ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Marion.

In the Matter of the Guardianship Adelaide M. Scriber, Insane.

This cause coming on for hearing upon the petition of John Bayne, as guardian of the person and estate of Adelaide M. Scriber, the above named ward, for a license to sell the following described real property belonging to said ward, to-wit:

Beginning at a point on the West line of Commercial Street in the City of Salem, Marion County, Oregon, 86 feet South of the South line of Kearney Street in said City of Salem, and running thence South along the West line of Commercial Street 80 feet to the Northeast corner of the Jory tract of land; thence West at right angles to Commercial Street and along the North line of said Jory tract of land 151 feet; thence North parallel with the West line of Commercial Street 80 feet to the Southwest corner of a tract lying on the North of and adjoining the land herein described; thence East 151 feet along the South line of the land adjoining on the North of this land to the place of beginning.

And it appearing to the court from the said petition that it is necessary and would be beneficial to the above named ward and her estate that the said real property be sold as prayed for in said petition;

It is, therefore, ordered that Max G. Scriber and Emma Virginia Scriber, the next of kin of said ward, and all persons interested in said property of said ward, appear before the above named court in the County Court room in the Court House in Salem, Marion County, Oregon, on the 30th day of January, 1932, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and show cause why a license should not be granted for the sale of the real property aforesaid as prayed for in said petition.

It is further ordered that this order to show cause be served upon the said next of kin of said ward and all persons interested in her estate by publishing this order for at least three successive weeks in the Oregon Statesman, a newspaper circulating in Marion County, and that the first publication be made on the 30th day of December, 1931, and the last publication thereof be made on the 20th day of January, 1932.

CASKET OF SLAIN SPORTSWOMAN

Borne by a distinguished party of society notables the casket containing the remains of Mrs. Spencer Ilsley, slain sportswoman, of Middleburg, Va., is shown as it was returned to her home from a Washington, D. C., undertaker's. Among the wealthy sports followers carrying the casket are Colonel Billy Mitchell, former assistant chief of the U. S. Army Air Corps; William F. Hitt, Harry Frost and William Hulbert. Mrs. Ilsley, leader of the exclusive hunting set in and around Middleburg and prominent in New York, Washington and Milwaukee society, was beaten to death in her home. Her maid, Mina Bruckner, was also slain. Police are seeking George Crawford, a former colored employee of the murdered woman.

STUDYING THE SOLAR RAYS

A famous investigator of light rays is shown in a new role as he relaxes and absorbs some of the rays of Old Sol. Yes, you guessed it. It is Professor Albert Einstein, celebrated German scientist, propounder of the theory of relativity and of the unified field. The savant is shown taking a sun bath at the fashionable desert oasis in Palm Springs, Cal. It seems that the great scientist alternates between studying light rays and basking in them.
