Report Shows Big Membership Gain

The annual report showed that more than 300 members have been added to Marion county granges during the past year. The greatest gain was made by Ankeny Grange while Monitor was able to report that the membership there had never decreased.

J. Teckenburg and C. Carter were named as a committee to solicit membership for the county Pomona organization.

Grange masters who reported were: O. L. Larson, Woodburn; C. Carter, Butteville; A. Edwards, Surprise; Daisy Bump, North Howell; H. E. Martin, Macleay; J. Richards, Stayton, J. O. Farr, Ankeny; J. A. Van Cleave, Monitor; Anna Hadley, Silverton Hills; B. J. Hall, Silverton; J. O. Darby, Union Hill. Salem grange was represented but the master was not present.

Dinner was served at noon by the women of Macleay and North Howell granges.

Grange Officials Among Speakers

In the afternoon the lecture hour opened with Pomona Lecturer Frank Bowers presiding. The program included talks by past state master George Palmatier; a Mr. Lundy of California and Edith Tozier Wetherred, lecturer of Oswego grange.

Mrs. Leroy Esson of North Howell gave two readings and a quartette consisting of Mrs. Paul Silke, Mrs. O. Baker, H. E. Martin and W. E. Branch sang two numbers with Mrs. Jessie Coomler as accompanist.

C. H. Edwards, district deputy for district number one spoke on the agricultural situation.

The resolutions committee consisting of S. H. Van Trump, A. D. McCully and W. A. Jones reported four resolutions all of which were adopted. These were: opposing the proposed cream grading law and land settlement bill expected to be introduced in the legislature, protesting the appropriation of $75,000 of state money for the Pacific International Livestock Exposition and protesting the use of oleomargarine and commending those grocers who do not offer it for sale.

Seventeen candidates took the fifth degree in the Pomona organization.

Those granges reporting 100 per cent Home Economics committees were: Monitor, Silverton Hills, Woodburn, Turner, North Howell, Macleay, Stayton, Union Hill and Fairfield.

The next Pomona meeting will be at Butteville with Woodburn and Butteville as hosts.

Robert McElheny, 88, of Ridgeway, Ohio, has been in the grocery business 56 years.

Discrepancies Straightened in Library Story

Slight errors were made in The Statesman story in regard to the work of the city library during the past year, according to Miss Maud Covington, librarian. The newly elected officers of the library board are Dr. H. H. Olinger, president, Mrs. Curtis Cross, vice president and W. H. Burghardt, secretary.

The increase in circulation was 1930 over 1929 rather than 1929 over 1928. This increase was 4742. The increase for December alone was 1732 over December 1929.

You Know, I Sometimes Wonder.... if you folks don't get tired of hearing about what a wonderful store so and so has — yes, our store too.

Well, When I Was a Small Lad....

I thought that anyone owning a grocery store must be rich, with all the candy, crackers, cookies and other goodies (free, of course). Well, that has proven to be true, with this exception: Our riches are not the dollars we have made—they are the respect and confidence of the people we have the pleasure of meeting and serving through the years. We just want you to know that we do appreciate your confidence in us as much as we appreciate your patronage, and we hope always to show that appreciation by giving our best.
