The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY - - - JULY 3, 1901

The Oregon State Journal, of which County Judge Kincaid, former secretary of state, is editor at Eugene, speaking as a personal confidant of ex-Senator H. W. Corbett, who was in Eugene a few days ago, says: "He willl continue to take an interest in politics for his friends and the public good, but does not want anything for himself." The old man seems to realize at last that his leg has been pulled about as often as he wants it to be pulled.

W. J. Patterson, who returned yesterday from Portland where he went to aid in receiving the rivers and harbors commission, states that Congressman Tongue has already perceived his mistake in diverting the committee from visiting Celilo and The Dalles. Mr Tongue will have plenty of time to rue this.—Oregon Republican.

Congressman Tongue had best not ask Eastern Oregon for a patronage in any thing. He has shown such a narrow-minded comprehension of public duty that the people of this region would not support him—for damnation. Their support is due men gifted with at least a reasonable grasp of public responsibility.—Oregon Republican.

Coming from San Francisco to Portland, the rivers and harbors committee traveled the entire length of the Willamette valley. But the next day they were taken for another journey up the same valley, a stupid waste of time which should have been devoted to examination of the upper Columbia, says the Spokesman-Review.

The Salem Sentinel is of our way of thinking, that "Gov. Williamson, of Prineville," wouldn't sound bad, says the Moro Observer. It says: "Nobody has ever denied Eastern Oregon men the right to seek that high honor, and with his ability, popularity and strength, why not place the toga upon Senator Williamson?"

The office of Washington state printer having been abolished, the work was let to the lowest bidders at a saving to the state of from 50 to 80 per cent. It is said that the last incumbent of the office cleared $25,000 during his four years' term. Oregon might make a note of this with profit.

Gates is in the penitentiary. John H. Mitchell is in the senate.—Salem Journal. Gates also got away with $1500, and H. W. Corbett was not elected United states senator.—Albany Herald.

A Southern negro is claiming to be Elijah, which leads the Washington Post to remark that Dowie has made a great mistake in neglecting to copyright his discovery.

"I wish to truthfully state to you and the readers of these few lines that your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is without question, the best and only cure for dyspepsia that I have ever come in contact with and I have used many other preparations. Night Was Her Terror.

A Fireman's Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters and, after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by G. C. Blakeley, the druggist. Price 50 cents. 2

NOLAN'S Profit-Sharing Association.

The first monthly dividend has been distributed to the profitable satisfaction of thirteen of my customers. The only regret is that I was not able to give a valuable present to each of my customers. I think they all deserve one.

On Saturday, July 6th, I will give away two music boxes—one worth $27.50, playing eight tunes, and one worth $7.50; a sack of sugar and a barrel of flour. I will give a cash rebate of $3.00 to customer paying the most money by that date, and $2.00 to the one paying in the second largest amount. On each Saturday, commencing on the 15th of June and including July 6th, I will, in addition to the two presents given each week, give a $1.00 rebate to the customer paying the largest amount during the week.

Purchasers of goods in my line will do well to keep in mind that I sell goods as low as the lowest, as well as share the profit with my customers.
