Oregon to Be Represented at Big World's Sunday School Convention at Tokio

1000 AMERICANS TO ATTEND MEET AT JAPANESE CITY

Oregon is to be officially represented at the World's Sunday School convention in Tokio, Japan, October 8, by two delegates. They are Miss Mable Hines of the First Baptist church, Portland, and the Rev. J. D. Ferguson of Philomath college. Their credentials have already been forwarded to the International Sunday School office by Harold F. Humbert, general secretary of the Oregon association. From standpoint of delegates, the three leading states are Pennsylvania with 85 registrations, Ohio with 29 and New York with 26.

The convention hall that will house the eighth World's Sunday school convention is being erected on the great plaza in front of the railroad station. The building will be in barracks style and will seat 3500. Five hundred can be accommodated on the large platform. This will furnish places for the chorus choirs and the pageants to be rendered. The dining hall will seat 1000 at a time. Many delegates will be entertained in Japanese and missionaries' homes on the Harvard plan. One thousand Americans are expected at the convention.

The International association has arranged several tours for delegates. Two ships will leave Japan after the convention returning by way of China, Singapore, Colombo, Port Said, Marseilles and to America. Detours will be arranged through India, Egypt and Palestine.

Reservations are being made daily on the 30 steamers that will carry delegates to the convention. The sailings are from July 30 to September 23. Three ships are for the exclusive use of delegates. The privilege of Christian companionship, community sings, Bible conferences, etc., will be features of the "exclusive" ships.

Those who attend the convention will have the opportunity of visiting the mission stations and native churches. The convention is planned for a time when Japan is said to be most beautiful. Special information on the subject may be obtained from the World's Sunday School association, 216 Metropolitan Tower, New York city.

The United States produces and consumes more talc than any other country. Manufacture of paper pulp from seaweed has reached a profitable stage in Japan.

Pastor Arrives for Arbor Lodge Church

The Rev. Alexander R. Evans of New York city arrived in Portland during the past week to assume the pastorate of the Arbor Lodge Presbyterian church, which has been without a regular pastor almost continuously since America entered the world war. The minister is well impressed with Portland, and says it is second to no city of the United States in point of future possibilities and beauty.

At the outbreak of the war Mr. Evans was made religious director for Dickey county, North Dakota, but in a short time he became a "Y" secretary and was assigned to transport duty. After the armistice was signed he was transferred to the troop trains, on which he worked until October, 1919. Since then he has been executive field Boy Scout commissioner for New York state.

He will occupy his pulpit for the first time Sunday morning. In the evening he will preach at Central Presbyterian church. One week from Sunday he will begin Sunday evening services.

Children's Day at Fairview

The Children's day exercises of the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church at Fairview will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Every department will take part under the direction of Mrs. D. N. McKay, superintendent. Infants may be presented for baptism. The Rev. Mr. Pratt, formerly of Forbes Presbyterian church, will take this part of the service, after which Clive M. Salz, who has been a student at San Anselmo, Cal., for some time, will speak.

Three Incentives Is Topic

"Three Incentives to a Right Life" will be the subject of the Sunday morning sermon of the Rev. W. G. Eliot at the Church of Our Father, Broadway and Yamhill street. Mitylene Fraker Stites will sing the offertory solo. This will be her last solo before departing for New York. This church will be open daily during Shriners' week.

News of Importance Among Portland Churches and Young Peoples Societies

Larger than some of Portland's public schools is the Mount Scott Daily Vacation Bible school, which opened Wednesday at the Milliard Avenue Presbyterian church. The attendance the first day was 263, and on Thursday it jumped to 300. The regular staff of teachers provided was not sufficient, so more were added. The staff now numbers 17. The church building was not large enough to handle the school, so all the boys' classes have been transferred to a store building nearby. About 10 mothers who have children in the school thought it a wise plan to learn something more about the Bible themselves, so they have elected a teacher and formed a class. The Bible school meets each school day of the week from 9 a. m. until noon. The Sunday schools in the Mount Scott district are cooperating. The city playgrounds across the street from the church are used during the recess period. The school will continue for three weeks.

BAPTIST

Dr. W. A. Waldo, pastor of the White Temple, invites the Shriners, Masons and their friends to attend his Sunday services. In the evening he will deliver an appropriate address on "The Church and Free Masonry." Dr. Waldo is a Shriner and intends to give visitors a hearty welcome. The Temple quartet will sing.

The Rev. H. T. Cash, associate pastor of the East Side Baptist church, will preach Sunday. Dr. W. B. Hinson, pastor, is in Chicago today. During the coming week he goes to Buffalo to speak at the Baptist Fundamentals conference and the Northern Baptist convention.

Pastor F. W. Starring of Grace Baptist church represented Dr. O. C. Wright, executive secretary of the Oregon convention at the Southern Oregon association convention at Springfield on Thursday and Friday. He has returned to occupy his pulpit Sunday.

Sunday morning the Rev. H. H. Griffis of the First Christian church will discuss the church's place in modern society. Miss Nina Dressel, special contralto for the Shriners' convention, will sing Sunday morning. A special musical program will be given at night, followed by a short sermon.

An illustrated lecture on modern missionary work will be given Sunday night at Kern Park Christian church by Dr. J. F. Ghormley.

CONGREGATIONAL

Dr. W. T. McElveen will preach his farewell sermon for the season at the First Congregational church on Sunday evening. He will start east Monday morning for a two months' speaking tour and vacation. He is Oregon's delegate to the International Congregational council, which convenes in Boston June 29 to July 9. The council meets every 10 years. Every other 10 years it meets in the United States. The meeting this year has special significance as it celebrates the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth.

Dr. McElveen will be the guide of one of the pilgrimages from Boston to Plymouth. After the council he will visit friends in large Eastern cities. During his absence the pulpit will be supplied by Dr. Arthur Sullens, superintendent of home missions for Oregon; Dr. Ernest H. Tippetz of the church federation of Seattle, and Dr. Rios of Plymouth church, Oakland, Cal. Sunday morning Dr. McElveen will preach the baccalaureate sermon at the University of Oregon.

Two special Sunday morning sermons will mark the close of the ministry of the Rev. R. M. Pratt as pastor of the Pilgrims Congregational church. Special music will be rendered each Sunday by the quartet. The young people of the church have charge of the evening service. Pictures on "Where East Meets West" will be shown this week.

EPISCOPAL

Professor Lutkin, an authority on music from Northwestern university of Chicago, will speak at the 11 o'clock service Sunday at St. Stephens, procathedral. In the evening Dean Hicks will preach. W. A. Moore will take up the recent discoveries in Malta, the scene of St. Paul's shipwreck, at the young people's meeting.

Shriners and other visitors are invited to use the diocesan office of the Episcopal church as a rest room and meeting place. They are in the Ainsworth building, Third and Oak streets.

Rt. Rev. W. T. Sumner, bishop of Oregon, will be in Seattle over the week end to preach the baccalaureate sermon for the University of Washington.

EVANGELICAL

In the absence of the Rev. F. B. Culver from the Lents Evangelical church Sunday, the pulpit will be filled in the morning by the Rev. Ezra Maurer and in the evening by the Rev. C. L. Schuster. The Lord's supper will be observed in the evening.

The address at "The Altenheim," German Old Folks' home, will be given Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. J. P. Lich, an Evangelical minister. The Rev. Jacob Stocker will be in charge.

FREE METHODIST

The Rev. W. J. Johnston has accepted the pastorate of the First Free Methodist church, to succeed the Rev. Samuel J. Upton. Miss Winninah Johnston has been secured as deaconess. F. A. Miller has been elected Sunday school superintendent.

LUTHERAN

Sunday Grace Lutheran church celebrates its annual mission festival. There will be no services in the church, all being transferred to Concordia college, Twenty-eighth and Holman streets. The Rev. C. H. Bernhard will speak at 11 a. m. and the Rev. C. F. Schulenburg of Lebanon will preach at 2:30 p. m.

The Rev. O. K. Anderson of Woodburn will occupy the pulpit of Our Saviour's Lutheran church Sunday morning.

The Rev. A. Krause of St. Paul's Lutheran church has returned from the synodical meeting in Idaho and will occupy his pulpit Sunday.

METHODIST

Bishop Eben S. Johnson, a member of the Mystic Shrine order, will preach Sunday morning at Wilbur Methodist church in the Multnomah hotel. A fine program of music has been prepared. Bishop Johnson is visiting at the home of his son, Rev. W. S. Johnson, at Clatskanie. He will attend the Shrine festivities during the week.

Sunday night Bishop Johnson will preach at the First Methodist church. He is a personal friend of Dr. Joshua Stansfield. The pastor will preach a sermon to Shriners and Sunday morning. The First Methodist church women are housing 150 Shriners and their friends, in the Sunday school temple.

Sunnyside Masonic lodge will attend Sunnyside Methodist church Sunday evening in a body to listen to the Rev. W. F. Ineson's sermon on "Masonry and Its Working Tools." In the morning an address will be given to children.

The annual Children's day exercises of Woodlawn Methodist church will be given Sunday morning. The Rev. J. H. Irvine has set aside the preaching service for this event. Children will be baptized at the conclusion of the program.

Young men's and boys' day will be observed Sunday night at Clinton Kelly Memorial M. E. church. Dr. George B. Pratt will be the speaker. Singing will be by young men.

Children's day service will be held at the hour of the Sunday evening service at Mount Tabor Methodist church. The program is entitled, "The Coloring Book."

A large community meeting is planned for Lincoln Methodist church Sunday night, at which time Bishop W. O. Shepard and Dr. E. C. Hickman will preach. Special music will be furnished by the Wilbur church orchestra.

The Rev. Ole Nielsen of Perth Amboy, N. J., will have charge of the Sunday evening service at the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church. The service will be in the Norwegian and Danish language.

An invitation to all visitors in the city, especially those from the South, is extended by the Rev. J. W. Byrd, to the services of the First Methodist church South.

PRESBYTERIAN

Dr. John H. Boyd will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church for two more Sundays. On July 11, the church expects to welcome its new pastor, the Rev. Harold L. Bowman, D. D., from Chicago. Dr. Boyd will preach twice Sunday. The quarterly communion will be observed in the morning.

Sunday evening the Rev. Alexander R. Evans, pastor-elect of Arbor Lodge Presbyterian church and a friend of Dr. W. H. Nugent, will preach at Central Presbyterian church. The chorus will sing. In the morning the Schubert club will sing and Dr. Nugent will preach.

Sunday services in Mount Tabor Presbyterian church will be featured by summer communion and reception of members in the morning, and by a special service conducted by the Gideon society in the evening.

Reception of new members, baptism and communion will be observed Sunday morning at Piedmont Presbyterian church. Dr. J. F. Morgan, pastor, will preach at night. After the address a world picture of an industrial nature, entitled, "Heads Win," will be shown.

The Rev. L. K. Grimes of Kenilworth Presbyterian church wants to show the people in his community are saving carfare on Sundays and attending his church in preference to traveling to the downtown churches as has been their custom.

The high school Bible class of Mispah Presbyterian church will picnic at Lake Grove next Wednesday. Mrs. Paul Doltz of Dunsmuir, P. L., will speak to the Women's Missionary society at their regular meeting on Tuesday. The pastor will preach twice Sunday.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Children's day exercises of Millard Avenue Presbyterian church will be held, and a sermonette preached by the Rev. Floyd Dorris. The Rev. Mr. Dorris will preach also at 8 p. m.

UNITED BRETHREN

Dr. Byron J. Clark will begin a three weeks' service of health sermons Sunday night at the First United Brethren church. He announces that the subject will be treated in "the brondest, most common sense and Scriptural manner." It is not his purpose to attack any cult, sect or religion. Good music will be furnished by the choir.

Shears for tailors that can be operated at a speed of 100 cuts a minute by an electric motor are a Chicagoan's invention.

Visiting Pastor Will Dedicate Church

Formal dedicatory services for the new St. Johns Christian church will be held Sunday. The Rev. Percy George Cross of Charlotte, N. C., will preach the dedicatory sermon at 3 p. m. and also the regular sermons at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. The pastor of the church is Dr. Herbert F. Jones. Dr. Jones came to the St. Johns Christian church about six years ago. Since that time the congregation outgrew the old building. The new edifice is of frame constructure, built on the mission style, and cost $12,000. It will seat 500 persons. Mrs. Cross will give the special music.

Million Raised for Judaism in America

One million dollars has been raised since the Passover by the Union of American Hebrew congregations for the purpose of insuring survival of Judaism in America. This announcement was made by Manny Straus of Cincinnati, chairman of the advisory committee. This sum, payable in 10 years, was given in the form of pledges by Jews from all walks throughout the United States. The fund is to enable the fulfilment of elaborate plans mapped out in connection with the organization's 10-year program of expansion. The financial goal is $3,500,000. The success of the movement is attributed largely to the active interest taken by Jewish young people.

Will Speak on Honesty

Clive M. Salz, state social service superintendent of the Oregon Christian Endeavor union, will address the San Grael society of the First Presbyterian church Sunday night. Salz recently returned from San Francisco, where he took a special course at a theological seminary. He will speak on "Honesty."

Church Concert Announced

A musical program will be given at the Augustana Lutheran church Sunday evening, June 20. The church chorus, under the direction of Charles Swenson, will sing two anthems and vocal solos will be given by Mrs. La Vada Cohn, J. E. Wallin and Miss Olga Johnson. There will be a piano solo by Miss Edith Almquist and a violin solo by David Tamken.

Meeting Place Changed

Owing to the crowded condition of the Hotel Portland the First Divine Science church will adjourn their services Sunday from the hotel to the "Wilbur Rest Home," 394 East Forty-eighth street, north. The Rev. T. M. Minard, Pastor, will preach at 11 a. m.

FEDERATION OF CHURCHES HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The Portland Federation of Churches held its first annual meeting last Monday night in the First Methodist Episcopal church. Dr. Joshua Stansfield, president, presided and presented the report of the year's work.

The election of officers for the new year resulted as follows: President, Walter D. Whitcomb; vice presidents, Right Rev. W. T. Sumner and James F. Ewing; recording secretary, Robert M. Tuttle; treasurer, Grant Phegley; chairman department of evangelism, Dr. Edward H. Pence; chairman department of social and industrial betterment, Norman F. Coleman; chairman department of religious education, James F. Ewing; chairman department of survey and interchurch world movement, A. H. Averill; chairman department of publicity, Fred Lockley; chairman financial appeals, charity and philanthropy, Dr. W. W. Youngson; executive committee, Emerson B. Clark, Louis V. Lundberg, Samuel L. Conner, Hubert A. Goode, John A. Hammond, Rodney L. Gilsan, Cornelius Tonseth; honorary member, Dr. Joshua Stansfield.

The report of the executive committee for the past year showed decided activity in the work of the departments of evangelism, social and industrial betterment, religious education and survey and interchurch world movement. The report of the treasurer showed that 51 of Portland's churches had made the life of the federation possible by their financial support, and that other churches are reporting their desire to cooperate, as the work of the federation proves itself to be of value in the city.

The meeting by unanimous action indorsed the plan of the interchurch world movement for a completion of its financial campaign.

The executive committee was instructed to use all possible assistance to raise a budget of $6000 for the work of the next year.

One of the actions taken was the adoption of a statement on comity. This plan invites all communions in the city before the establishment of any new church enterprises within the city limits to lay the plans before the comity department of the federation with the hope that by united action they may prevent in the future any possible overlapping and overlooking in the location of new churches.
