and suffers great pains in her head but she had the book read to in her head, but she had the bo ok read to who've used them say,

KITCHEN NECESSITY THE Universal Food Chopper

at our store this week, and we'll be glad

HONEYMAN, DeHART & CO. Fourth & Alder Streets.

"Couldn't get along without it." So will you, after you're tried one. We are giving a practical demonstration to tell you all about it if you'll call,

CHARLES LOGUS. the latter now a resident of Los Angeles, have the pleasure of hearing, and this erected a building on East Washington (then called L street) and East Second streets, and started a pork-packing house. The building still stands on this corner.

The building still stands on this corner. Afterwards Mr. Logus sold out. He erect-ed a row of wooden buildings on Fourth street, north from the corner of East Washington street. These burning down, he put up a brick block on the corner of Union avenue and East Washington street, on the site of the rulned structures. Shorthy before the financial slump, in the early '90e, Mr. Logus erected the fine three-story brick on the corner of East Washington street and Grand avenue, at Washington street and Grand avenue, at a cost of $40,000. At that time it was finest and most costly structure on the | Hardman Planos. Wiley B. Allen Co.

have the pleasure of hearing, and this is likely to be his last visit to the Pa-cific Northwest. Much surprise has been shown that Manager Hellig, of the Mar-quam, was able to make arrangements that brought about this star event in musical circles. Not only does the Port-land music world appreciate this, but persons and parties of musical culture in the Valley towns and in other parts of Oregon have been ordering reserved scats Oregon have been ordering reserved seats by wire. The programme, which has already been printed in The Oregonian, is said by those who know to be splendidly adapted to the great artist's powers.

ers' addition to Caruthers' addition. The Moro Mercantile Company against 8. Yamaoka, to recover $63 for goods sold at Sherman County in March, 1990. Probate Matters.

which $6357 is cash. The inventory of the estate of P. B.

The final account of Frank Klernan, ad-ministrator of the estate of Henry J. Arnold, deceased, was filed. The receipts