TOWN AND COUNTY.

Important Real Estate Crisis.

A few months ago several persons from this place, who claim an acquaintance with the early history of Finice Caruthers and his mother, went to the Eastern States for the purpose of hunting up Joseph Thomas, the father of Finice, and, of course the legal heir to his vast estate in the city of Portland. Diligent search was successfully made for him, and he was found in the city of St. Louis, an old and decrepid pauper. They informed him of the death of his wife and son and of the valuable estate which they had left behind them, offering to prosecute the suit for him or pay him a reasonable sum of money for it. Joseph Thomas knowing that it would be impossible for him to prosecute the suit, took them up on the latter proposition and made the parties a good deed, and received therefor a sufficient sum to keep him in good circumstances for the remainder of his days. The deed was filed in the County Clerk's office of Multnomah county, about two weeks since, and the suit to eject the present occupants of the said estate will probably be begun in the next Circuit Court. The parties having bought the deed of Joseph Thomas, claim that they can prove his identity with a number credible witnesses and documents. They say thot Joseph Thomas was married to Elizabeth Caruthers in the year 1816. They lived together as man and wife for the space of five years, during which time Finice was born. It seems, however, that they did not live together happily, and, owing to domestic trouble, separated, the mother taking the child, and after a number of years, in 1847 immigrated to Oregon and took up and settled upon, under the donation law, that tract of land which now forms a part of South Portland.

Joseph Thomas being unsettled and of a wild and roving disposition, went into the backwoods of Arkansas, as a trapper, and there lived for a number of years with Indians. He finally again drifted back to the civilized world and spending some time as a street beggar and pauper was finally found as before stated, and started with the parties to whom he sold his right and title to the estate, for Oregon, and arrived here on last Monday morning. He will appear as a witness in the suit. He is quite an old man of medium height, somewhat crippled, and has evidently seen the best day of his physical being.

Mrs. Caruthers in conversation with her friends has acknowledged that her son was born out of Wedlock; but these other parties contend that Finice was born in the second year of their marriage. Quite a difference in the two statements. It seems unreasonable to suppose that Mrs. Caruthers would confess her guilt and her son's disgrace if the stain was not upon her. The trial will undoubtedly bring to light some very interesting facts which have heretofore been kept a secret. Many await with anxiety the decision of the great approaching trial.

An Outrage.—The sonuthern mails which are due here 9:50 in the morning did not arrive here yesterday until in the afternoon, owing, we understand, to the train having to wait at Salem until the special train with the "Presidents Car" arrived there. This is very annoying to the people at large, as well as the passengers traveling on that road. We would suggest that the "President" build another road for his own special benefit. Then "President" Ben will not be compelled to be dragged over the same rails over which common folks are destined to trave'.

Attempted Robbery.—We are informed that on last Friday evening a suspicious looking charrcter attempted to break into the House of Mrs. Dement, but was foiled in his attempt, by a watchful dog warning the inmates of the premises of the presence of the thief. After playing drunk for a while, he was made to understand that that was a hard place to steal from, so he took to his heels and left the place.

New Sidewalk.—A new sidewalk has been built in front of Mr. J. M. Moore's residence. This is a good improvement, and it would not be amiss to say that if the old and worn out sidewalk in several places in this city were torn up and replaced by new plank, it would add very much to the beauty of the place, as well as facilitate pedestrians in their travels over the same.

Pulling Snags.—Capt. Aron Vickers of this City, has lately been engaged by the P. T. Co. in removing snags and other obstructions in the river from Eugene City to this place. He says all that is needed now to make things lovely is a little rain. We hope it will soon come and make things look like business on the river.

Large Horse.—We noticed last Monday at the stable of Willis & Broughton, a fine looking stallion. He is a very large, and powerful animal, and is said to be of very choice stock. As a draft horseWe think he is a success. He has been taken to the State Fair.

Freight.—The P. T. Co's steamers from above come down each trip loaded to the guards with freight; and we are informed that there is such an accumalation of freight on the upper river that all the warehouses are filled to their utmost capacity.

Large Trains.—The trains running between Portland and Salem present quite a fine appearance this week, the locomotives having in tow five or six passenger cars, all of which are usually well crowded with people wending their way to the Fair.

Lumber.—The lumber which was to be brought here this week, for the erection of the new depot, has not yet come owing to the rush of business, on the railroad, this week. We are informed that it will be here next monday.

Change of Time.—The O. & C.R. R. R. Co. have again changed the time of arrival and departure of the trains. We have been unable to learn the time, but can safely say that it is very close to the old time.

Runaway.—On last Thursday a team belonging to Mr. Ferguson was left standing and they concluded to take a spin and to take the wagon with them, of which they made a total wreck.

Accident—Our young friend Theodere Bacon while splitting a stick of wood the other day, had the misfortune to let the ax slip into his foot, making a painful wound.

Telegraphic Clippings.

EUROPEAN WAR NEWS.

London, Oct. 7.—The Masonic Fraternity of England have contributed seventy thousand pounds sterling for the relief of the families of German soldiers.

A great gun for D'Ivry on the south of Paris, is nearly ready to place in position. Its range is kilometres, and it requires thirty-four kilogrammes of powder for each discharge.

Gen. Bourbaki has been allowed to re-enter Metz.

A Paris correspondent of the London Times writes that the supply of meats are fast vanishing; Breadstuffs are plenty; there are also plenty of guns and ammunition.

The question of food begins to be serious, and food riots are feared. A club of men are urging the people on, saying that the provisions belong to the people, and that Paris had no right to take them. Five thousand beeves and four thousand sheep are killed daily, which would perhaps be enough for all if just distribution were made; but, unfortunately, money buys the best in quantity and quality, and little or none is left for the poor. Many groceries have been closed by the people for raising prices.

All Americans will leave Paris when Washburne leaves.

London, Oct. 7.—The Empress appeals to the Powers to prevent the Bombardment of Paris or the partition of France.

Marseilles, Oct. 7.—Garibaldi has arrived here.

A balloon company offers to take people out of the city for 2,000 francs a head.

Bismarck complains of Belgium sympathizing with France.

Jesuits are leaving Rome.

London, Oct. 7.—A cable dispatch to the Tribune from Metz, says, Bazaine made a desperate attempt to crush through the Prussian lines. He advanced his troops, under cover of a thick fog, and commenced the attack. Having engaged the Prussian artillery, he made a dash for the petits and grinde les Tapes, annihilating the outposts. Bazaine forwarded a large body of troops on the right, close to the Moselle, advancement up the valley until checked by Prussian cannon, and was finally stopped by the advance of two Landwehr brigades of the 10th army corps. A fusilier battalion of Landwehr and several battalions of the 9th regiment of Landwehrs suffered severely. At 4:30 p. m., the French were driven back from all their positions. The Prussian victory was complete. Loss considerable on both sides. A furious cannonade is going on to the south.

Orleans, Oct. 10.—The Commander in chief of the 15th army corps sends the following report to the Minister of War, Gambetta, at Tours:

"About 9 o'clock this morning at Artenay, where there was a brigade of Lorguelle and several companies of chasseurs, we were attacked by a considerable force of the enemy, who succeded in occupying the place. Gen. Reyan went to the assistance of the French forces with five regiments and six battalions, and also a battery of eight guns. After combating until 3 o'clock p. m. our troops were repulsed into the forest, which I retain and shall defend at any cost. The Prussians outnumbered us.

London, Oct. 11.—A correspondent of the Telegraph says that the Prussians, on leaving Milhouse, fired on the people, killing and wounding several.

Advices from Metz to Sunday say that firing from the works are steadily maintained. Much sickness prevails. Rinderpest has appeared. The Prussians took 2,000 prisoners in the encounter. Many persons were wounded.

It is stated that Lord Lyons recently suggested to Bismarck the expediency of an armistice. Bismarck replied that Prussia would be glad to make peace at any time and any where, but no proposition looking to a truce would be entertained for a moment.

Twelve French iron clads passed Dover to day, bound eastward.

Garibaldi has exhorted the people of Nice and Savoy to discontinue agitation at present, as it does no good and only embarasses the French in their struggle against Prussia.

Tours, Oct. 11—Another body of Prussians have arrived here.

London, Oct. 10.—King William has relieved Versailles from the payment of the 400,000 francs which had been levied by the Prussians.

A squad of Prussian hussars was attacked on the night of the 7th, through the treachery of the inhabitants of a village. The village was afterwards burned by the Prussians as a punishment. Numerous bodies of French have since been dispersed in that neighborhood.

London, Oct. 11.—The Germans are closing in upon Thionville. They have been largely reinforced, and are receiving guns from Strasburg. War material is shipped daily from Liverpool, in large lots, supposed to be for France.

A detachment of the army of the Crown Prince, under General Von Detram, defeated a portion of the Army of the Loire yesterday, near Orleans, taking 1,00 prisoners and three pieces of artillery. The French fled in disorder. The Prussians were a second time repulsed at Chattissy, but rallied, and taking posession of the place, they set fire to it. It is now in ruins.

The French say that the Prussians have burned several villages on the plains of Bauce.

The National Guard, 10,000 strong, under Gustav Flourens, have demanded of the Government that Chassepot rifles be given them, and that a change be made in the practice of opposing on every battlefield one Frenchman to three Prussians. The answer was unfavorable, and Flourens resigned his command.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—3:20 p. m.—A telegram to the Evening Post says private dispatches announces the surrender of Metz and its garrison to the Prussian forces.

London, Oct. 12.—The Times has an articles going to prove that Bismarck's obvious policy is to render France powerless for offense or defense hereafter.

Tours, Oct. 12.—The Minister of War publishes the following telegram from Orleans at a late hour last evening: The scene of the battle to-day was so near this city that balls and shells fell in the outskirts. The Prussians are near Gallien. Troops sent from Tours to reinforce the 15th corps, formed a junction with that body near Artenay.

Tours, Oct. 11.—The Prussians have threatened to execute the authorities of Albais, because at that place the French Tierrears surprised the enemy, killed many, and captured others.

The French Government has given official notice that a Prusian prisoner will be shot for every, person so killed by the Prussians.

Versailles, Oct. 12, via. Berlin and London, 13.—Yesterday the French army of the Loire was driven out of Orleans after a nine hours' fight. Orleans was subsequently stormed. The Prussians took up their march with 10,000 prisoners. Their own loss was small. Bavarians participated in the engagement.

London, Oct. 12.—Prussia is negotiating with the smaller States of Germany for national unity under Frederick, in place of the Confederation. The session of the North German Parliament will probably be resumed before the meeting of the Prussian Diet. The Parliament will be required to provide means for war and adjust certain questions springing from it. Elections for this body will probably occur on the 18th of October, and those for deputies in the Prussian Diet eight days later.

Brussels, Oct. 13.—Rinderpest is spreading rapidly throughout Belgium. Much alarm exists, not only here, but in Holland and Prussia.

Florence, Oct. 13.—Engineers say it will require at least 2 years to prepare Rome to serve as the Italian capital. The seat of Government will, therefore remain at Florence.

London, Oct. 13.—Particulars of the battle before Metz on Friday last are received. The French made a sortie in force, and after the battle, were driven back with tremendous loss. The Prussians took a great number of prisoners.

Cattle in and around Metz are dying by hundreds, from rinderpest. The bodies cannot be buried quick enough to prevent the desease from spreading. The disease is spreading rapidly.

A Western paper thinks that women would not make good statesmen. "The question of the age" would alway s trou them.

☞ A profuse and many times excessively offensive discharge from the nose, with "stopping up" of the nose at times, impairment of the sense of smell and taste, watering or weak eyes, impaired hearing, irregular appetite, occasional nausea, pressure and pain over the eyes, and at times in the back of the head, occasional chilly debility are symptoms which are common to Catarrh, yet all of them are not present in every case. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures Catarrh in its worst form and stages. It is pleasant to use and contains no poisonous or caustic drugs. Sent by mail on receipt of sixty-cents. Address R. V. PAIN KILLER

PROF. DAVIS & SON PROVIDENCE R.I.

1840 1870

This celebrated medicine has won a deservedly high reputation as an alleviator of pain and a preserver of health. It has become a household remedy, from the fact that it gives immediate and permanent relief. It is a purely vegetable preparation, made from the best and purest materials, safe to keep and to use in every family. It is recommended by physicians and persons of all classes, and to-day, after a public trial of thirty years—the average life of man—it stands unrivalled and unexcelled, spreading its usefulness over the wide world. Its large and increasing sale affords positive evidence of its enduring fame. We do not deem it necessary to say much in its favor as one small bottle will do more to convince you of its efficacy than all the advertisements in the world. Give it one fair trial and you would not be without it for ten times its cost.

Directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all druggists.

WM. C. RALSTON, Treasurer.

After paying the expenses of the entertainment, and making the distribution of the Gifts, the balance will be applied to extinguishing the present indebtedness of the Mercantile Library Association.

Holders of tickets to which gifts may be awarded, will receive the same on presentation of such tickets or coupons to the Business Agents of the Board of Trustees at their office, No. 318 California st., San Francisco.

NOTICE.

HOLDERS OF TICKETS TO THE GIFT Concert in aid of the Mercantile Library Association, are hereby notified that the Concert is postponed until Monday, Oct. 31st, 1870.

Unexpected interferences have operated to make this delay necessary to accomplish the result of freeing the Library from debt, without recourse to other privileges granted by act of the Legislature, passed February 19, 1870.

This is positively the only postponement which will be made. The Concert will take place on the day above named, commencing at nine o'clock, A. M., and to continue until all the gifts have been awarded.

The funds already in bank are considerably more than sufficient to insure the successful completion of the contract with the public.

The sale of tickets will positively close on Friday, the 28th day of October, 1870.

All tickets remaining unsold at that time will be withdrawn from sale and cancelled. They will be advertised by their numbers, on the 29th day of October, 1870, in one or more of the daily papers of this city. Any diminution thus made in the number of tickets to be drawn, will not affect the number or amount of the gifts. They will be as heretofore advertised, to-wit: 628 gifts, amounting in all to $500,000 gold.

Ticket holders residing out of San Francisco will receive duly accredited lists of the awards of Gifts, which will also be published in the leading San Francisco daily papers, on the 1st of November, 1870.

Delivery of gifts will commence November 2d, 1870, at the office, No. 318 California st., to all parties presenting tickets to which gifts have been awarded. All gifts awarded to non-residents will be held to their order and for their account.

Whenever tested on THEIR MERITS, they have been adopted in preference to all others, and are now the STANDARD FLAVORING EXTRACTS of the Pacific Coast.

MARK THE ADVANTAGES.

By purchasing Redington's Concentrated Flavoring Extracts, you obtain an article not only superior in richness and delicacy of flavor to any other of a similar nature, but far more economical, because each bottle holds double the quantity contained in a bottle of any other flavoring extract sold.
