TO STOP THE FIGHT Cincinnati May Not Have the Jeffries-Ruhlin Match.

ACTION TAKEN BY GOV. NASH He Directs the State Attorney-General to Begin Injunction Proceedings in a Hamilton County Court—Sale of Seats Opens.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 28.—Action was taken by Governor Nash today to prevent the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight at Cincinnati, February 15. The Governor has been opposed to the fight being held in the state, and today he sent the following letter to Attorney-General Sheets: "It has come to my knowledge that certain persons in Cincinnati are to conduct an enterprise in that city on February 15 next which has all the earmarks of being a prize fight. Such an event would be a disgrace to the State of Ohio, and as a violation of law, and I hereby authorize and request you to take such steps and commence such action at law, civil or criminal, as may be necessary to prevent this occurrence, and in so doing to observe the laws of the state. Very respectfully yours, "GEORGE K. NASH."

Local Opinion at Cincinnati Is That the Fight Will Be Pulled Off. CINCINNATI, Jan. 28.—The attorneys who were in consultation with Governor Nash and Attorney-General Sheets at the state capital today, in reference to the proposed Jeffries-Ruhlin fight in this city, returned to Cincinnati tonight, but late in the afternoon they returned to Cincinnati to file a petition for an injunction. The local opinion is that the fight will be pulled off, but it is generally conceded that they will go into the court in which they think they have the best chance to secure an injunction.
