Miss Rita Reed returned yesterday from Corvallis for the Christmas vacation. She is a freshman in home economics at O. A. C., where she belongs to Xi Beta sorority.

Xmas Carnival Dance Tonight—

Livesley station, Elite orchestra. —d22.

Another Home Ransacked—

When Mrs. C. W. Brant went to 960 Mill street yesterday to build a fire and warm the house for her sister, Miss Edna Purdy, who has been in a Portland hospital for the last three weeks following an operation, she found that the house had been burglarized. Burned matches were strewn over the floors and nearly every drawer opened and the contents mussed. As far as she was able to ascertain there was nothing stolen, though an accurate check will be made. Miss Purdy was able to return home from Portland last night.

Gilstram Case Dismissed—

Charges of possession of liquor were dropped yesterday against Victor Gilstrom, of Silverton, upon motion of James West, representing the office of the attorney general. Gilstram, it is said, pleaded guilty to a charge of having liquor upon advice of the officer who made the arrest, but changed this after he had consulted an attorney. Both the Gilstram case and the one against Dr. A. E. Wrightman, also of Silverton, were placed in the hands of the attorney general by Governor Pierce instead of being prosecuted in the regular channels by John Carson, district attorney. Dr. Wrightman was acquitted by a jury in the justice court Thursday afternoon.
