Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia"

Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of soda take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the souring waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Adv.

GLENNA COLLETT GOES 2 ROUNDS

HUNSTANTON, England, May 16.—(AP)—Miss Glenna Collett, former women's golf champion of the United States, swept through two rounds of the British women's title event Monday.

The American girl, one of the game's longest hitters, used her ability to drive the ball through the win dto good advantage in defeating Mlle. Simone Thion de la Chaume, the French girl who holds the British title, and Miss Shirley Lamplough, 18 year old English player.

The first round match which brought the star American and French entries together was a seesaw affair finally won at the 17th, three up and one to play. In the afternoon a very tired Glenna played excellent golf to win from her younger and less experienced opponent, with little effort, seven up and six to play. The English girl won only one hole.

WILBUR F. COEN WINS AT TENNIS

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—(AP).—Wilbur F. "Junior" Coen, Kansas City, defeated Wilmer Allison of Fort Worth, Texas, in the first match of the Davis cup tennis trials at the Triple A courts here today. The match was decided by 4-6, 7-5, 9-7, 4-6, 6-3.

Rain delayed completion of the match making it necessary to postpone the contest scheduled between Arnold Jones of Providence, R. I., and John Hennessey of Indianapolis, until tomorrow.

YANK GOLFERS GET ELIMINATED

LEEDS, England, May 16—(AP)—Ill luck pursued the North and South American golf professionals in the Yorkshire evening News thousand guineas tournament today. Bill Melhorn, Larry Nabholtz and Jose Jurado all failed to qualify for match play. A like fate befell some British stalwarts, including Harry Vardon, Abe Mitchell, Arthur Havers and Alex Herd.

W. H. Davies of Prenton headed the qualifying list with an aggregate of 143.

ANNOUNCE ELECTION STANDINGS AT FIGHT

The fight card for Friday night's bouts is rapidly being completed by Matchmaker Harry Plant of the Salem boxing commission. Salemites all know that the main event will feature two hard hitting leather pushers, Frankie Lewis of Salem and George Hval of Portland. It has been a long time since the local fighter has been seen in the Salem arena and all of Salem's fight fans are eagerly awaiting the gong to start his two sledge hammers going.

Lewis has been on the sick list for some time but of late has been getting into great shape. Since his illness he has spent much time in getting into condition and declares that he never felt better in his life. He will enter the ring at about 140 pounds.

Word has been received from Hval and he also states that he is in the best of condition, very confident that he will defeat the local knuckle swinger. He will probably arrive in Salem tonight or tomorrow morning. George has a wonderful fight record and has won much favor with fight fans along the Pacific coast. He has a record of scoring seven knockouts in succession, fighting better and harder in each encounter. He is expected to give Frankie a real test tomorrow night.

Another good fight is assured in the curtain raiser. Little Jackie Wattenberger of Independence who was seen in action here in the last show against Young Ambrose of this city, will again be matched with the Salemite. Wattenberger won the cash $10 prize which was awarded to the most popular fighter that evening, and promises to show the crowd another good fight. Both lads are popular with local fight fans and have been signed due to public demand.

A special feature of the evening will be the announcing of the election returns after each bout from the arena. This will enable fans to witness the fights and also keep up on the election returns.

Jimmy McLarnin Ready For Fight With Mandell

NEW YORK, May 16.—(AP)—The hammer of Thor that lies hidden in Jimmy McLarnin's right fist "lay in camphor" today waiting a chance to thud on Sammy Mandell's chin in the Polo grounds tomorrow night and crown a new lightweight champion of the world.

The little Irishman with the slow smile has worked easily for his great opportunity, boxing but little and striving chiefly to make the 135 pound limit without sapping strength. Mandell has trained hard and fast adding to the speed and punching skill that stripped the mantle from the shoulders of the fading Rocky Kansas in Chicago two years ago.

New York fistic customers thronging to the big National league ball park in numbers that may reach 60,000, need no training proof of the lightning that lies in McLarnin's right hand. Neither do they ask proof of the speed in the legs of the Rockford sheik nor the classy ringmanship that lifted Sammy to the lightweight throne.

Both youngsters in their own particular ways demonstrated their prowess on New York's own bounding pride, Sid Terris. The Los Angeles slugger caught Sidney a few weeks ago when the ghetto ghost had started to slide down from his lofty perch among lightweights and knocked him out with a single right hand punch in the opening round. Mandell outpointed the flashy Terris before winning the title when Sid had all his speed and craft.

Although Mandell has risked his title only once in two years, records show that he has fought 30 times in that period. Major battles were against Jackie Fields, Phil McGraw who failed to lift the title, and Billy Petrolle.

McLarnin while fighting ten times in the past year has knocked out Kid Kaplan and Terris in addition to trimming Bill Wallace, a crack Cleveland contender.

The title battle brings back to the lightweight division for the first time the spotlight that shone on the class when Benny Leonard whipped Lew Tendler here before a $400,000 gate four years ago. With fair weather prevailing for the first big outdoor card of the season, $200,000 worth of onlookers are expected in the gathering under Coogan's Bluffs.

GOLFERS PICKED BUTTON TOURNEY

In the second bracket play of the Button tournament competition for the Pomeroy & Keene trophies at Illahee country club last Saturday and Sunday, the following players won and will play this Saturday and Sunday for the next elimination:

First trophy—Cone vs. McLaughlin, Chambers vs. Newton Young vs. Simmons, Fisher vs. Schmall.

Second trophy — W. Hug vs. Williams, Small vs. Hathaway, Bonesteele vs. Farrar, Proctor vs. Roberts.

The course was in good condition, the weather ideal, and competition very keen last week end. Many good scores ewre turned in and looks as though the Illahee Country club will have a championship team at the close of the Pomeroy and Keene loving cup to enter in the Tri-City tournament which will be held in a short time. The exact date of the tourney has not been announced but it is believed that it will start May 27th. Salem, Corvallis and Eugene will compete.

Jack Elliott who is in charge of the Elks tournament, has announced that the tentative date of the Elks qualifying round will be May 26 and 27. So far it looks like a wonderful golf season for the Illahee Country club.

MCLARNIN CONCEDED SLIGHT ADVANTAGE

NEW YORK, May 16—(AP)—Sammy Mandell, sheik from Rockford, Ill., may have something on Jimmy McLarnin in that he knows that he is the lightweight champion but it does not show in the physical comparison. Sammy shades the Irishman in height by almost two inches but concedes three inches in reach.

Here is the way they will shape up in the Polo grounds ring tomorrow night for their title scrap:

MISS WILLS SEEDED IN EASIER BRACKETS

PARIS, May 16—(AP)—Helen Wills, American and Wimbledon tennis champion, is seeded in the upper and easier half of the draw for the women's singles in the French hard court championships starting Monday.

Mrs. Molla B. Mallory, the former American champion and Miss Penelope Anderson, Richmond Va., girl who came abroad as Miss Wills' playing partner, are bracketed in the lower half together with Evelyn Colyer and Betty Nuthall, English stars, and Kea Bouman of Holland.

Frank Hunter, principal American American entry in the men's singles, faces keen competition early in the tournament. His third round opponent probably will be Henri Cochet, assuming that the French star disposes of Sydney Wood, New York boy in the second round.

Jean Borotra is in the second quarter of the men's draw along with Gerald Patterson of Australia while Jacques Brugnon is in the third and Rene La Coste in the fourth quarter.

There are 64 entries in the men's singles, 42 in the women's singles and more than a dozen nations represented.

OPEN HOUSE FRIDAY

MONMOUTH TRAINING SCHOOL TO EXHIBIT WORK

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL, Monmouth, May 16—(Special).—Monmouth training school will hold open house on Friday, May 18, during the annual spring exhibit, with every grade having work on display. The entire building will be open to out-of-town visitors and teachers, and will be of special interest to Normal students who are going into their first teaching positions this coming fall. Many helpful suggestions will be offered in the way of devices and projects which have been used during the past school year in the training department.

The primary grades under Mrs. Witherspoon will display reading charts and a sand table featuring Holland. The third and fourth grades under Mrs. Van Slyck have prepared a Chinese project on which they have been working this past term. The fifth grade, with Mr. Brand, critic, will contribute health, Courtis test, and arithmetic charts, and will feature Miss Dora L. Helger, expert visiting instructor of the A. N. Palmer company, in a penmanship demonstration.

Miss Catherine Gentle's sixth grade will be given over entirely to suggestions and ideas for student teachers. Among other features of this room will be a project showing the history of transportation in which each child in the room has taken an active part. This promises to be one of the most novel and most worthwhile exhibits in the school. The sixth grade will also contribute a geography project.

The seventh grade in the junior high school will display original charts in mathematics. The prescience class of the eighth grade will exhibit plastecine designs of the Panama Canal and soap carvings of model ships. The ninth grade's exhibit will include miniature electrical and heating appliances they have constructed. The critic teachers in the junior high are Miss Beardsley, Miss Barnum and Miss Turnidge.

Miss Brenton, head of the art department of the Normal, will display the art work of the grades throughout the school year.

BETZER HEADS CLUB

ELECTION HELD BY KEIZER COMMUNITY CLUB

KEIZER, May 16—(Special)—Ray Betzer was elected president of the Keizer community club at a meeting held Tuesday evening at the schoolhouse. Other officers for the coming year include Mrs. Nell Pearmine, vice president; Olive Evans, secretary; Mildred Gardner, treasurer; H. W. Bowden, sergeant-at-arms. Charles Weathers is the outgoing president.

Plans were made for the annual school and community picnic. It was decided that it will be held Friday, June 1, at Hager's Grove. Everyone in the community who has a car is asked to assist in getting the school children to the grounds.

Committee chairmen, who will choose their own assistants, were chosen as follows:

Refreshments and finance, Mrs. W. E. Savage; sports, Ray Betzer; treats, J. A. Gardner. All planning to attend will meet at the schoolhouse at 10 a. m. on picnic day.

Mrs. Ben Claggett spent the week end in Oregon City. While there she had the pleasure of a ride in a motorboat up the river with her husband, Ben Claggett, who is with the fish and game commission.

EX-COP UNDER FIRE

PORTLAND, Ore., May 16.—(AP)—Leo Giddings, former policeman, was arrested today charged with accepting money from a woman of ill repute. He was dismissed from the police force last winter following an altercation with another officer. A short time ago he was arrested and fined $50 on a charge of assault and battery preferred by his wife.

Yankee Women Lose Out At British Golf Tourney

HUNSTANTON, England, May 16.—(AP)—A fourth round as stormy for Americans as the prevailing weather, today blotted all the native born women golfers of the United States from the British championship picture. Miss Glenna Collett, Miss Elizabeth Curtiss and Mrs. Stewart Hanley were washed out in the morning, leaving only Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd of Philadelphia, a native of Scotland, to carry on. This Mrs. Hurd did, winning her fifth round match in the afternoon and continuing to the quarter finals tomorrow morning.

The defeat of Miss Collett, a favorite to continue to the finals, came at the hands of Miss Mabel Wragg, Yorkshire champion, the match ending 3 to 2. The play was in a mixture of hail and rain, bitterly cold all the way, and a 40 mile wind blowing.

Miss Collett could not weather the storm but Miss Wragg was the to adjust her game to conditions and she was quick to take advantage of the opportunity presented by the American at the 16th. Glenna missed her drive when she was two down and the Yorkshire champion sent hers fairly on the green, leaving only the congratulatory handshake to the match.

Mrs. Hanley lost to Miss Molly Gourlay, 7 and 6, and Miss Curtiss was defeated by Miss Winn, 6 and 5. They were more chagrined at the defeat of Miss Collett than at their own lack of success.

Miss Collett was as graceful in defeat as she is on the course. She said she played the worst round of golf of her life but would return next year for a try at the trophy which has twice eluded her. Some of her friends wept over her defeat.

"I cried like a baby," said Miss Carroll Potter of Brooklyn who came to England with Miss Collett to see her win the championship.

The American cause is in experienced hands although Mrs. Hurd is carrying the burden alone. She was born to such golfing weather as was experienced today on the Scottish coast and she was never in danger in her matches today. If she wins her match tomorrow against Miss Judith Fowler, she will have an opportunity to avenge Glenna's defeat by meeting Miss Wragg in the semi-finals in the afternoon if the Yorkshire player gets through her morning round.

It seemed a cruel fate for the former American champion who won such a magnificent victory over the champion, Mlle. Simone Thion de la Chaume, to be put out of play.
