Woman's Union Sponsoring Unusual Bazaar

The bazaar which is being sponsored by the Woman's Union of the First Congregational Church will be held Friday and Saturday, December ninth and tenth, at 494 State Street, the Oregon Building.

A United States apron booth, exhibiting an apron from practically every state in the union as well as two from Honolulu will be the feature of the bazaar. Two attractive aprons have been received; gifts from the Donnelly Garment Company of Kansas City. An interesting article appeared in the November issue of the American Magazine concerning Nell Donnelly, who started the factory twenty years ago. The article is entitled "It's all Right To Be A Wife If You Don't Look Like One," and was written by Charles Lane Callen.

In addition to the apron booth there will be a candy booth, a cooked-food booth, and a country store booth with the following members in charge: Mrs. W. I. Staley, candy booth; Mrs. F. Steusloff, dolls; Frs. Francis E. Neer, canned-goods; Mrs. Mark D. McCallister, country store; and Mrs. Harold M. Brown, aprons. Mrs. W. E. Hanson is in general charge of the affair.

Mrs. Jones Entertains Writer's Club

The Writers' Section of the Salem Arts League was entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Blanche M. Jones on South Church Street.

Mrs. F. G. Franklin opened the evening's program with a description of the home of Eugene Field which she visited several months ago. She also read an article which appeared in a recent issue of the "Spectator."

"The Verdict" a story dealing with the problems of selecting a jury was read by Charles J. Lisle.

A sketch of early Oregon history was read by Perry Reigelman. Mr. Reigelman also read an original poem "Bind Not My Feet."

Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre read an interesting short story entitled "Black Though White."

Mrs. J. C. Nelson told of a meeting which she had some time ago with Harriet Monroe, Editor of Poetry, A Magazine of Verse.

Mrs. W. F. Fargo gave several foundations for short stories which she had worked out as a part of her short story course which she [illegible] Oregon. [illegible] the University of [illegible]

Mrs. Jones read reviews of a number of Stuart Sherman's books.

Dr. Franklin, leader of the section, gave an article replying to Governor Al Smith's attitude toward the Constitution.

As many of the club members are out of town, the attendance was somewhat smaller than usual.
