Churches Over County Announce Many Services Of Promise for Easter

Salem churches have no corner on the preparations for happy and appropriate observances of that anniversary which marks the day of resurrection, for in every section of the county church and Sunday school groups have set aside the day for special services. Some of them are told as follows:

WOODBURN, April —Special Easter services for Woodburn churches are being planned by the various pastors.

Saturday high mass will begin at 7 a. m. At the high mass there will be the blessing of the Easter water, the baptismal water and the Easter candles. No exercises are scheduled for Saturday evening.

High mass will again be observed at both 8 a. m. and 10 a. m. on Sunday. There will be communion at the 8 o'clock mass and also at the later mass if desired.

The Lenten season is marked by Saturday's services and also the climax of the Easter services. The services Saturday will be followed by the benediction. The benediction will be given to the children's choir at the 8:00 o'clock mass, and the music for the 10 o'clock mass will be under the direction of Frank DuBois, who will lead the St. Luke's choir. The Little Flower mass will be sung.

Special musical and speaking programs are also scheduled for Easter Sunday at the Methodist, Presbyterian, and Christian churches and the Church of God.

JEFFERSON, April 3—The program for the Evangelical church on Easter Sunday is as follows: a surprise prayer meeting, followed by breakfast, at the parsonage. The Sabbath school will convene at 10:00 o'clock, Helen Kihs, superintendent in charge. In connection with this, a program will be given by the Sunday school after which the pastor, Rev. A. W. Oliver will deliver the Easter message. The subject will be "The Joys of Easter."

LABISH CENTER, April 3—"God's Candles", an appropriately Lenten pageant, will form the center of attraction at the Easter program which will be given Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Labish Center school house.

The cast includes Vera Dow as youth, Annabelle Bennett as childhood, Katherine Blanton as sin, Erma Hornschuch as sorrow, Eva Dow as death, Namoi Hornschuch as Easter, Grace Klampe as Christian, Bernadeen Daugherty as service, and Francis Klampe as sacrifice. Easter is supported by a group of Easter chimes, and youth and childhood by other groups.

Special scenery, costuming and lighting is being provided to enhance the effectiveness of the presentation.

The program also includes an exercise "The King's Message," by six juniors; "Easter Postcards," by ten members of the primary department; song "Stay Not in Sorrow," by the intermediate class, readings by Corrine Miller, Laurence Zinzer, Milton Scheuerman and Katherine Blanton, and a duet by Grace and Frances Klampe.

Mrs. Earl Harmon is directing the pageant and other members of the program committee include Mrs. E. G. Hornschuch, Mrs. W. R. Daugherty, and Valmer Klampe.

TURNER, April 3—The Methodist Episcopal Sunday school will put on a children's Easter program during the last half of the Sunday school hour Sunday. Rev. W. S. Burgoyne will bring an Easter message at the 11:00 o'clock church service. The choir will sing an appropriate anthem. At the evening service, the pageant, "In the Garden" will be given. It will be led by the choir.

Rev. E. J. Gilstrap, pastor of the Christian church, will take for the subject of his morning sermon "Resurrection." A baptismal service will follow in which several have asked to take part. An Easter program will be given in the evening, with children and young people taking part. Special music is prepared for each service.

DALLAS, April 3—Vesper services will be held at the Presbyterian church, Easter Sunday at 4:30 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. G. P. MacGregor. The program will be as follows, with Rachel Uglow as accompanist:
