Grain Prices Weaken; Corn Closes Unsettled

CHICAGO, March 25.—Grain prices weakened today, owing chiefly to the bearish effect which developments appeared to have exercised temporarily upon the New York stock market. Corn closed unsettled 1-8 to 1-4 to 8-3c net lower with March $1.27 3-4 and May $1.25 3-4 to 7-8. Oats finished 1-2 to 5-8 off to 1-8 advance. Provisions wound up at virtually the same figures as on Saturday. Reports that an increase of oats acreage would be at the expense of corn helped somewhat to steady the corn market in the late dealings. Rallies in Wall street quotations tended likewise to give a little more courage to holders.

New buying on the part of export interests aided in counteracting the weakness of the oats market. War happenings and a likelihood that the Illinois acreage of oats would be enlarged had previously led to general commission house selling.

In provisions, demand from packers overcame the influence of lower quotations on hogs.

STOCK MARKET ON SOUND BASIS

Selling Recovers in Face of Most Disturbing News From Abroad

NEW YORK, March 25.—Viewed from almost every angle, today's stock market, it was generally conceded offered substantial proof of sound fundamental conditions on the face of very trying circumstances.

News from abroad over the weekend, supplementing that of last Saturday, was sufficiently disturbing to cause an extensive accumulation of selling orders, but once these were assimilated, the list promptly recovered. A wide variety of stocks broke from two to almost four points in the first fifteen minutes, the decline in several noteworthy instances indicating the urgent character of the selling. Before noon, however, virtually all initial losses were replaced by gains over last week's finals.

Investment rails and seasoned industrials, in which early recessions averaged two points, were among the first to rally, Reading, Union Pacific, United States Steel and some of the high priced specialties finishing at gains of large fractions to over a point. Total sales amounted to 665,000 shares.

Despite the better bank statement of last Saturday, money showed a disposition to harden, advancing to 6 per cent after its first offering at five. Time funds were scarce at 6 per cent for all dates.

International issues reacted with the general bond list under the weight of early selling. Anglo-French 5's and French state and municipal issues lowering from one-half to 1 per cent. Liberty issues were firm in the main on lighter dealings. Sales, par value, aggregated $3,675,000. United States bonds, old issues, were unchanged on call.

Successful Entertainment Is Held at Bethel School

BETHEL, Or., March 25.—A baswet social was held at the school house last Friday night for the benefit of the local auxiliary of the Red Cross. There was a large attendance, many coming from Auburn and some from other districts. A splendid program was given, alarge part of it being contributed by the young people of Auburn.

Twenty-six baskets were sold and for an average of $1.45. There were no cheap baskets and one double basket sold for $4.00. Will Jones sold the baskets.

A bed quilt was sold by lottery bringing over $12.

Rev. E. M. Burke of Salem made an address dedicating a service flag having five stars. Emil Sundborg, Geoerge Matten and John Clark are somewhere in France. Frank Kunciter and Chris Battalion are in the service in this country.

A lunch counter was fairly well patronized and the total net receipts from all sources was $57.60.

Among the Auburn young people taking part in the program were Misses Avis Williams, Alice Mathey, Etta Sutter, Ruth Tucker and Frances Tucker.

THE STRAP HANGERS.

With the easy grace of those who are accustomed by long habit two persons swung and swayed upon the street car. As they chatted pleasantly a man sitting near arose and offered his seat to a lady. And then one of the original two commented to his neighbor: "I've been riding on this line for eight years," he said, "and I have never given up my seat to a lady." "Then you have never had any manners," snubbed the friend, severely." "Not so," answered the first. "I have never had any seat."—The Argonaut.

Silverton Knights Make Drive for Stamp Sales

SILVERTON, Or., March 22.—Believing that Silverton had not done its share toward purchasing thrift stamps, the local Knights of Pythias lodge inaugurated a successful drive recently at a patriotic meeting of Knights of Pythian Sisters.

Past Chancellor George Cusiter, in opening the meeting, made a brief address, and L. C. Eastman, secretary of the lodge, explained the proposal. When the stamps were offered for sale they went like wild fire and the amount received from the sales was $749.75.

The drive will continue for some time, and children of Pythian families have entered a contest for the sale of stamps, the lodge offering thrift stamps as premiums for those selling the largest number.

Cards and dancing afforded entertainment for the occasion.

Marion Red Cross Gives Paying Chicken Supper

MARION, Or., March 25.—Marion Valley Red Cross auxiliary gave a chicken pie supper Saturday, March 6, which netted about $50.

The teachers and children cleaned up the school ground last week.

Three new pupils are in school. They are Lena, Elsie and Willie Fast.

Miss Lillian Haack has returned from a short visit in Portland.

Miss Honor Zell was a week-end visitor at the home of Mrs. E. E. Bengs. She also visited the school.

Some of the young people of Marion gathered at the home of Miss Lilly Wagner recently and had a very enjoyable evening playing Flinch and Pit, and wound up with a taffy pull.

Edith Daniels has been out of school for some days on account of measles.

Mrs. Kenneth Doerfler has returned home after a visit with relatives in Washington.

"Mabel," queried the caller of the minister's little daughter, "does your father ever preach the same sermon twice?"

"Yes, I think he does," replied Mabel, "but he talks loud and soft in different places each time, so it doesn't sound the same to outsiders."—Indianapolis Star.
