CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Aug. 11.(AP)—Sudden onslaughts of selling overwhelmed buyers in the grain markets today, and prices underwent a sharp setback after having reached levels yet this season. Reactions were ascribed largely to a rush to get profits and to bearish effects of weakness in the New York stock market. Increasing black rust damage together with likelihood of widespread abandonment of corn acreage explained the earlier price bulges.
Wheat closed unsettled, 1 to 1 3-8c lower, corn 2½ to 2 7-8c off and oats ¾ to 1@1 1-8c down.

A Budding Millionaire
"When I arrived here I had only a dollar in my pocket. With that small amount I made my start."
"What did you with the dollar?"
"Wired home for money."

"I'm working my way through college now. My father's musical career has failed."
"Don't cry, little boy. I'll buy your silk stockings. And how did your father fail?"
"The tin cup rusted out and then the monkey died."

The landing field for airplanes on top of Chicago's new Postoffice is all right enough, but what is going to be neded next year is a good, soft place for spent presidential booms to light. —Indianapolis News.
