BUSINESS ACTIVITY IN WEST INCREASES

August which compares with an estimated normal decrease from August to September of 13 per cent. District figures for September were 5.9 per cent smaller in value than those for September, 1924, substantial increases at most of the reporting cities being more than offset by decines at Long Beach, Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Francisco.

"Lumber production of reporting mills in four trade associations of the district exceeded their shipments and sales by 4.1 per cent and 10 per cent respectively during September. Production, shipments and sales (orders) were all larger in volume during September than during September, 1924, although smaller than during August, 1925.

"The general level of wholesale prices, which had risen 3.4 per cent from May to August, declined slightly during September. The wholesale price index number of the bureau of labor statistics, (1913 prices equal 100 per cent) stood at 159.7 in September, 160.4 in August, 152.2 in May, the 1925 low point, and 161 in March, the high point. According to this index, the general level of prices at wholesale was 7.3 per cent higher in September than in September, 1924."
