CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 9—(AP)—With the export basis for United States wheat at relatively the highest point yet this season, the Chicago wheat market tilted upward late today. Earlier a downward trend in values prevailed owing a good deal to assertions that Argentine wheat for February shipment was underselling United States wheat in Great Britain.

Besides, heavy snowfalls over domestic winter wheat territory together with the sharp setback in wheat quotations at Liverpool, wer a handicap to friends of higher prices here.

Chicago closing prices for wheat were nervous at the same as yesterday's finish to 3-8 higher. Corn closed ⅛@5-8 to 1 cent up and oats 3-8 to ¼@5-8 advance.

NOTED FLYER KILLED

SANTOS, Brazil, Jan. 11—(AP)—Vasco Cinquini, who flew across the Atlantic in 1926 as mechanic in the airplane Jahu piloted by two Portuguese flyers, Degarros and Braga, was instantly killed today when a plane he was piloting fell into the sea near the beach here. A wing of the plane broke off high in the air.
