most importance to the country.

The speakers will be presented twice daily, 3 and 7:30 p. m., at the First Presbyterian church, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 1, 2 and 3. Everything is free and the public is cordially invited.

The squadron, which is characterized as a traveling university, is engaged in a nation wide campaign for law enforcement, civic righteousness and social and industrial justice.

First Day, Thursday, March 1

Frank S. Regan of Rockford, Ill. Tax expert and skilled cartoonist, illustrates his lecture with rapid crayon work. Lawyer and prohibitionist, elected to the Illinois legislature on prohibition issue by record breaking vote; chautauqua and lyceum lecturer.

Mr. Ragan will be supported by Rev. Fred W. Corbett, Lansing, Mich. Minister, widely traveled, forceful speaker. Made field secretary of flying squadron foundation by Michigan Methodist annual conference, 87th session.

Second Day, Friday, March 2

James H. Woertendyke, Chicago. Expert in political and civic economy. Master of language. A man with a message. Joined the Flying Squadron by invitation in 1921, since which time his services have been indispensable. Law enforcement conference at close of afternoon address.

Third Day, Saturday, March 3

Oliver Wayne Stewart, Chicago. With Governor Hanley and others organized the Flying Squadron foundation of which he is now president as well as editor of National Enquirer. Member Illinois legislature from Hyde Park district, Chicago.

Mr. Stewart will be supported by Rev. Norma C. Brown of Bloomington, Ill Supplied her father's pulpit because of his illness when only 15. Preached her way through college. First woman chaplain of Illinois legislature. Resigned her pulpit to join the Flying Squadron in 1921. Has delivered addresses for squadron in 290 cities.

CHRISTIAN LIFE DECLARED HAPPY

Fred Stone, Noted Comedian Tells of First Impulse Toward Better Life.

SEATTLE, Feb. 28.—Declaring the first week of a Christian life has been the happiest he has ever known, Fred Stone, noted comedian, today told the story of how the impulse to accept the Christian faith came upon him while snowbound on the bleak prairies of South Dakota recently, thus confirming news in a recent dispatch from Butte, Mont.

Stone, according to the Butte dispatch and confirmed today by the comedian himself, appeared at the Mountain View Methodist Episcopal church in Butte, February 17, and there made a confession of faith to Rev. Cecil Leslie Clifford, the pastor.

"My only regret is that I did not take this step years ago," Stone said today. "But it is not too late to do a lot of good to others and to get much happiness, peace and comfort out of my own life from now on."

tI is Stone's intention to give away ten per cent of his income, estimated at $125,000 annually. A number of churches in the northwest are reported to have received amounts up to $100 from Stone in the past week.

"I have set ten per cent as the minimum," he said, "and I have no doubt that I will exceed this amount more and more as the years go by."

BOND IS GIVEN

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—Captain Edward McNary, skipper of the yacht Seaward, owned by Cecil B. de Mille, motion picture producer, today gave bond of $2,000 before a United States commissioner on a charge of having illegally imported liquor into the United States from Mexico. The date of McNary's preliminary hearing was set for March 8.

Colds Are Contageous

Coughs and Colds are contagious and require prompt treatment as they spread or develop into Flu and Grippe. Take no chances when you can get Foley's Honey and Tar for a few cents and quickly check coughs and colds. The constantly increasing demand for Foley's Honey and Tar, for three generations, has made it the largest selling cough medicine in the World. Contains no opiates—ingredients are printed on the wrapper. Refuse substitutes. Insist upon Foley's. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
