RUSH TO BUY IS CAUSE OF JUMP

Wheat Goes up Six and One-Half Cents at One Stage of Operations

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Rushes to buy wheat today lifted the price of that commodity fully 6 1-2 cents a bushel at one stage of the day's transactions. The urgency of traders was generally explained as the result of a preceding big rise of values in European markets. The finish here was strong, 3 3-4 to 5 5-8 net higher, with May 1.38 1-2 to $1.38 5-8 and July 1.21 3-4 to 1.21 7-8.

Corn gained 1 1-2 to 1 3-4, oats 1-2 to 5-8 a 3-4 and provisions 17 a 20 to 30 cents.

With knowledge that wheat in Liverpool was being quoted today at equal to more than $1.50 a bushel, American money, whereas wheat in Chicago was recently selling at less than $1, the majority of traders here took to the buying side of the market. In a twinkling thhe price jumped to the highest point yet aochieved by the July delivery and to new high prices for May since the recent upward movement of values began. News of disappointing threshing returns in Argentina added to the prevailing anxiety about the apparent scarcity of world's supplies, and so, too, did continued adverse crop advices from the southwestern portion of the domestic winter wheat crop belt. Selling to take profits brought about setbacks in prices later, but before the day was ended, the market resumed its upward swing, with fresh impetus coming from reports of an enlarged demand for flour and from announcement of a decrease in the United States visible supply of wheat. There was also talk of a big export business in wheat having been put through at the seaboard.

Corn and oat prices reflected to some extent the action of the wheat market and were also helped upward by an anticipat on that 25,000 tons of corn grits would be bought tomorrow for Russian famine relief.

Provisions ascended in price with grain and hogs.

STRENGTH SHOWN IN STOCK MARKET

Accumulation of Buying Orders Over Double Holiday Contributions

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Pronounced strength was displayed in today's stock market almost from the outset. Accumulation of buying orders over the double holiday, further settlement of short contracts and relaxed general orders were the propelling factors.
