DANGER—THE MANY HOMES DEstroyed by fire in the past few weeks, is a reminder that the most dangerous season of the year for fire losses is at hand.

From a business standpoint it would pay you to have protection against this danger, for there is no way to determine who will be the next unfortunate one, and the time to insure is before the fire. It would surely be advisable for you to insure your property and keep it insured at all times, in a well established company that has stood the test of time, like the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville. 1917 was a banner year for the Oregon Fire Relief, it having rolled up over $14,000,000 of business, making a total of over $42,000,000 insurance in force in this company all in Oregon, and on preferred risks only. The above insurance is so distributed as to prevent a large conflagration loss. There being more than 55,000 separate risks, making the average on each single risk less than $800. Largest amount carried on any single risk is $4000. Nothing doing in congested districts. Its resources are much larger at this time than ever before in its history.

This well known company has gained the confidence, not only of its many patrons, but of all who have taken time to investigate its plan of operating. Not one single case of litigation in all these years is some record for a company that insures several million dollars worth of property every year.

For particulars see H. A. Johnson & Co., Agents. Bush Bank Bldg., Salem. Phone 347.

Notice is hereby given that bids will be received at the office of county clerk of Marion county, Oregon, until 2:00 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, February 6, 1918, for calcimining walls and painting wood work, inside work, of poor farm home. See Earl E. Taylor at poor farm for plans and specifications.

Recorder of the City of Salem.

SALES OF WAR STAMPS LARGE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Government receipts from the sale of war savings stamps are estimated by the treasury in varying amounts, but many officials believe that with augmented sale expected in the next few months, the government will receive $400,000 before June 30.

The government is now spending about $24,000,000 a day, or $725,000,000 a month for its own war expenses, and $15,000,000 a day, or $450,000,000 a month for loans to the allies. For the past three months expenses have increased at the rate of about $100,000,000 a month, but the rate is much lower than had been expected. Officials of the department now believe that the cost of maintaining the military establishment will fall considerably below the $8,790,000,000 estimated for the fiscal year, even considering the big expenses of the next three or four months.

Practically all funds for the second liberty loan now has reached the treasury. Seven million dollars of the $3,808,000,000 total failed to come in because of discrepancies in accounting among the federal reserve banks, but this will be paid eventually. About $10,000,000 from the first loan is still outstanding for the same reason.

Peace Confidence Declines; Corn Market Is Stronger

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—Lessening of bearish confidence regarding the outlook for peace did a good deal today to strengthen the corn market. The outcome was a firm close, 1-8 to 1-4c to 1-4 to 3-8c net higher, with March $1.27 and May $1.27 7-8 to $1.25. Oats gained 1-2 to 7-8c and provisions 17 to 37c.

Throughout the day corn had an upward tendency that especially reflected disappointment of traders who have looked for sensational developments from German economic and political troubles. The fact, too, that receipts here instead of being enlarged, were even smaller than has been the rule of late counted also against would-be sellers. On the other hand, weather conditions seemed the best in a long while. Week-end adjustment of trades, however, kept the market on the upgrade to the end.

Profit-taking by shorts was mainly responsible for the advance of oats. The incentive for action on the part of the shorts was an unusual scantiness of offerings. Provisions rose with hogs and because of the bullish showing of warehouse stocks in Chicago.
