FREPERICKSBURG, Berenth and Alder-

DESTRUCTION PROPHESIED .- Since the terrible disaster has befallen Galveston various alleged seers and spiritualists have stated that they prophesied the destruction of the city within a recent pe-riod, and Mr. J. P. Burkhart relates that his brother-in-law, who was a promlinent lawyer of Texas, predicted as long ago as 1855 that Galveston would give way to a hurricane. This prediction, how-ever, was not based on dreams or com-munications from the spirit world, but upon common-sense reasoning. Galves-ton is located on a sand island, and what was many years ago not much more than a sandspit adjoining the mainland, and which has filled up considerably during the last 50 years. Mr. Burkhart says his brother-in-law wrote a book alluding to the hurricanes which occur in that section and the winds which blow from the American coast, etc., and predicting that some day a hurricane would come of sufficient force to cause the waters of the Gulf to rise to great height and devastate the city. The Galveston News and other newspapers in Texas, Mr. Burkhart states, reviewed the book and midiculed the author, whose prophesy after 45 years has come true, but such another storm might never overcome Galweston again.

PLEASED WITH PORTLAND'S CARNIVAL-Frank Sancho, of New Orleans, who has been in the city during the Carnival, has attended carnivals of various kinds in all the large cities, from New Orleans to St.-Paul, and says Portland has done herself credit in this line. He was agree-ably surprised to note the highly respectable class of people in attendance evenings, and says they are better behaved than the crowds he has met in most places on such occasions. Everybody was jolly and pleasant, and enjoyed the fun, and there was an agreeable absence of rudeness or signs of the tough element so much in evidence on such occasions in other cities he has visited. His experience during the Fair has given him a pleasing impression of Portland and Portland people.

REPUBLICAN LEAGUE MEETING .- A meeting of the Republican League of Mult-nomah County was held last evening in room Tm. Chamber of Commerce. The league is composed of the presidents, vicepresidents and secretaries of the local clubs of the county. It will co-operate with the Republican State Central Committee for the purpose of distributing literature and arousing enthusiasm among the Republicans of the state. A Rough Rider marching column  $\pi$ 'll be uniformed in the near future, Messrs, S. C. Spencer, E. A. Jewell and W. W. Banks having been appointed a committee to attend to the details. A rousing Republican rally is on the tapis, and the Rough Rider marching force will be displayed on the the op aslon

To MARE TRIAL TRIP .- S. Elmore, of Astoria, is in the city for the purpose of going on the trial trip of his new steamer Sue H. Elmore today. This boat was built by Joseph Supple, and the ma-chinery has been put in by the Williamette Iron & Steel Company. She is to take the place of the steamer R. T. El-more, which was sold by Mr. Elmore and taken to Alaska. She is fitted for carry-ing passengers and freight, and will attend to Mr. Elmore's business on the Columbia and run on the Tillamook route. Mr. Elmore is much pleased with his new boat, and says she is a "big" little boat, and that they build good boats in Portland. If she makes a good run today, he will be better pleased than ever.

WHERE IS MRS. N. HOLDEN ?-Mrs. G. H. Jubb, of Sydney, New South Wales, has written to Postmaster Croasman to ascertain the whereabouts of her sister. Mrs. N. Holden, from whom she has not heard since 1880. Mr. Holden was then a member of the firm of Holden & Johnston, plumbers in this city. Perhaps some old resident of Portland may know the whereabouts of Mrs. Holden, and will kindly inform the Postmaster of the same

In order that he may be enabled to forward her sister's letter to her if she is still living. Mr. Holden died many years ago, and as no one can be found who knows where Mrs. Holden is, it may be that she left the state and has gone back to friends in England.

RECEPTION TO DR. WISE .- Invitation: have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Solo-mon Hirsch to members of the Beth Israel Congregation for a reception to Dr. Stephen & Wise at their residence next Monday evening. ### "King of Laysan" Killed Two Japanese Laborers.

HONOLULU, Sept. 8, via San Francisco Sept. 14.-A story of a battle on Laysan Island, a small speck in the Pacific, which was once a Hawaiian dependency, reached here today by the bark Ceylon, which brought to Honolulu all the participants in the affair. It was a fight between Captain Spencer, the "King of the Island," and 40 Japanese laborers, who were taken there to help load vessels from Honolulu with guano. The Captain fired eight bullets into the crowd of Japanese, killing two of them and wounding three others. There were only five white men on the island when the trouble took place,

According to the story of Captain Spencer, the Japanese had planned to seize the island and kill all the whites. The evening of August 11 they assembled in front of his residence and there was a long discussion. It ended when the Japanese made a rush to take the place. Captain Spencer stood his ground with a six-shooter in each hand and fired at the leaders. The ringleader and one other man fell dead and three Japanese man fell dead and three Japanese dropped to the ground with serious wounds. The other 25 fled. Captain Spencer and the other whites remained on sured all might, and the next day they began to round up the Japanese and put them on board the Ceylon, to be taken to Honolulu. They were all put be-low in the hold, with the hatches fastened down, and the bark started away from the island, leaving behind only two white men, Captain Spencer's son and the carpenter employed by the guano company. On arriving in Honolulu last night Captain Spencer was charged with murder, and he will be held for trinl. The story of the Japanese is very different from that told by Spencer. They allege that they made no attack upon Captain, but simply assembled the house to discuss the matter of food supply. For several weeks they had been on short rations, owing to the wreck of the bark McNear, which went ashore on Dowsett Reef, while on her way to Lay-san with provisions. The Japanese say that the shots were fired into the crowd without provocation. The case will be tried in the United States District Court Laysan Island is about 600 miles northwest of Honolulu. It was "annexed" to Hawall by King Kalakaun, and since then it has been leased by a Honolulu firm, which sends a vessel regularly for cargoes of guano. It is a small, low island, covered deeply with guano, and having on it no other valuable product. The Japanese Consul will probably be asked to demand damages for the Japa-nose for their sufferings on the way to Honolulu. They were kept in the hold below, amid intense heat, during the 20 days of the journey, as It was feared that might be more trouble on the ves sel if they were given liberty. Only one of them was allowed on deck at a time.
