Whitman's Hard Charging Team Defeats Willamette 45-0

END RUNS USED FOR BIG GAINS

Bearcats Threaten Repeatedly With Special Attack Devised by Coach

Whitman College's football team broke into the "Thundering herd" class here Thanksgiving day when it ran around the Willamette university eleven for a 45 to 0 victory, holding the Bearcats scoreless despite the effectiveness of an offensive devised by Coach "Spec" Keene of Willamette with Whitman's defensive weaknesses clearly in mnid.

Three fleet footed backfield men, Nielson, Haynes and Harshbarger, made nearly all of Whitman's gains and most of it was made on end runs in which the other backfield men deserved more credit than the ball carrier, for the effective way in which they bowled over the Bearcat defense.

Bearcats Strong

Whitman wasn't as much better than Willamette as the score indicated, however, for the Bearcats made four determined marches down the field, only to be stopped within the 15 yard line. Willamette made 14 first downs to Whitman's 13. Engebretsen, rangy and elusive halfback, and Page, gritty line plunger, were Willamette's most effective ground gainers, Engebretsen making one 20 yard run and another of 50 yards. On defense, Pope and Rasmussen were notably strong.

Had Willamette sought to hold the score down, it could have kept Whitman from getting more than three touchdowns; but the Bearcats were out to score at any cost, and tossed passes in all parts of the field, regardless of the risk.

Best Threat Spoiled

Their strongest threat was made in the second quarter, when they carried the ball to Whitman's five yard line and lost on downs by three inches. Without discounting Whitman's superiority, it must be said that luck played against the Bearcats a number of times.

Whitman scored on straight plays after the opening kickoff. Haynes going around end for 20 yards and he and Nielson alternating in carrying the ball. After reaching the nine yard line, Nielson advanced to the one yard line in three plunges and Haynes carried the ball over.

Nielson's Runs Count

Willamette received the next kickoff but was unable to gain, and Whitman started another drive from its 30 yard line after French's punt. Nielson tore around end for 30 yards, then Willamette tightened and the visitors were forced to punt. Willamette punted again and this time Nielson broke away for a 60 yard run to the four yard line. Willamette held Nielson twice on the one foot line, but on the third try he plunged over the goal.

Early in the second quarter Haynes returned a punt 15 yards, and then after being thrown twice for losses, passed to Nielson for a 20 yard gain to the 20 yard line. In the succeeding advance a fumble helped Whitman get from the four yard line to the one yard line. Reese carried the ball the rest of the way.

Make Strong Bid

At this point Engebretsen went in to lead Willamette's attack; after running the kickoff back to the 33 yard line he made a five yard gain, tossed a pass to Page for 15, Page gained three yards and then Engebretsen passed to DePoe for eight. The advance was stopped and Engebretsen punted to Whitman's 17 yard line.

Whitman punted after making one first down, and Engebretsen completed a pass to Ruch for eight yards. Page made it first down. Engebretsen gained nine and DePoe made two more. Engebretsen passed to Pope for nine yards and took the ball through tackle himself for 20, to Whitman's 15 yard line. After two unsuccessful tries, Page gained eight yards and DePoe almost two, Willamette losing the ball on downs by three inches on Whitman's five yard line.

Score on Long Pass

Whitman punted out of danger and then Nielson intercepted a Willamette pass and ran to the 50 yard line; after one short gain Haynes passed to Lindman for a 50 yard gain and a touchdown. Haynes kicked goal. Score at half time, Whitman 25, Willamette 0.

Just after the second half opened, Engebretsen passed to DePoe, who juggled the ball, and Harshberger of Whitman grabbed it and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. After Willamette received again and punted, Nielson started another end run that netted 60 yards and another score. Haynes kicked goal.

DePoe Hurt Badly

Reese of Whitman made a 50 yard run a little later, and DePoe, blocked by a Whitman halfback, was carried off the field unconscious. Rasmussen on that play caught Reese from behind after he had passed the entire Willamette team.

Whitman then fumbled and Willamette recovered; Engebretsen passed to Page for 20 yards, gained eight himself, Garrison made it another first down, and Engebretsen passed to Page for eight more. He repeated this play for no gain and Whitman took the ball on downs on its own 12 yard line.

Tackle Scores

Shortly after the fourth quarter opened Applegate, a substitute quarterback, ripped off a 40 yard run for Whitman and he and Nielson continued the advance to the one yard line, where Galey, a tackle, was called back and carried the ball over.

Following the next kickoff Engebretsen dashed through the Whitman team for 48 yards to Whitman's 12 yard line. There the advance was stopped, although Cranor went in and tried two passes without success.

After an exchange of punts, Cranor passed to Tucker for eight yards, to Engebretsen for 20 and to Page for 20 more. The game ended with Willamette in possession of the ball on Whitman's 20 yard line.

CORNELL DEFEATED BY PENNSYLVANIA 11

FRANKLIN FIELD, Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Pennsylvania had a Thanksgiving holiday at the expense of Cornell today, slaughtering the Ithacans 49 to 0, with a sensational aerial attack in which Captain Paul Scull played the star role.

The remarkable effectiveness of Penn's aerial attack is shown by the cold figures, 13 out of 23 completed for total gains of 313 yards, an average of slightly less than 25 yard for every completed toss.

Five of the seven Quaker touchdowns, sprinkled through every quarter of the game were the direct result of passes, ranging from 32 to 52 yards, the air game left only two yards to be gained for an eighth touchdown but the ninth and most spectacular of the lot came on a 95 yard run by Walter Opekun, fullback, after recovery of a Cornell fumble on the threshold of the Quaker goal line.

UCLAS BEATEN BY WEBFOOTS

California Team Humbled to Tune of 26-0 by Oregon Aggregation

By VICTOR G. SIDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Nov. 29.—(AP)—University of Oregon's big and powerful footballers today defeated the conference Cub from the University of California at Los Angeles by a score of 26 to 6.

The Bruins, already humbled by several conference teams, proved but a hard workout for the Webfeet. They fought throughout the 60 minutes of play and made two long marches in the final quarter, one of which brought them their lone touchdown. One drive, that to the goal, was good for 80 yards; the other for 75.

Uclas Come Back Strong

The husky Oregonians outdrove the Bruins throughout the first half, but numerous fumbles and a lack of scoring punch, plus the fight of the locals, held the score down to one touchdown, which came late in the second period.

The first Oregon touchdown got its start in a recovered Bruin fumble. Taking the ball on U. C. L. A's 45 yard line, the Webfeet, with a series of lateral passes and line bucks, drove across their opponent's goal line. The touchdown was made through the air—a lateral pass from Burnell to Robinson.

For a second time the northerners drove half the length of the field to a touchdown in the third period. Passes and plunges took the Webfeet to the four yard line, whence Gould ploughed across, John Kitzmiller passed to Burnell for the extra point.

Goals Come Fast

The next two scores came in the final quarter, one before and one after the Bruin tally. Robinson, intercepting a U. C. L .A. pass, sped 55 yards to a touchdown.

This Oregon touchdown aroused the Bruins and they swept from their own 20 yard line, across the northerners' goal line. Two breaks aided them in their scoring drive. With first down on Oregon's nine yard line, diminutive Buddy Forster, subquarterback, flipped a long diagonal pass to his halfback mate, Bert La Brucherie, who sidled over the goal line.

Pepped up by their success, the Bruins started another drive, which they all but completed. It ended on the Webfooters' 5 yard line when Kitzmiller intercepted a pass and ran 95 yards to the final Oregon score.

Summary:
