PRICE TREND ALL UPWARD

Predictions of Big Yield Received Among Board of Trade Members

NEW YORK, March 29.—Price tendencies in the stock market today were unmistakably upward, although profit-taking occurred in the final hour on the gradual rise of call loans from 4 1-4 to 5 percent. The advance was attended by a pronounced increase and breadth of operations to which the short interest made voluntary but substantial contribution. In contrast to recent dealings, today's transactions comprehended a majority of the better class or dividend rails and industrials.

Better industrial prospects again were the chief accelerating force. Still higher prices were quoted for finished iron and steel and latest surveys of conditions by trade authoritits including the Iron Age were almost optimistic. Even coppers were not unfavorably influenced by further weakening of prices in the metal market.

A very considerable portion of the day's business apparently emanated from professional sources but no small part of the inquiry for seasoned shares and bonds was credited to investors seeking an outlook for April interest and dividend incomes.

Steels, equipments, motors and utilities were stocks in demand. Coalers furnished much of the buying power among the rails, together with junior issues. Sales amounted to 785,000 shares.

Withdrawals for federal account occasioned the firmer tone of demand money rates, but time funds were unaltered. Many of the 30 to 90 day offerings were made on the 4 1-2 per cent basis and several long maturities for commercial paper were accepted at the same rate. Dealings in foreign exchanges were unusually dull and irregular.

KANSAS OUTLOOK PUTS WHEAT DOWN

Advance Yesterday Attended by Pronounced Increase In Operations

CHICAGO, March 29.—Predictions of a big yield in Kansas this season had a bearish effect on the wheat market today. Closing prices were unsettled, ⅝ to 1⅜c net lower, with May $1.31 to $1.32, and July $1.17 to $1.18. Corn finished a shade to ¼ at ⅝ cent down; oats at a shade decline to ⅛c advance, and provisions varying from unchanged figures to a setback of 20 cents.

Downturns in the price of wheat came chiefly near the end of the day and after a former president of the Kansas state board of agriculture was quoted as saying the Kansas wheat crop was entering the growing season with a prospect of a greater production than at any time in the history of the state. No more than 3 per cent of the acreage would be abandoned, it was said. Indications of poor demand from millers at St. Louis counted also as a depressing factor, and so too did word of a railroad embargo against shipments of wheat to Fort William and Port Arthur, Ont.

Reports of high winds, green bug damage and other unfavorable crop conditions in the southwest were unaccompanied by orders to purchase. An advance in Liverpool quotations was likewise only a temporary stimulus.

Action of the corn market appeared to depend fainly on changes in the value of wheat. Cold, wet weather which delayed seeding gave relative firmness to oats.

Provisions averaged lower with hog values. Packers did considerable selling of lard.
