Sugar Advances But Flour Declines at Portland

PORTLAND, June 17.—(AP)—While the price of sugar advanced 20c today, the price of flour balanced the scales by declining 20c in keeping with the lower wheat quotations. With the best family patents at $6.80 and bakers' flour at $6.10, the trade is enjoying the lowest prices experienced since 1924.

The egg market was reported unchanged as to price with the undertone easy and unsettled.

Butter prices were fairly steady with receipts light, but sufficient for needs.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the U. S. department of agriculture says:

"Cantaloupes are firm, and prices much higher with standard 45's moving to retailers at $3.50-$4.00 per crate. This represents about $1.00 advance over last week's average.

Strawberries Still Scarce

"Strawberries continue in only moderate supply; and prices remain at the unusually high midseason level of $3.00-$3.50 per crate.

"Tomatoes show strength, although price increases are few due to only fair quality generally. A few fancy repacked Texas tomatoes sell as high as $4.00 per lug. Ordinary stock 'as is' sells as low as $1.25.

"Cherries, celery, asparagus, spinach, and the bunched vegetables are more plentiful, and prices are lower. A few Oregon cherries were shipped to Honolulu last Saturday.

"Several shippers are preparing green peas for shipment, in straight and mixed cars. The outside market is steady at 8-9c per lb. of No. 1 peas."

GUESTS ENJOY TRIP TO SILVER CREEK

TURNER, June 17.—Mr. and Mrs. Fay Kirk of near Spokane spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bear. Mrs. Bear and Mrs. Kirk were classmates at Whitman college at Walla Walla. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk spent last week at Tacoma attending the Washington state meet of the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges. They also visited in Portland during the Rose show. They will spend some time in Tacoma this week in attendance at the annual meet of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges.

Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Bear took their company on a drive to Silver creek falls and to some of the large prune orchards.

Other guests at the Bear home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gillett and young daughter, Rosella, of Portland. Rosella will make a week's visit in her aunt's home.
