Facts of Interest

This is Sunday the 13th—Lucky day.

30 shopping days until Christmas.

Read the classified ads for Christmas suggestions.

A local merchant recovered from one of his desk drawers an old tool used in the days of the saloon. It has a brush to brush the dust from the glass, a knife to tear the seals and a good old cork screw.

Surely if he would advertise it on this page he should get a buyer now that Oregon has voted wet.

See an ad on another page of this paper "Brewery for Sale". Wonder if that will take away the sulphur smell of the paper mill!

The ads on this page are small but they carry a mighty wallop. Read them carefully.

TELEPHONE OFFICE FACING SHUTDOWN

Unless People of Lyons Area Rally to Preserve Communication

LYONS, Nov. 12—The Lyons Peoples Cooperative Telephone company called a public meeting which was held at the Lyons hall November 10, to try to get more people in the surrounding territory to install 'phones in order to create sufficient funds and revenue to support the local central office and switchboard.

No definite decision was made but plans were discussed and several men appointed as committees to see the people and make explanations of the circumstances confronting the company.

Unless it is possible to secure more phone patrons the company will be obliged to discontinue the office at Lyons. If this is done the community will not only be taking a backward step but will be cut off from immediate help in way of doctors and in case of fire or other unavoidable disaster which in terms of dollars and cents would amount to many times the actual cost of maintaining telephone service when the committees have had sufficient time to get in touch with every home owner in the vicinity and another meeting date will be set and results noted. The company can operate and meet expenses if at least 18 or 20 new patrons can be secured. It is hoped this will be accomplished.

At the meeting of the West Salem Post of the American Legion, held at the home of Colonel Charles A. Robertson Wednesday night more names were added to the charter, making a total of 19 men enrolled, and it was decided to hold the charter open for a little longer, that more may become charter members. A number of interesting projects were discussed, one of which will probably be adopted at the next meeting, which will be held at the city hall Thursday night, November 17. Build at Lumber Yard

The first of this week the Beutler-Quistad Lumber company began the building of a heavy durable decking, three feet off the ground and extending 126 feet from the fine new lumber shed and office recently completed on the Wallace road, just at the outskirts of West Salem, to the railroad track. This will be solid and strong enough to hold the weight of thousands of feet or piled lumber, but will also hold trucks that come and go in the storage, sale and delivery of the lumber.

This decking will be an outdoor platform, which with the building already erected this fall, will cover the 150x200 ground space they purchased in September. This firm has installed a chute, which enables men to unload a carload of lumber in short order. Within doors a convenient store and office is located on one corner of the large building, in which room paints, hardware, cement and everything in the building line will be handled.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Kuhn and family of Dayton visited at the parental home of Mr. Kuhn in West Salem, the Fred Kuhns of Gerth avenue, and other recent guests at the same home included Mrs. Kuhn's mother, Mrs. Anna Shank of Salem and her sister, Mrs. Florence Reynolds of Agency, Iowa, who is spending the winter here in Oregon, visiting relatives. The Fred Kuhns have now moved into their newly purchased residence, having about completed the improvements they were to make in the place.

Austin presided and conducted the election which resulted in the election of Mrs. G. W. Minton, president and Mrs. J. R. Brown, secretary. It was decided to call the club the "Kingwood Tea and Talk" club, and will meet the second Thursday of each month.
