MISS Alice M. Robertson, congresswoman from Oklahoma was the honored guest at several informal affairs yesterday during a brief visit in Salem. Miss Robertson, who is President Harding's personal representative at the Portland Rose Festival, came as the guest of Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, former vice president general of the D. A. R. of which organization Miss Robertson is a member.

Mrs. Patterson was hostess at informal luncheon at her home in Dallas at 1 o'clock yesterday following the arrival of Miss Robertson from Portland.

Following an inspection around the school tea was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Hall. The girls of the school served the tea and later Miss Robertson addressed the students of the school as they gathered in front of the Hall home as she was getting ready to leave. Her long experience with Indian affairs she said made her specially interested in all Indian educational work and she made her interest real to the students, according to the Salem persons who heard her talk.

Miss Robertson will be a guest at a number of luncheons and parties during her brief visit in Portland where she is the guest of the Rose Festival board and of the Royal Rosarians.

Other members of the party coming down from Portland were Miss Anne Lang, state regent of the D. A. R., Mrs. Fletcher Linn, vice regent of Multnomah chapter, Portland, of which Mrs. Patterson herself is a member; Mrs. H. H. Ward, regent of Willamette chapter, Portland, Mrs. John Pierson, retiring regent of Multnomah chapter; Mrs. M. L. Boyd, regent of Sarah Childress Polk chapter, Dallas, was also a guest at the luncheon.

Following the luncheon at Mrs Patterson's, the party went to the home of Mrs. Seymour Jones where the members of Chemeketa chapter, Salem, were holding a meeting with special Flag day numbers. Miss Robertson addressed the members of the chapter in a few well chosen words. The short time which Miss Robertson could spend in Salem prevented her from visiting the state house. The party drove around the state house grounds and some of the other state buildings.

The Indian school at Chemawa was visited by the party immediately after the trip around Salem. Four tiny maids met Miss Robertson at the entrance and scattered rose petals on her pathway as she entered and when she left the school the same little girls literally showered her with rose petals.

COMING as a complete surprise to their many friends in Salem was the marriage of Miss Veva Golden and Howard Rex Friday evening. The wedding service was read by Rev. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick at the First Methodist church at 7 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Golden and a granddaughter of the late T. L. Golden, well known Oregon pioneer and was popular among a large circle of friends. She is a graduate of Salem high school and has been employed for the last four years in the Epley & Ohlinger offices.

Miss Miami Victor and Ernest Bonesteele were the only attendants and the only other witnesses were members of the immediate family. They left at once for northern points on a wedding trip and will be at home to their friends in the Court apartments after July 25.

The bride wore a lovely frock of dark blue lace over messaline with a lace hat to match. She carried Cecil Bruner roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Victor wore blue Canton crepe and carried Cecil Bruner roses and sweet peas.

Mr. Rex is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rex. He is a salesman in the R. B. Farmer Hardwars company.
