FATAL CRASH DUE TO LOST BEARINGS

BURBANK, Cal., Nov. 21.—(AP)—In four words, the last ever received from the radio of the night air mail plane which crashed in the Tehachapi foothills early Tuesday killing its three occupants, was found by experts the explanation of the accident.

The words were "Do not know position."

After A. F. Donaldson, the pilot, had radioed to his headquarters, the Pacific Air Transport company offices here, details of his fight with a snow storm over Lebec, 80 miles north, the message was received.

At an inquest conducted by Coroner Normand C. Howard of Kern county in Bakersfield, the coroner's jury decided Donaldson, Miss Jean Markow, 18, his passenger, and George Rogers, his mechanic, came to their deaths in an accidental plane crash. Federal postoffice authorities at Bakersfield today revealed the ill-fated ship carried a valuable cargo of mail. They said one package found beside the wreckage contained $75,000 in loose jewels and another registered parcel contained several thousands of dollars in securities. Unofficially it was estimated the mail, all of which was registered, was worth $200,000.

DAISY DOESN'T GET HER JEWELS BACK

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Daisy Devoe, ex-aide to Clara Bow, walked into the district attorney's office here demanding her jewelry, worth, she said, $2,200.

Like the famed Finnegan, she walked right out again—without her alleged platinum wrist watch, dinner rings and bracelets. Moreover, Daisy was followed through the door by an official threat of an impending grand theft complaint.

Nathan Freedman, attorney, went in, too, acting as spokesman for the much bothered ex-secretary of the flaming haired film actress. All he got from Blaney Matthews, chief detective for the district attorney, was a sharp "no."

Last week Daisy sued Matthews, District Attorney Buron Fitts, the red-haired Clara, her actor friend and now secretary, Rex Bell, and a couple of others, for recovery of her jewelry and some papers. She demanded on top of this $5,000 exemplary damages, chiefly for alleged malice and persecution. She charged wrongful seizure of the jewelry.

DISEASE CARRIER FOUND AT LESLIE

A diphtheria carrier has been attending Leslie junior high school, the state board of health Thursday afternoon notified Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, county health officer. The state health board has examined a number of cultures taken of Leslie teachers and pupils early this week following illness of one of the teachers, Miss Lillian Scott, with diphtheria.

The carrier, a boy, was immediately removed from school and isolated. Investigation developed that this boy moved to town with his family two weeks ago from the country, and it is possible, though not definitely established, that the case which appeared may be traced to this fact. The boy had diphtheria about seven years ago, and according to word from the home had a hard time getting rid of its effects at that time. He has not had the toxin-antitoxin immunization treatment.

The boy will be isolated until his condition as carrier is cleared up.

No further cases of diphtheria have appeared in the school.

Railroads Show Much Work Done And Pledge More

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Railway executives representing 90 per cent of the mileage of the United States here reported expenditures on construction and equipment for the first nine months of 1930 of $125,000,000 more than in 1929 and pledged themselves to continue that program as an aid to employment.

R. H. Aishton, chairman of the executive committee, reported capital expenditures of class one roads from January 1 to September 30 totalled $698,821,000.

The association then voted unanimously to carry on "as far as practicable" work which may provide employment to the greatest possible number of men during the winter.

Frown on Plan To Scrap Debt Reduction Idea

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Congressional leaders of all factions have turned against suggestions to continue lower income tax rates by doing away with the public debt retirement program and the likelihood of helping the reduced tax schedule for another year diminished further.

At the treasury, also, it was said no recommendation would be made to congress for the abandonment next year of the sinking fund which has been set aside for orderly retirement of the war debt.
