CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—(AP).—Bright prospects for big yields sent values downward today to the lowest level reached this season by any wheat or by December or March corn. September delivery of corn although not representing the new corn crop now in the fields, was especially weak as a result of persistent selling on the part of holders.

Closing quotations on wheat were heavy, 1⅛c to 1⅜c net lower, corn ⅛c to 1c down and oats a shade to ⅛c off.

Mrs. A. C. Burghart and daughters of Shaw, Oregon, were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer at Whispering Pines.

MISSIONARY GROUP HAS GOOD MEETING

Professor C. I. Andrews, returning last week from a conference of the Missionary Education movement, known more briefly as the MEM, reported a fine series of meetings. The registration was not as heavy as was expected or hoped but the general spirit of the meetings was excellent. There were 75 registered from the three northwest states, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

This year the conference had representatives from the Congo, India, China, Japan, and the Philippines. Dr. Walter Gatty of the New York staff of the MEM was also present. Dr. Gatty will take charge of promotional work in the west and southwest for the next few months.

Sixteen missionary organizations of several churches are united in this movement; the interdenominational character of the movement makes it more helpful and more interesting. Dr. Edward Laird Mills of Portland is vice chairman of the executive council; he is well known in the northwest as editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate.

At the Seabeck conference Professor Andrews was scheduled to teach a class in "the Psychology of Leadership." The class was for young people, and adults were not on their part finally, in response on their part. inally, in response to wide demand, Professor Andrews started an extra class in the same subject for adults. This class rapidly grew until it was larger than the original, and members warmly praised the leadership of the Kimball professor.

PASTOR SHOUTS 'YOU'RE A LIAR'

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Amid scenes of wild disorder, punctuated by should of "liar," which precipitated fist fights, the democratic county convention here today divided into two meetings, one by the Smith "regulars" and the other by th eanti-Smith group.

The high spot in the pandemonium at the county convention resulted from argument between Clarence Kendall and the Rev. A. G. Fitzgerald, Presbyterian pastor of Houston Heights, a suburb.

Unnoticed amid the other disturbances, this argument drew attention when Kandall shouted, "You ought to get out of here—you're a republican."

"You're a liar!" shouted the pastor.

Several men, including two reporters sitting at a table, were between the two men.

Kendall leaped at the pastor, driving his right fist straight into the preacher's mouth and then he stepped back four or five steps. Then Rev. Fitzgerald rushed back into the fight, exchanging blows with Kendall until a crowd separated them. After the fight was over they issued these statements:

"He called me a liar and I hit him."—Rev. Fitzgerald.

"He called me a liar and no man ever called me that and got away with it. I didn't know who he was or what he was."—Kendall.

TURNER TOURISTS IN AUTO ACCIDENT

TURNER, Aug. 4.—(Special)—The Dr. Ransom party met with an auto accident while in the mountains, according to word reaching here, and Mrs. Ransom suffered a broken wrist. The machine was badly wrecked, the information states, but no other particulars were learned.

J. Smith of the soldiers' home at Roseburg returned Thursday after a weeks' visit at the F. C. Gunning home.

Mrs. L. Rowley and son Paul have moved into the hotel building, and will conduct a rooming house.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Robertson went to Portland Sunday.

Mrs. H. L. Earl returned from Boston Friday morning having been summoned home on account of her husband's death last Sunday.

M. T. Miller has bought property near the bank, where after remodeling, he will have an up-to-date barber shop.

Mrs. C. A. Bear drove to Salem Tuesday afternoon accompanied by Mrs. A. Farris, Mrs. E. C. Bear, and Mrs. A. Funston, to attend the W. C. T. U. picnic and program sponsored by the Salem union at the fairground camp.

C. Larson is home after several days spent in a hospital, receiving medical treatment for his hand, the thumb having been severed.

Mrs. Earl Bear and Mrs. Henry Barnett drove to Salem Thursday for the day.

COSTUME CONTEST NOT DRESS PARADE

Considerable misunderstanding has arisen about the contest to be held at 14th street on Friday afternoon, August 10. It is a costume contest rather than a contest to see who has the most attractive "Sunday best." Something from the bottom of a trunk in the attic is what is to be worn for this contest.

The archery contest held yesterday was in two divisions, one for accuracy and one for distance. Kenneth Marsten won in the contest for accuracy, and Glenn Ferris won the shoot for distance.

The boys' gun club from the Yew park grounds had its weekly practice yesterday morning on the rifle range loaned through the courtesy of Mr. Judson, in the south part of the city. C. J. Lisle, who is directing this instruction, reported that the boys have made good progress in their target practice. Yesterday afternoon a group of the Park boys had a hatchet throwing contest which proved interesting and exciting. One boy made eight bullseye throws in succession.

The boys' track meet will be held at 14th street next Saturday. The track meet for the girls will be held on the following Thursday, August 16.

The boys from Yew Park played a return game with their fathers last night, and pronounced it a bigger success than the game a week ago, as they won this game 19-14. Last week the boys lost by a one point margin. Ivan Burns was captain of the boys, and the dads all admitted that the boys earned their victory.

SUGGEST MISTAKE IN FLIGHT REPORT

LONDON, Aug. 4.—(AP)—A possible error in transmission of longitude by the British steamship Amakura was advanced tonight by pilot friends of Majors Kubala and Idzikowski as the basis for reports that the Polish flyers had turned back toward Europe.

"All or nothing," the aviators are said to have told friends before the take off at Le Bourget. The unanimous opinion of persons in closest touch with preparations for the flight is that the flyers were out to accomplish their purpose or die in the attempt.

The fact is emphasized that both the Aztec and the Amixbifn reported that the plane was in no apparent difficulty. It is argued that if the flyers had been in trouble or in doubt about their ability to reach port they would have come down near one of the ships.

MRS. POWELL, HURT IN FALL, IMPROVED

LAKE LABISH, Aug. 4.—(Special)—Mrs. Helen Powell who was severely hurt and unnerved by a fall at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Janie Brown, last week is improving. Mrs. Powell is one of the oldest Oregon pioneers and is a woman of much force of character.
