NO RESORT TO ARMS.

Secretary Blaine Admits that we are Not in a Condition to Fight England and Must Back Down.

The Hostile Indians are Slowly Moving Toward Pine Ridge Agency to Surrender to Gen. Miles.

Assembling of the Oregon Legislature Simon and Geer Win all the Honors.

IS MILES AFRAID TO FIGHT?

General Miles Still Parleying With the Redskins.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 12.—A Post dispatch, special, from Pine Ridge agency reads: "General Miles determined this morning not to parley nor confer again with the Indians, and this morning he sent a message to the hostile's camp at Mission stating his terms. He said they must come to the agency in small sqnads and go into camp on grounds near the friendly Indians. He would not object if they chose their own company grounds; but Brules and Ogallas must not camp together, and they must submit to the law governing the reservation and to the agent." It is learned from official sources that this is General Miles' final action. If the Indians don't accept these terms Miles will go after them, and there will be a fight sure.

The Behring Sea Controversy.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—The Chronicle, commenting on the Behring sea controversy, says: "If it be true that Blaine has suggested that a commission proceed to Alaska and report on the condition of the fishery, he has taken a very prudent course, likely to remove the deadlock. We hope the British government will lose no time in giving the proposal support."

BERLIN, Jan. 10.—The Behring sea question is discussed by the press of the country as having no special relation to German interests. The tendency of opinion is distinctly in favor of arbitration. Reports which, however, are unconfirmed, credit the government with taking the initiative in suggesting that the governments at London and Washington appoint an arbitration tribunal, composed of eminent jurists selected from the neutral powers. The idea is scouted that the difference can possibly result in an armed conflict.

A Russian Fool Blows his Brains Out.

MONTE CARLO, Jan. 10.—Another suicide has just startled Monte Carlo. A Russian gentleman, name withheld by authorities, blew his brains out last night. A letter upon his body contained information to the effect that the writer had lost eight hundred thousand roubles at the gambling tables. It is thought that the suicide may bring about the long talked of suppression of gambling at Monte Carlo.

Germany Doesn't Want the Gilbert Islands.

BERLIN, Jan. 8.—The Post announces that the German government has decided to establish a port of entry at Jaluit island, one of the Marshall group, in the Pacific ocean. The Post denies the reports coming from San Fraecisco in regard to the annexotion of the Gilbert islands by Germaay.

Good Crops Promised for Kansas.

ABILENE, Kansas, Jan. 10.—The farmers are more than satisfied with the outlook for wheat indications throughout the state. The freezing weather and heavy snow of the fall has effectually disposed of the Hessian fly.

A straw burning traction engine has been completed at the Benicia, Cal., Agricultural works, which is said to be the largest in the world. It will pull 40 plows, doing the work of 80 horses,

In Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Senator Quay to-day introduced a bill entitled, an act to prevent force and fraud in federal elections, and to insure lawful and peaceful conduct thereof. The principal point of difference between his bill and Hoar's bill is in the last section which is as follows: "When it shall appear to the satisfaction of the president of the United States that in any locality provisions of this law cannot otherwise be executed it shall be his duty to suspend the writ of habeas corpus and to employ armed forces of the United States naval and military for its enforcement.

In the house a resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of a special committee of five members to investigate the alleged connection of members of congress in the silver pool and to inquire into the ownership of twelve million ounces of silver bullion which the United States was asked to purchase.

DO THEY MEAN TO FIGHT.

The Hostiles Slowly Moving Toward Pine Ridge.

PINE RIDGE, Jan. 12.—Kicking Bear writes that he will surrender, but this is regarded with considerable doubt by the military.

The hostiles are moving toward Pine Ridge agency but this progress is slow, conseqnence upon having fifty badly wounded warriors with them.

Living Upon Turnips.

CORK, Jan. 10.—The state of destitution into which the poor people of some portions of Ireland are plunged, can be judged by the fact that to-day representatives of over 100 families living in the Cloyne district waited upon the board of guardians and earnestly begged for assistance. They stated that for some time they had been living almost entirely upon turnips.

Heavy Losses by the Natives.

PARIS, Jan. 10.—Advices from St. Louis, the chief town of Senegal, bring the news that the French troops under command of Archinard, carried by assault the fortress of Niora, belonging to the Sultan of Anemdos. During the battle 400 natives were killed or wounded; 8000 natives were engaged. On the French side fifty-one native soldiers were killed and several dangerously wounded.

Blaine can do no More.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 12.—A Times Washington special says Blaine owned to a friend that he could go no further in the Bhering sea controversy with England. That the United States had nothing to fight with and that to insist on our rights meant a resort to arms.

THE DALLES OF THE COLUMBIA.

Two Flourshing Towns in the Centre of a Prolific Section.

The head of navigation in all navigable rivers is a point at which the establisbment of a city becomes a necessity. The surrounding country decides by its productions whether that city shall be great or small, fortunate or unfortonate. In this regard the City of the Dalles is to be specially congratulated, for in whichever direction one may travel there exists a stretch of the most productive grazing and agricultural lands in the State of Oregon. This city has become the natural outlet for the prodncts of these thousands of acres, and its warehouses handle the fruits of the earth to a value extending into the million each year. The product of the surrounding wheat country will average two million bushels annually; its grazing lands produce seven million pounds of wool in the same period. Fruits of all kind flourish in abundance, the apple, pear, peach, plum, and varieties of berries growing with a magnitude and luxuriance which to the Eastern fruit producer is bewildering. Small tracts of ten and twenty acres give to their owners an incoms of irom five to eight thousand dollars per year. In the midst of this prosperity stands she city of the Dalles.—San Francisco Examiner.
