THIEVES ARE BUSY
INDEPENDENCE, April 3. — Someone entered the home of Will Fuller, on Railroad street, a few nights ago and a number of pieces of men's clothing were taken. Wednesday evening an automobile belonging to Dean Walker was taken sometime during the night. The car was parked under a side porch.

LETTERMEN ENTERTAIN
AUMSVILLE, April 3—The lettermen of the student body gave a party at the school house Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in games with refreshments being served at the close of the evening. There was a good crowd but some were unable to attend on account of high water.

NEW MARKET ROAD DAMAGED BY FLOOD

LYONS, April 3.—Heavy rain early this week caused considerable damage to the new market road which was finished last fall. A deep wash-out and slide on the new grade up the canyon hill above the turn made it impassable.

It was necessary to abandon it and use the old hill road until it can be repaired. Lots of water ran down the mountain and over the high bank onto the road, undermining the newly constructed grade. Many places between Lyons and Jordan are impassable due to high water.

Tourist Travel to Be Drawn to West Side Highway

MONMOUTH, April 3.—At the Lions club luncheon Tuesday was featured a report by a committee which attended the West Side Highway association's regional meeting at McMinnville last week. J. B. V. Butler, O. A. Wolverton, F. E. Chambers and Dr. A. S. Jensen comprised the committee from Monmouth. Representatives from Tillamook, Seaside, Newport and several other valley towns were present.

Folders are being printed to describe the various highway loops occurring between Astoria and Corvallis. Attracting tourists and keeping them within the state proved an interesting subject of discussion. The erection of historical monuments at significant highway points was another topic touched upon as reported by the Lions' committee. Markers bearing the lettering, U. S. 99W, have now been placed along the highway passing through Monmouth.
