Baby Reported Near Death; Father Gone

Corvallis, Sept. 10.—An appeal for help in finding Robert Lewis Denham, who left here on Wednesday afternoon's train for Portland, is being sent out. Denham's baby is reported to be dying and his wife is said to be without means. Denham is said to be en route for Alberton, Mont. He is 20 years old and might go under the name of Lewis.

Loggers' Legion Has Annual Convention; Progress Reported

The annual convention of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen of the twelfth district, embracing the Columbia river territory, was held at the Portland hotel Thursday afternoon, 30 delegates being present. Reports read by President Coleman and Secretary Abbey showed that employers of 62,000 men, representing 75 per cent of the lumber business of the district, are affiliated with the organization.

A resolution was adopted recommending that all plants desiring to work more than eight hours a day during emergencies must first secure the sanction of the legion's local. N. E. Ayer of the St. Johns Lumber company presented a resolution providing for an increase in the general board of the Loyal Legion from 24 to 48 members, equally divided between employers and employes. A resolution condemning any practice contrary to the principles of democracy within the Legion also was adopted.

The following members of the executive committee of the twelfth district were elected: Employes, W. A. Pratt, J. J. Drill, T. L. Kay and Charles Decker, with Ira Nelson of Astoria as alternate; employers, E. D. Kingsley, J. W. Fowler, J. W. Thompson and R. H. Noye, with N. E. Ayer as alternate. The annual meeting of the general board of the Loyal Legion will be held here September 20.

Silverware Stolen From A. F. Peterson; Bonds Overlooked

After prying open a rear window to the home of A. F. Peterson, 958 Hillsdale avenue, with an old shovel, thieves entered the house Thursday night while the family was absent and stole a small amount of silverware. They overlooked three $50 Liberty bonds and a few other valuables. The entire house was ransacked.

Mrs. Mollie Johnson, 160½ Grand avenue, neglected to lock her apartment door Thursday afternoon when she left her rooms for about 20 minutes. When she returned her room had been robbed of $48.50.

While Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Moore were absent from their quarters at the Dreck apartments Thursday, a thief entered and stole a typewriter, according to a report made to Inspector Morak.

Boys and Girls

We are holding a reception Saturday. Come, attend the opening of our Juvenile Department.

BOYS AND GIRLS of Portland—from the little folks to their big brothers and sisters—should have, we feel, a bank that has a special department exclusively for their use.

For this reason we are opening our Juvenile Department, under the direction of Mr. Samuel Slocum, who will make "Friendly Service" mean as much to our younger depositors as it does to their elders in other departments of the bank.

The formal opening of the Juvenile Department will be on Saturday. Our officers will be on hand to greet you and show you around the bank. Be present, please, and bring your friends, any time from 10 A. M. until 8 P. M.

For every boy and girl who opens a savings account Saturday or any time thereafter we have a very attractive bank, made to resemble a leather covered book, which we are loaning free. A dollar is all you need to open the account.

Your protection—

The name Tillamook on the rind is your assurance that you are buying cheese of the highest quality.

Up and down the Pacific Coast, the grocers are proud to display Tillamook Cheese because they know of the high standards under which it is produced.

Tillamook cuts the cost of living—it is far greater in food value than meat, eggs, fowl, potatoes—yet how inexpensive by comparison! Five quarts of full cream milk go into the making of a pound of Tillamook.

You can buy Tillamook at the best grocers everywhere—by the slice—or in 6 and 14 pound sizes.
