RICKEY BUSY WITH GUESTS

Washington and California Visitors Being Entertained at Rickey

RICKEY, July 19 — Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Doyle of Corvina, Cal., who have been touring the United States and visiting their children in Nebraska and Wyoming have been the guests of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. H. McMillen.

The visit was especially enjoyable as Mrs. McMillin has not seen her parents for several years.

The Doyles have planned their trip for over a year but owing to the ill health of Mr. Doyle have been unable to make the trip before.

Both are well pleased with Oregon. Mr. Doyle has not visited here since the pioneer days when he was a boy.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Morefield of North Yakima, Wash., who came to Portland to attend the medical convention visited friends here over the week end.

The Morefields formerly owned what is now the Russel Clearwater farm and made their home here for several years.

Dr. Morefield was at one time assistant physician at the Cottage farm.

FRENCH YET ARGUE DEBT SETTLEMENT

PARIS, July 19—(AP)—Debate on the Mellon-Berenger debt settlement ratification occupied both morning and afternoon sessions of the French chamber while a night session was decided upon in order to give other deputies an opportunity to deliver carefully prepared speeches.

Deputies Durand, Bergery, Grumbach and Auriol occupied both daylight sessions, of these Auriol alone announced that he was completely opposed to ratification of the agreement. The other speakers favored ratification with reservations.

The deputies spoke practically to empty seats within the chamber while the majority of members were busy in the lobbies where the real work of finding a compromise formula went on, the object being to reconcile the government's viewpoint with that of committees in opposition to it.

The announcement that Premier Poincare after two days absence would reappear in his seat at ten o'clock tomorrow morning was interpreted as an attempt to stem the flood of oratory and force a vote before the end of the week.

The senate adjourned at 6:30 o'clock this afternoon and will reassemble at 3 o'clock next Monday to "receive the ratification bill expected from the chamber." The senate should dispose of its part of the work in three days, thus the final and definite ratification is expected before July 27 and should be ready for President Doumergue's signature before the end of the month.

FORMER FRIENDS MEET AT HUBBARD

HUBBARD, July 19—A party of Hubbard school girl chums of former years gathered at the Hubbard Mineral Springs' park for one of their old time weiner roasts and picnic lunches Monday evening.

A FREE Ride in an Airplane!

You'll Enjoy Every Minute of Your Trip!

Ride with Lee Eyerly or "Scout" Hazelwood of the Eyerly Air Transport Co.

The Eyerly motto is: "We fly any place, any time."

Moderate rates for transportation are given between various points in the valley and out of the state.

Facts about the Eyerly Transport School

The Eyerly School of Aeronautics is the only school in Oregon giving a complete course of ground and air flying which includes instruction from the ground up. This school which was established in 1920 has grown steadily throughout the nine years of its history.

The Eyerly school has the record of carrying thousands of passengers and students without accident to a single person. It also has the record of being the first builder of successful airplanes in the state.

The Eyerly school has entirely modern equipment, and all its transport pilots and instructors are licensed.

The public is invited to visit the school and see how students take a part in building the planes.

You are invited to view the old type of engines once used in airplanes as well as to see the latest type of engines being used at the present time.
