CANADA GETS GRAIN PREFERENCE

HOME GROWN MELONS ON MARKET

Chicago Price Slumps As Result; Export Demand Weaker

CHICAGO, Aug. 16 — (AP) — Somersaulting backward, wheat prices suddenly parted company with the New York stock market today, and much more than lost substantial gains.

Concentrated selling which developed in wheat was associated with evidence that export demand for United States wheat had flattened out, whereas the largest overseas business in some time had been put through today from Canada. Much of the selling that accompanied the fall of wheat appeared to be of a stop-loss character.

Wheat closed unstable at almost the day's low, 7-8 to 1 1-4 under yesterday's finish; corn unchanged to 1-4 to 3-8 down; oats 1-4 to 3-8 off.

Today's closing quotations:

Wheat: Sep. old 51 1-4 to 3-8, new 51 1-4; Dec. 54 3-4 to 7-8; May 59 1-2 to 5-8.

Corn: Sep. 31 3-8 to 1-2; Dec. 32 7-8 to 33; May 37 1-2 to 5-8.

Oats: Sep. 16 5-8; Dec. 19 5-8 to 3-4; May 21 1-2.

Fine New Barn is Home for Iungen's Herd of Holsteins

JEFFERSON, August 16—Sam Iungen's dairy herd of 20 Holsteins, besides about 20 calves and heifers, will soon be housed in a new 36 by 72 feet dairy barn, now virtually complete on his farm five miles north. A cement floor, partition to devide the dairy cows and other stock, a 100-ton hay mow with three hay chutes are all features of the new building.

Iungen is the only member of the Dairymen's association south of Salem, and finds his membership in the association quite profitable with better prices a result therefrom.

Peaches Plentiful at Lower Price Here Lettuce Down

Home grown muskmelons made their first appearance on the local markets yesterday. Growers received around three cents a pound, and the retail figure was a cent higher.

Crawford peaches are plentiful and the price down, with the offer to growers on five pound baskets 15 cents. Sweet corn is down to the lowest figure of the season, 10 cents a dozen to the grower, with quality and quantity both good.

Local lettuce is lower, growers marketing at 60 cents a crate. Seattle lettuce takes a higher price but the heads are firmer.

Based on a local market, wheat justifies an offer of 50 cents a bushel, but there is virtually no wheat offered. Those warehouses who buy on the Portland quotation basis were paying 46 and 48 cents yesterday.

Hogs dropped 25 cents to $4.75 on tops, while dressed hogs held at 7 cents.

RAILS TAKE LEAD IN STOCK ADVANCE

Average Level Regains Peak Of Summer's Advance; Cottom Boom Aids

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—(AP)—The railroad issues led the securities market upward today, bringing the average level of shares back to the approximate peak of the summer recovery registered last week.

Yesterday's smart comeback, after the selling late last week, precipitated a rush of buying and short covering in the opening transactions, which boosted many prices 1 to 7 points, and delayed the ticker several minutes.

The market cooled down somewhat later although rails had a fresh burst of strength at midday. A sag in the wheat market brought a general reaction during the afternoon, but the list came back again in the final dealings, closing with numerous advances of 1 to 4 points. Turnover was 3,611,575 shares, or close to Friday's.

Bulls in stocks were impressed by a rise of nearly $1 a bale in cotton to new highs for the movement early, but this advance had been cut to 30 to 50 cents at the close.

After the close of the market, Chesapeake & Ohio ordered the regular quarterly dividend of 62½ cents, leaving that carrier the only one of the major roads which has not cut its disbursement to stockholders since 1929. American Telephone directors will consider maintenance of the $9 annual dividend tomorrow.

The stock closed up 4 points, New York Central rose more than 2 points to a new top for the movement. Chesapeake & Ohio pushed up 2⅜. Union Pacific rushed up 6¼, and closed off 1½ from the top. A 4½-point gain in Santa Fe was reduced to 3¼.

U. S. Steel was a feature of the opening, advancing about 5 points with a 10,000-share transaction. It closed at 43⅛, up 3. Case and Allied Chemical rose 6 and 7 points, respectively, and closed 3 under the best. Westinghouse Electric was up more than 4 points to a new high for 1932.
