to make the change, but as there is no good and sufficient reason for it, this pressure has been pushed aside, and is merely an annoyance. It is generally admitted by the leading officials of the department that Vanco ver Barracks is today the most perfect location for department headquarters and a large Army post on the Pacific Coast, a large Army post on the Pacino Coast, and its abandonment would not only mean surrendering an ideal location, but a waste of hundreds of thousands of dol-lars, which have been spent in building the post up to its present standard. One official idi not hesitate to say that the proposed change is prompted by Seattle for purely selfah reasons; that Seattle has but for hundrungters but house to rent for purely selfash reasons; that Scattle has no site for headquarters, but hopes to rent the Government all necessary quarters and equipment at exorbitant prices.
