The Weekly Enterprise.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

The new advertisement of Mr. William Singer, under the proper heading to-day, virtually speaks for itself. We trust that his enterprise may be fully sustained.

Capt. Haun is not dead, as was reported. But is prospecting and learning the channel of the South Umpqua river, preparatory to putting a steamboat thereon, which he expects to accomplish the present month.

Farmers, Butchers and Tanners, will undoubtedly discover an opportunity by reading the "Good News" in our new advertisements of to-day—to render themselves profit from the sale of an article hitherto considered of no value. Ladies, who wear the chignon, are advised not to read.

THE ENTERPRISE, edited by D. M. McKenney, at Oregon City, Oregon, is one of our sprightliest exchanges. It is alive to the interest of Oregon, and fights nobly for Democracy.—Iowa Copperhead.

IS IT SO?—On last Thursday the up train on the Oregon Central Railroad had a large number of ties, and other timbers necessary in constructing the road. And in addition to these it had a large lot of what boatmen call knees, from which some of the knowing ones about town are predicting that a new and fine steamer is to be put on the upper Willamette.

ELECTION.—On last Monday evening Fountain Hose Company No. 1, elected the following officers for the ensuing year, viz:

John Myers.....President,
W. H. Highfield.....Treasurer,
S. D. Pope.....Secretary
John Schram .....Foreman,
John Kelly .....1st Assistant.
David Smith .....2d Assistant.

"Hours at Home" for January is an illustrated number of this valuable magazine. In the letter-press are many articles of interest, among which the following are worthy of careful perusal. "The Bedouin Arabs," "Sir Wm. Hamilton," "Books and Reading," &c. It contains the usual amount of poetry, serial reading, literary reviews, &c. As before mentioned, we have the greatest confidence in the high moral tone of this magazine, and place it first among those which we would recommend.

The "Atlantic" begins a new volume with the new year, with the usual army of distinguished talent. Lowell takes the lead with a poem of fifteen pages, which is simultaneously published as a holiday book. The first instalment of Bayard Taylor's new story, "Joseph and his friend," follows. Farther along we have a discussion of the woman question, under the caption, "The woman thou gavest me." There are many other articles of interest, of which space forbids us to make mention. As a literary magazine, we cannot believe it has any superior.

AMERICAN SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKER.—A new magazine for parents and teachers, published at St. Louis, by J. W. McIntyre, at $1.50 per year—four months on trial for 30 cents. It has also club rates. It is designed for all sections and denominations alike. It contains a lesson system with expository notes, illustrations, &c., with much other matter, ready prepared for the use of teachers, parents and others, lesson papers for the scholars, &c. The table of contents for the first number is as follows: What to teach children—Rev. Jas. H. Brookes, D. D.—The Province of the Sunday School—Bishop E. M. Marvin—Should Sunday Schools close in winter—Giving the Heart—Rev. H. A. Nelson, D. D.—Religious life in the Sundoy School—Rev. A. C. George, D. D.—The New Year, by Rev. S. J. Nichols, D. D.—beside editorial, book notices, lessons, &c.

Letter from Clear Creek.

CLEAR CREEK, Clackamas Co., Oregon, Jan. 10th, 1870.

Editor Weekly Enterprise:—This cold, frosty weather that we are having now causes some uneasiness lest our wheat crop will be cut materially short. The hard freezing we have of nights, and the thawing out in the day time, causes the ground to heave up, which kills out the wheat. Almost every one prefers a little rain to these frosty nights. Although but little grain is sown in this part of the county, comparatively speaking, it is not on account of freezing weather, or the unproductiveness of the soil, but from genuine laziness. I know of plenty of men living in this vicinity who have as good farms as any in the State, who have to work out by days' work to get their bread. If farming was conducted on these principles in the Atlantic States, a man would starve to death. Only think of a farmer living in the State of Oregon, where everything that man wants to grow, grows with less than one-half the work a farmer has to do in some other States, working out for the support of his family. I blush to record it, but it is nevertheless true, and that too, of men who own from 160 to 640 acres of land—land that is productive in every sense of the word—land that will produce its twenty, thirty, or fifty bushels of the best quality of wheat to the acre, and its forty, sixty, and eighty bushels of good heavy oats. Only think of a farmer working out, here, when he can raise such crops as that, and all the good fruit he wants, besides.

The Good Templars have organized a Lodge here, called "Mount Pleasant." It is as yet young, but it has about forty-three members; twenty have taken the degrees, and some twelve more have made application to become members. Great credit is due Rev. G. W. Roork and L. T. Barin, Esq., for their untiring energy and perseverance in bringing about this glorious result. Among the members of Mount Pleasant Lodge are many of our best citizens, but there are a great many yet out in the cold whose feet may some day patter o'er the ashes of h—l if they don't forsake their sins and sign the glorious temperance pledge.

There is no unusual excitement going on here, but an old bachelor living on the Creek here, a few days ago went and got married. We think that other old bachelors could go and do likewise with profit to themselves and others. These old bachelors must don the matrimonial garb and be somebody.

Our switch mail does a little better now—it only takes three days for letters to reach Portland, or Oregon City. Rather an improvement on that heretofore had. We belidve in giving every one his due.

In my next, I will give you a few items in relation to some lumbering interests in this vicinity. ST. ELMO.

The Corruptions of the Country Under Radical Domination.

A short time since Mr. Wm. Broughton, of this place, received the following communication, viz:

DEAR SIR:—Believing you to be "true blue," we will introduce for your consideration a matter which will be the means of putting many thousands of dollars in your pocket in a very short time. We have now on hand, ready for circulation, $850,500 in $1, $2 and $5 bills. They are the best counterfeits ever put on the market, and we defy the Treasury experts themselves to detect them. They are of the same size as the genuine, are printed on first class paper, are correctly numbered, and are so exceedingly well executed in every respect that they cannot possibly be detected even by the aid of a powerful microscope. We have them put up in packages of $500 each. We will sell you $500 of the $1 or $2 bills for $100; $1,000 for $180. We shall charge you $200 per $1,000 on the $5 bills, as the engraving of the plate cost us considerably more than for the others. If you desire to feel your way before investing largely, we will send you $500 upon receipt of $5, or $10, whichever you see fit to send us, and you may pay the balance within 15 days after receiving the bills, or we will wait until you arrive. Any railroad ticket agent will take them, because he cannot detect them. Don't show more than $50 at a time. You may form some idea of the quality of our stock by reading the enclosed extract cut from the Herald. You can well afford to remit the balance in two hours, but we will give you plenty of time. The stock is in a safe place, and we defy the sharpest detectives in New York, unless you blow on us, which we know you will not do. Always send money by express or registered letter. We will do the same. Then nothing will be lost in the mails, and everything will work harmoniously between us. If you prefer we will send it by express C. O. D., or collect on delivery, packed in such a way as not to excite the suspicion that it is money. Then you may pay $5 or $10 on delivery, and the balance within the time specified. Depend upon it we are in earnest in this matter, and if you take hold of it in a proper manner you can make $20,000 before two months. We have taken every precaution in the execution of these notes to render you as safe as if you were handling good money, for better executed bills were never issued in the world. In case you should be indiscreet enough to let it be known to any one, don't mention where it came from. We have the reputation in New York of being men of good standing, and therefore we will never be suspected of dealing in counterfeit money. If you could manage to come on, show this envelope to the man at the desk and he will introduce you; we could then talk freely about the matter, and make arrangements for a big business. Don't mention anything about counterfeit money, as he will pretend not to understand you. He will know what's up. We implore you not to betray us in case you are not inclined to go in. State what denominations you wish, how much, and either destroy this or send it back. Address plainly. J. P. WATERS & CO., 197 Broadway, New York.

P. S.—Depend upon it, as long as you are true to us you will never be out of funds."

Mr. Broughton is an honest gentleman, and so instead of availing himself of the opportunity of speculating in counterfeit greenbacks, he handed the letter over to us that it might be exposed. Mr. John M. Bacon, postmaster at this place, informs us that he received a similar communication, but from different parties. We have sent Mr. Broughton's letter to the Chief of Police of New York City, and will also mail a copy of this paper to the same officer.

For counterfeiters to boldly advertise their spurious money in this way, is certainly indicative of a very loose state of morals in the United States. Can such things be so openly done, and the operators escape detection, if the officers of the law do their duty? We think not. But the loose and partial manner in which the laws have been administered during the past four or five years, has certainly had an active agency in developing and emboldening bad men. Let us have a change, and by all means let that change be for the better. In this corrupt age, when gentlemen receive such communications and make the attempt to expose the operators, they are certainly entitled to much respect as honest men.

MARRIED.

In Clackamas County, December 27th, 1869, by Z. C. NORTON, J. P., Mr. GEORGE LACROY and Miss MELISSA MAYFIELD, all of Clackamas County.

SADDLERY.—J. H. Schram, of this City, is now manufacturing the best Saddlery and Harness in the State. He will have at least 50 sets of all grades, from fine to common, finished and ready for sale next month, and more than that number of Saddles. He is bound to make a trade with any man who wishes to buy of him. He uses both Oregon and California leather in his establishment, and his work bears a most excellent reputation abroad. We hope that citizens of our own county will think of this, when they want any articles in his line.

A HOUSEHOLD ELIXIR ADAPTED TO ALL CLIMATES.—It would be a happy thing for the world if all the excitants at present used in the practice of medicine, could be swept out of existence, and HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS substituted in their place. In California, it seems possible that this desirable substitution may one day be accomplished. Certain it is, that the GREAT VEGETABLE TONIC is gradually displacing them, and that the confidence of the people in its sanitary and saving properties, increases with every passing year. "Figures that cannot lie," show this to be the fact. No medicinal preparation enjoys the like popularity among all classes and conditions, in every section of the State. As an appetizer, a general invigorant, a remedy for indigestion, a cure for intermittent and remittent fevers, a gentle cathartic, a specific for flatulency and sour stomach, a gentle diuretic, a nervine, a blood depurent, a specific for sick headache, a mild anodyne, and, above all, as a PROTECTION AGAINST EPIDEMICS, it is unquestionably the STANDARD MEDICINE of the whole Pacific territory. In the towns and cities it is literally a HOUSEHOLD STAPLE. Mothers believe in it. They find it a "present help in time of trouble,"—a safe and pleasant remedy for the various ailments to which their sex is exclusively subject. Men believe in it, because it refreshes and invigorates the body and the mind, and tones both without exciting either.
