Musical Festival To be Colorful

Plans for the second annual county high school music festival to be held Dec. 16 at the Salem high school are being perfected with the completed registration that is being sent in from the various schools.

Miss Nelma Saylor, graduate of Oregon State college directs the music at Woodburn. Two groups from this school will appear at the festival. A girls glee club of 23 members will sing "Estrellita", Pone and "Heav'n Heav'n", Burleig. The Woodburn boys quartette will present "Mandalay", Speaks, and "Home on the Range", Guion-Riegger.

The following are members of the girls glee club: Martha Arney, Mary Alice Conyne, Vera Culp, Jean Freeburg, Kathryn Rowe, Ruth Heusser, Barbor Jensen, Virginia Kestel, Irene Lemery, Catherine McCormick, Norma Moshberger, Jean Richmond, Daisy Schrock, Edna Schrock, Hazel Schrock, Kathleen Shorey, Fidella Sicard, Lavola Sinram, Lois St. Helen, Hazel Trullinger, Hilda Trullinger, Martha Tyler, Helen Woodfin. The accompanist for the group is Vera Jean Huber.

The personnel of the boys quartette is as follows: Wesley Ebey, first tenor; Carroll Olsen, second tenor; Dennis Froemke, first bass; Peter Larson, second bass. Helen Woodfin accompanies the quartette.

The singing organizations at Woodburn high school furnish music for many school programs and hold an active place in community affairs. The girls quartette has won highest honors at the Forest Grove tournament for three consecutive years in Class B. These musical groups plan to present an operetta next March, directed by Miss Saylor.

Other high schools besides Salem to have representative work at the festival are Aumsville, Hubbard, Gervais and Silverton.

Girl Reserves Busy With Christmas

Christmas is the center of attention for Girl Reserves of Salem these days. Each year this organization plans special Christmas for the children of the tuberculosis hospital. Before the gifts are taken to the hospital for presentation, the Reserves hold a "gift ceremonial" each bringing the gifts to be taken.

This gift ceremonial will be an event of December 19 at the Y. M. C. A. Here both the members and friends are invited to come for the pleasing and Christmasy spirit demonstrated by the ceremonial. Mrs. Ruth Verzteg will have charge of the music. Music will represent carols from different countries and practice is well under way. The first rehearsal will be Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A.

The high school will meet Monday to practice its music representing "Spain"; eighth grade Parrish will also meet Monday to work on ceremonial plans. This group is in charge of the ceremonial.

Leslie will represent England in its music and will meet Tuesday for practice; seventh and ninth Parrish Reserves will represent Denmark and will meet for practice Wednesday; Garfield will have French carols and will meet for practice Thursday as will Englewood Reserves who have German carols to sing.

Washington Reserves will meet at the Y. W. C. A. for a Christmas tree and program Wednesday night.

Roman Guenther Weds in Portland

The marriage of Roman Guenther, well known in Salem, was married in Portland Saturday night to Miss Thelma Lucille Talihelm of Los Angeles.

The marriage took place in the new home which Mr. Guenther has just completed at 780 Holgate street, Portland. The romance which culminated in this marriage began in Salem last summer when Miss Talihem was spending the summer months with Mrs. E. J. Peterson, an old college friend.

Mrs. Peterson acted as matron of honor and Mr. Peterson was best man. Prof. T. S. Roberts played the wedding march. The wedding was a very quiet one.

Mr. Guenther is known especially well through his work in constructing some of the most prized pipe organs of Salem.
