AN AMERICAN HELD.

Dr. Wm. T. Leach of St. Joseph, Missouri, Seized and Held by the Italian Government.

Quiet Reigns in the Coke Regions but Trouble Feared Tonight---A Small Earthquake in California.

The Associated Press Reports are Sent Exclusively to the Chronicle at The Dalles.

IN THE COKE REGION.

All Quiet Today---Funerals of the Victims---The Responsibility Charged to Unions.

MT. PLEASANT, April 4.—The situation in the coke regions has not materially changed. The feeling prevails that so long as the militia remains there will be no more lawlessness.

The funeral of the victims will occur this afternoon. Not less than 1000 coke worker will follow the bodies to the grave. Every precaution will be taken to prevent trouble.

PITTSBURG, April 4.—H. C. Finch coke operator says the outbreak in the coke regions should be laid to the door of cunning labor leaders who for selfish purposes incited them to riot. He denies importing man.

The peculiar feature of the situation is that although the men have been out of work for a month they still seem to have considerable money and from outward appearances are not suffering from anything. In Mount Pleasant bank there is a large list of depositors whose savings range from $600 to $3000. Of this money very little has been withdrawn. The strike is likely to continue indefinitely.

An After Night Attack Feared.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., April 4—A special mass meeting of strikers has been called for immediately after the funeral. The leaders say the will counsel moderation.

A Pittsburg gentleman just from the coke regions says there is a general impression that it is the intention to prolong the funeral service until after dark and then attack some unprotected locality.

THE ITALIAN QUESTION.

To be Relegated to the Red Tape Department and Drawn out Interminably.

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 4.—It is announced that the state department have nothing to make public today respecting the Italian correspondence. The question will it is believed take its place in the ordinary calendar of open diaplomatic matters whose disposition usually is characterized by deliberation and patient investigation.

HELD AS HOSTAGE.

Dr. Leach of Missouri Seized in Italy by the Government.

ST. LOUIS, April 4.—A special from St. Joseph, Mo., says: Dr. Wm. S. Leach of St. Joseph is one of the American citizens held in Italy by the Italian government. His family received dispatches from him yesterday which is the first knowledge they had that he was in Italy.

Prostrated the Wires.

BOSTON, April 4.—Thursday night's storm resulted in a general demoralization of the telegraph service out of Boston. Neither the Western Union nor the Postal have wires working to New York. The associated press wires are down in all directions.

An Iron-Clad Deserts the President.

PARIS, April 4.—It is announced here that the Chilian iron-clad, Pilcomaito, with the officers and crew has deserted the cause of President Balmaceda and joined the rebel fleet which now numbers forty war vessels.

A Bruiser Bruised.

OAKLAND, Cal., April 4.—Peter Jackson who is in training for the fight with Corbett, was thrown from a buggy this morning and badly bruised. His ankle was severely sprained.

A Butcher Falls Heir to Millions.

FLORENCE, Ala., April 4.—H. H. Lewis, a butcher has received official word that he has fallen heir to a fortune in Portsmouth, England, worth $28,000,000. Lewis has a fifth interest.

How Very Shocking.

BISHOP, Cal., April 4.—A light but prolonged earthquake shock was felt this morning about 4:30. The direction was apparently from east to west.

A Ship on Fire.

QUEENSTOWN, April 4.—The British steamer Nigretia from Galveston, which arrived with a cargo of cotton, is on fire. Damage unknown.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 4.—Wheat, steady; cash, 1.02⅝.

A SUGAR TRUST.

Great Sugar Kings Combine in a New Company.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The Sun says that the report of an arrangement between Havemeyer and Claus Spreckels to divide the country into selling districts and other ways to prevent too sharp competition, was revived in Wall street today. Dow, Johns & Co., announced that they were able to state that Havemeyer and Spreckels had formed the Western Coast Sugar Refining Co., to refine sugar in California. The local refineries become the property of the new company. Terms are not stated. This deal, however, does not apply to trades in the east. Spreckels continues his opposition here just as before. The deal has nothing to do with it.

NEW ORLEANS GRAND JURY.

Seven of the Killed Were Voters and the Others Escaped Murderers.

NEW ORLEANS, April 2.—Judge Marrs, the presiding magistrate over the action of the criminal district in which the grand jury is now serving, yesterday expressed a private opinion that nothing would ever be done to the lynchers who caused the killing of the Italians. It is impossible ts criminally prosecute 5000 persons, he said, and referred to the famous passage in Burke's oration, that there is no law under which a whole community can be indicied. Even if the grand jury were to indict the leaders, no jury could ever be secured to try them. Such publicity has been given to the affair, that every one is conversant with the facts of the case, and no one is without a fixed opinion.

A close examination of the record of the eleven alleged assassins discloses that all but four of the eleven slain were registered voters, either by birth or naturalization. The four others, whom Consul C. Corte claims as entitled to the protection of the Italian government, are Trahina, Bagnetto, Monasterio and Comitez. The first named is found to have been a voter in the parish of St. Charles. Bagnetto is proved to have been a fugitive murderer from Palermo and a member of the exposito band of highwaymen. Monasterio was a veteran of Garibaldi's army, but fled from Palermo while charged with murdering a female. Trahina was also a robber in Italy. Of Comitez nobody seems to know anything. He and Monasterio were buried in the potter's field. Consul Corte is doing all he can to reach the facts of the affair, though he has not received that courtesy at the hands of Governor Nicholls and Mayor Shakespeare that his position warrants. The grand jury is holding daily sessions.

ITINERARY OF THE TRIP.

The President Will Leave Washington the 14th Inst.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The statement by the president's secretary in regard to the contemplated trip, says the president has not fully determined, but, pending final decision, he has appointed a provisional schedule. Unless matters intervene to prevent, the party will leave here April 14, and travel southward. The following cities will be briefly visited: Roanoke, Chattanooga, Atlanta, Birmingham, Memphis, Little Rock, Dallas, reaching Galveston Saturday night. They leave Galveston Monday morning and go to El Paso, Yuma and Los Angeles. California will be entered about Tuesday or Wednesday of the second week. California will take about a week's time, short tours being made through the state. From San Francisco the party will go to Portland, Olympia and Puget sound. At the last place a turn homeward will be made, taking in Boise City, Ogden, Salt Lake, Pueblo, Denver, Omaha, Moberly, Springfield and Indianapolis, spending Sunday, May 10, at the last named place. From Indianapolis the party will come back to Washington.

"COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA."

Title for the Federated Colonies as Approves by the Australian Federation Convention.

SYDNEY, April 2.—The Australian federation convention now in session, has approved of the title "Commonwealth of Australia" for the federated colonies. The convention also adopted a clause providing that the chief executive of the federation shall be known as the governor-general, and shall be appointed by the queen. The proposition that the governor-general should be elected by a popular vote was rejected—35 to 3.

Coming to Portland.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 2.—Secretary of War Proctor and party arrived in the city this evening and at once proceeded to the Hotel del Coronado. Tomorrow morning Secretary Proctor and the military post commission will visit North Island and Point Loma, and in the afternoon a public reception will be tendered to the party at the Chamber of Commerce. The secretary will then leave for San Francisco, and will extend his visit to Portland, if not called to Washington on his arrival at the former city.

There Is No Bridal Tour.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 2.—The marriage of Count R. A. Lewenhaupt and Miss Ellen Bayard, the youngest daughter of the Secretary of State Bayard, took place today at the Bayard homestead. Bishop Copman, of the Protestant Episcopal church, officiated. The count and countess proceeded at once to their new home, at No. 1017 Adams street. There will be no bridal tour.

Out of two hundred and fifty-two locomotives on Brazilian railways in 1887, twenty-eight came from England and two hundred and thirteen from the United States.

FAVA'S ACTION WAS HASTY.

Such is the Opinion of a Representative Italian in London.

LONDON, April 2.—In an interview today Signor Bonacina, president of the Italian Chamber of Commerce in this city, said he regarded Baron Fava's action as somewhat precipitate, and said: It was a mere flash in the pan, which would end in nothing. There is not much sympathy among the Italians in London with the men who were lynched in New Orleans. The Italians here are of the opinion that there is no doubt that the men charged with the murder of Chief Hennessey were guilty. Still they say if the lynchers go unpunished respectable Italians in the United States are not safe.

A Warning to Parnell.

CORK, April 2.—The elections for poor law guardians in Northwest Cork today resulted in majorities of two to one for the McCarthyite candidates. The result of the election will probably decide Mr. Parnell not to risk his seat in parliament by resigning to appeal to his constituents.

A COLLEGE BOY'S PRANK.

Some Harvard Students Have Lots of Fun with Boston Policemen.

"There isn't so much deviltry in private among the students today as there was a few years ago," said a graduate of Harvard, "but their pranks in public are getting bolder as time advances. I will tell you a good story illustrative of this. During my sophomore year there was a party of eight young fellows belonging to my class who were all the time looking for a chance to create a sensation. They had become involved in several little scrapes with the Boston police on account of their practical jokes, and were thirsting for revenge. One Saturday night they went to Boston, and on their arrival got shaved in a West End barber shop.

"While paying their checks an idea struck one of the fellows, and after a short conference with his companions he offered the barber $10 for his red, white and blue pole, which stood about twelve feet high in front of the door. The offer was accepted on the spot, and the young men took it away with them, insisting, however, on taking a receipt, in which both the pole and the amount paid was mentioned. Then they started off for a parade of the Third police precinct, in which nearly all their trouble with the 'coppers' had been experienced.

"They had not gone far before they were stopped by one of their old blue coated foes, who demanded an explanation of their possession of the pole. The boys replied that it belonged to them and that they were taking it home. The officer, believing that they had stolen it, arrested the whole party and took them to the police station, where he charged them with the theft.

"At this juncture one of the students produced the receipt, and they were allowed to depart, much to the discomfiture of the arresting officer. Then the boys went to another policeman's beat and were soon stopped by the guardian of that precinct, and, after a short parley, which proved very unsatisfactory to the officer, the students were again arrested, and, with the pole, were marched back to the station house. This time they got their release from the lieutenant in charge without having to produce their receipt.

"The boys started off for another officer's beat, taking care to keep within the same precinct, and within less than half an hour were brought back to the station for a third time on suspicion of having stolen that pole. The lieutenant had to send an officer over the precinct with these orders to all policemen: 'If you meet a party of eight young men with a barber's pole don't arrest them. They own it.'"—New York Star.

A public school in Mexico sounds like a large beehive. During one half the day the children all study aloud, each one trying to make as much noise as possible. The rivalry thus stirred up is relied upon to make each one look at his book and learn something, whether he wants to or not.

A Safe Rule.

New Cook—Do ye put pertaties on to boil in cold water er hot?

Old Cook (trained by her mistress)—Phwich iver way is th' most throuble do be th' roight way.—New York Weekly.

A Kansas farmer has decreed that every young man who courts one of his daughters in winter time must contribute a load of sawed wood.
