Tomorrow Will Be Lovejoy Prohibition Rally Day In Churches of Portland

VOTE FOR LOVEJOY WILL BE URGED BY MANY PASTORS

Tomorrow is to be prohibition Sunday in the pulpits of all ministers affiliated with the General Ministerial association, and at least part of one or both regular services is to be devoted to statements of the importance of safeguarding the Volstead act and of telling why church members and all citizens who love good government should vote for Dr. Esther Pohl Lovejoy as representative in congress from this district.

Dr. Lovejoy was unanimously indorsed by the ministers of the association, both in regular and special sessions recently, and how best to elect her was left with the legislative committee of the association, of which Dr. E. C. Hickman, pastor of Wilbur Methodist Episcopal church, is chairman.

Dr. Hickman's committee is working hand in hand with the Multnomah County Dry Congressional committee, with which is combined all of the prohibition forces of the county and city. Upon recommendation of the committee, the general association set aside Sunday, October 24, as prohibition day and it will be generally observed as such throughout the city and county.

The Ministerial association indorsed Dr. Lovejoy because of her long record of adherence to the prohibition principle and her present pledge to defend the Volstead act against all onslaughts in congress, if she is elected.

Two Portland Bible Classes in National Attendance Contest

Two Portland Bible classes are engaged in a national contest with 27 other similar classes covering 18 states, now being conducted by the International Sunday School association. The contest is conducted on a basis of credits for enrollment, attendance, Bible study and percentage of church membership.

The national contest is the first of a number of efforts on the part of the International Sunday School association to increase interest in adult Bible classes. Reports are required weekly from each competing class.

The Portland classes are the Warren vesper class and the Warren Bible class for young women, both being conducted by Mrs. Angela L. Ford Warren at the First Presbyterian church. The vesper class meets at 4 p. m. each Sunday in room E of the church house and is open to all young people, especially those living away from home. The class began its fall work three weeks ago with 82 present. Last Sunday 138 attended. This Sunday Clinton O. Bay will conduct a 20-minute song service and Miss Katheryn Keim and Paul H. Gelvin will sing. The third lecture on "The Drama of Life" will be given.

The Warren Bible class is for young women only and meets at 12:15 p. m. each Sunday in room E of the church house. This class also started its work three Sundays ago and has increased from 96 to 143. Credit for this increase is given by the teacher to Miss Minnie Heath, Miss Grace Burton and Miss Marie Lessing. The subject Sunday will feature the ideal young woman.

Next Tuesday evening the two classes will combine and enjoy a Halloween party in the church, at which time friends of the class will also be entertained. Several spooky features are promised. Mrs. Warren and Miss Jennie Lee Simmons will be hostesses. The committee in charge is: Miss Jessie McLaughlin, Miss Heath, Miss Burton, Miss Lessing, Miss Helen Baughman, George Morgan, Frank A. Heiber and Earl Shrader.

Family Affection Readings Feature

The Bible readings in the Sunday evening hour of worship last Sunday will be followed this Sunday evening by a group of readings from the same source in which family affection will be presented, at the Church of Our Father (Unitarian), Broadway at Yamhill, Rev. William G. Eliot Jr., minister. At the morning service Rev. Mr. Eliot will preach the last of the series on "Great Prayers." At the Young Peoples' fraternity at 6:30 p. m. a letter from Frank C. United Brethren Raise Large Fund

Bishop William H. Washinger of the United Brethren in Christ has returned from Beach, N. D., where he held the Montana conference, the last of the conferences of the Pacific district. He reports that during the last year the Pacific district raised in the United Enlistment drive, $90,485.05. Of this amount Oregon college at Philomath was endowed during the quadrennium, which will not close until next year, with $77,000. Of this amount $50,000 was raised during the past year and Oregon alone raised $26,000 of that. The bishop left Friday evening for a speaking itinerary of the California conference.

St. David's Parish Activities Started

The schools at St. Davids church, East Twelfth and Belmont streets, have opened with more children than ever before. The follow-up campaign is being organized and will soon be in full swing. A party will be held on Wednesday, being given by the Girls' Friendly society for the whole parish. On Thursday night in the school at Fiftieth and Division streets a children's operetta will be given by the school. "A Daily Reminder" is being published each month of all the events, services and doings of the month for distribution through the parish.

New Political Appeal

"The time has passed," according to Franklin Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for vice president, "when one can use the old slogan of the full dinner pail. Our government today requires an appeal to the head and not to the stomach."

Important News of Portland's Churches and Young People's Societies

First hand information as to the value and need of good clothing in Armenia was given in Portland during the past week by Dr. H. P. Packard, who addressed the synodical session of the Presyterian Woman's Missionary society. Dr. Packard had charge of Westminster hospital at Urumia, Persia. He told how he and Mrs. Packard were driven out of their home near Teheran and forced to flee to Aravan, a town at the base of Mt. Ararat, where they found a Near East relief sation. Dr. Packard said the Turks took all their baggage and clothing, save what they were wearing. It so happened that both Dr. and Mrs. Packard had on summer apparel when the raid was made, so they suffered intensely in the cold December nights, while making their journey on foot. The attack was in December, 1919.

Twenty tons of clothing given by Oregon residents are packed and ready for shipment to the Near East, according to J. J. Hansaker, state director. As the boat does not leave for a few days, additional gifts can still be included in the shipment.
