Read This, Consumptives

"From the way my wife coughed for six months I knew she had consumption. She showed it in her face, too, and her body wasted away to a mere skeleton. After she got down in bed the doctors couldn't do any good. I called in both Drs. T. A. Shannon and Dr. N. L. Hawsen, each of whom is a first-class physician, but they had nothing that would reach the trouble in her lungs. My wife's father came over the day she got taken. He lives in Cedar Lake, Wis., while we live in Rice Lake, Wis. He said he knew what was needed, and made me get a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I went to Schmidt's, our local druggist, and got a bottle, and it helped her right away. She took eight bottles, and they put her back on her feet and made her as well and well as any woman in town. She has taken on flesh again and doesn't cough at all, and we don't think she has a trace of her old trouble left. We believe she was as near death's door as anyone can be and be not there, and we believe it. My wife does all her housework and at night sleeps as soundly as you please."

Her cough no longer gives her any trouble at all. Maybe you doubt what I am telling. If so, I advise you to see J. N. Schmidt, the druggist who sell the Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. He'll tell you the same thing. He says Acker's English Remedy is wonderful in all throat and lung troubles, that it is sold on a guarantee to cure or money returned, and he never yet had a bottle come back to the store, although he has sold hundreds of them. My name is Luther Dedell, Rice Lake, Wis.

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be returned in case of failure, yet, one dollar and a half will last a long time, and a cure is worth much more than money. It is for sale in Dalles at 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

To confirm the above you can write to H. H. Green & Co., Druggists, Dallas, Tex.

King Edward's New Title.

New York, July 5.—Commenting upon Mr. Chamberlain's announcement in the House of Commons that the title of King Edward will be changed, the London correspondent of the Tribune says: The king cannot well be made emperor of self-governing colonies such as Canada and Australia. In circles generally well informed the impression prevailed that the words "Sovereign of Great Britain" will be added to the present ceremonial title, which is "Edward, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India." Some people in England, however, believe that the addition will be a complete one and that Canada, Australia and South Africa will be separately mentioned. The attitude of opposition will depend on the character of the bill. If it should attempt to extend the title of emperor to any part of the king's dominions outside of India it would be stoutly opposed.
