PROF HAS ANNIVERSARY

A. R. Sweetser of University of Oregon Celebrates

EUGENE, Ore., Mar. 2.—(AP)—When Professor A. R. Sweetser, head of the plant biology department of the University of Oregon, and Mrs. Sweetser celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary Wednesday, they received congratulations from friends for having been married 40 years.

Professor and Mrs. Sweetser were married in Centerville, Mass., February 29, 1888. Since then they have had a wedding anniversary only every four years. At one time they waited eight years for an anniversary, as 1900 was not a leap year.

A young man posing as a Yale football star is sent to prison on a charge of forgery. They must have had a Harvard jury in the case.

RACING TOWARDS THE BIG FINALS

This Will Be a Very Important Day in the Great Auto Voting Contest

HONOR ROLL TODAY
Mrs. Leo Gronke
Nina Williams
Mrs. H. E. Donaldson
Zelda Parrish
D. B. Boydston

(By the Contest Editor.)

Mrs. Leo Gronke leads the whole race today.

With but a few hours in which to enter subscriptions in The Oregon Statesman's great automobile campaign and secure the maximum votes allowed in this period, and with but a few days until the special Whippet prize period comes to an end, candidates in The Statesman's auto contest are straining every nerve in a final effort for supremacy as the end looms in sight.

Mrs. Leo Gronke, leader in The Statesman's Auto Contest today. This young lady has a host of friends in and around Salem who wish her success and admire her for her systematic efforts in getting subscriptions. She is to be congratulated on her success thus far.

The beautiful automobiles, fully equipped and ready to take a delightful spin, stand waiting for the owners. If they could talk, those big cars would undoubtedly say, "Look at me; am I not a mighty fine and costly prize, well worth every effort it takes to win me?"

A big $1343.00 Oakland Sedan is truly a wonderful prize for a few weeks of hard work and a splendid Whippet Coach worth $687.00, and when it is taken into consideration that all the prizes to be awarded are over $6,000.00, it is not strange that the live ones are speeding up their pace and preparing with feverish interest for the best remaining opportunity of piling up the winning votes.

The Big Votes Count

Any candidate can win the mammoth prize with a little real effort, as close as the race now stands. In fact, each candidate's success or failure—gold or glory, the congratulations and commendations of all Oregon, and the best cars in America—everything depends upon what each candidate can accomplish in these next few days.

Every day—every hour in the short time that remains should be utilized to the fullest possible extent by the earnest hustlers who really want to take advantage of what may prove one of the greatest events in their lives. It's "do or die" in the next few hours in the big vote period which ends at 10 o'clock tomorrow night. After this the vote schedule is very much reduced.

Watch them go in the few hours that are left. It will be interesting, indeed, to see which candidate will be able to get to the top and stay there. The wide-awake candidate can, in this big vote period, pile up such an enormous amount of votes that it cannot be overcome.

Over-confidence is a great handicap under which a candidate can work. This unwelcome handicap causes more regrets than anything else in a campaign of this kind. The only way to be sure of winning is to spend every minute securing subscriptions.

Perseverance is the only winning quality. See what there is at the top of the ladder of success for the plucky ones—luxurious motor cars, worth respectively $1343.00, $970.00, $681.00, and $500.00, electric washing machines, diamond ring, cash prizes. These prizes will make their owners proud. No luxury compares with the delight of a really fine and costly automobile, and these dandy cars that will be given away stand out with radiant splendor.

Some Active Ones

Zelda Parrish is making a wonderful effort, and judging by her activities and consistent work she is likely to be one of the serious contenders in the grand finals.

Nina Williams is stepping fast every day and she is some go-getter when she speeds up.

Beulah Witzell knows how to get them, too.

Gladys McDonald is to be congratulated on her ability in getting subscriptions, but she is not as consistent as she might be.

Mrs. George Tucker took a trip to the country today. She has not told us what her success was, but we know from past experience that when she goes after them she brings home the bacon.

Carol Smith came to see us yesterday to get some ammunition, and we expect to hear from Carol tomorrow.

D. B. Boydston is hard at it and is leaving no stone unturned to win the prize of his choice.

Thelma Haugen is a good worker with a pleasant manner and is meeting with considerable success in her efforts. Her friends wish her every success.

Mrs. H. E. Donaldson is getting better all the time and her ability as a subscription getter is about 600 per cent better than when she first started.

Mrs. Hoogerhyde is a good worker and is developing a lot of salesmanship talent and if she could make herself believe that she could get 5 year subscriptions instead of 50 cent ones it is doubtful if a candidate could compare with her in this contest.

MY JESUS AS THOU WILT

Benjamin Schmolke, 1672-1737

"My Jesus, as Thou wilt!
Oh, may Thy will be mine!
Into Thy hand of love
I would my all resign;
Through sorrow, or through joy,
And help me still to say
My Lord, Thy will be done."

From the heart of a pious German minister came this famous hymn, which breathes the spirit of resignation which is bred in those who have suffered much. Schmolke was a Lutheran pastor in Silesia, Germany, where for some years he was a popular writer of hymns. He was considered a leading member of the Pietist movement which swept over his native land in the hundred years from 1650 to 1750.

In 1730 he was paralysed and partly lost his sight. A little later his home was destroyed in a fire and all his property burned. This was followed by the death of his wife and then, one by one, his children passed on, leaving the man homeless and with but few friends. It is in these dire straights that he must have turned to his most famous hymn and repeated the words "My Jesus, as Thou wilt"! to himself. The hymn was written in 1704, sometime before this period of suffering in his life, contrary to the beliefs of some, who attribute it to the period after his tribulations.

After the year 1650, religion sank to a low level in Germany and Lutheranism, it is said, sank from a living conviction into a dead dogma. In the first part of the 18th century, it is said, no satire in Germany could be witty except at the expense of the Bible and Bible texts and sacred hymns were made the frequent subjects of jests and laughter. In opposition to this condition, there arose the Pietists, so-called because of their beliefs. Schmolke associated himself with this group which led a mild revival in Germany in those perilous years.

He was the son of a poor Silesian minister who was unable to give his son an education. Certain benevolent persons in his district provided him with means and he studied for the ministry. Later he became his father's assistant, in the year 1694, and after some years in this work, secured his own parish, at Schweidnitz.

The hymn was translated by Miss Jane Bothwick, who, with her sister compiled a remarkable work "Hymns from the Land of Luther" which gave to the English speaking peoples some of the finest of the old Old German hymns.

The hymn is most frequently sung to the tune "Jewett," which was arranged by Joseph Holbrook from a selection by Carl Maria Von Weber, one of the most famous of German writers of music. The tune was taken from Weber's overture to his opera "Der Freischutz." The adaptation has probably become more famous than the original, because this hymn is sung and loved by Christians in every land.

The sulphur in Rowles Mentho Sulphur clears the skin, while the menthol heals the sore, red and broken tissue. All itching stops instantly on application! Soon the trouble is cleared up and your skin is in a fine, healthy state. This is the combination you have been looking for. Rowles Mentho Sulphur is inexpensive and all druggists supply it in jars ready to use. Be sure it's Rowles.

Don't Let a Cold Put You on Your Back
A cold is a serious germ attack, highly contagious. Don't neglect it for an hour. Nobody knows where a cold may lead.
Four things should be done for a cold—and at once. Break the cold, check the fever, open the bowels, tone the system. HILL'S Cascara-Bromide-Quinine tablets do all this in 24 hours—end the cold in one day. HILL'S means safety as millions know.

HILL'S
Cascara - Bromide - Quinine
Be sure you get HILL'S in the red box with bogeyman. At all druggists—30c.
