Matinee Finale Planned Sunday

For the "finale" of the popular Sunday matinee series of the Portland Symphony orchestra's 1932-33 season, a young American pianist of Italian parentage will come west from New York to be the soloist at the concert Sunday afternoon, February 5. She is Miss Grace Castagnetta, sensational and youthful artist, whose appearance in Portland will be her debut with a major symphony. There is a fire in her interpretation and a Latin loveliness in herself which makes her an outstandingly fine musician.

This charming pianist, born in New York in 1910, has been studying in European countries since she was 15 years old. At the Berlin salon already she has experienced the glow the musical spotlight, and in other German cities Miss Castagnotta has been enthusiastically lauded for her subtle, delicate interpretation and perfect technique.

Cologne critics said about her: "The playing of the very young American pianist, Grace Catagnetta, who recently carried off such brilliant honors in Berlin, excited singular interest. The pinnacle of the evening was achieved by the extraordinarily talented interpretation of Chopin's second piano concerto, which she played with unusual finesse and exquisite tonal magic. Truly an artistic phenomena."

Happy for those who will be fortunate enough to hear this artist the afternoon of February 5, they too will hear her play Chopin, as she will perform his concerto in E minor.

Aurora—A most interesting social event was the Sunday night supper for which Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stephens were hosts at their scenic residence overlooking the Willamette river. At the supper hour the congenial guests were grouped around the glowing fireplace over which myriads of subdued lights sparkled.

Motoring out from Aurora were the A. L. Stricklands, J. W. Sadlers, U. Eilers, and Edward Green and the George Fischers of Gladstone and E. J. Robinsons of Portland. Miss Marjory Stephens assisted her parents in the entertainment of the guests.

• • •

Orchard Heights—The local "500" club was entertained Saturday night at the Fred Gibson home in West Salem. Going from here were Mr. and Mrs. William Knower, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Cash Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams, Mr. and Mrs. William Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bouffler, Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Grice and Tommy Fisher.

• • •

Miss Mabel Dotson entertained a group of her friends at her home last Thursday evening. Bridge was the diversion of the evening. High scores went to Mrs. Mildred Samuelson and Mrs. Ruth Lear. Dainty refreshments in keeping with the valentine season were served at the close of the evening. Guests present were Isabel Bartlett, Marie Westhoff, Helen Fletcher, Frances Graham, Edith Starrett, Ruth Lear and Mildred Samuelson.

• • •

Kingwood—Young Danny Adams was honor guest Sunday when his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams invited a group of relatives to a dinner complimenting his birthday. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grabenhorst and sons Henry and Junior of Pringle, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller of West Salem, Mrs. Margaret Adams, Danny and Bobby Adams and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Adams.

When Your Daughter Comes to Womanhood

Give Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Most girls in their teens need a tonic and regulator. Give your daughter Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the next few months. Teach her how to guard her health at this critical time. When she is a happy, healthy wife and mother she will thank you.

Card Club Spends Happy Afternoon

The increasingly popular "dessert" luncheon was an attractive feature of the afternoon for which Mrs. Beulah Woodry was hostess Tuesday complimenting members of her bridge club and additional guests. Mrs. R. L. Phillips assisted at the luncheon hour. Mrs. Robert H. Brennan and Mrs. Walter Cline held winning scores for cards.

Mrs. Homer J. Lyons, Mrs. A. J. Wheaton, Mrs. Clifford Bentson and Mrs. Walter Cline were special guests for the afternoon.

Y. M. C. A. Dinner Excellent Success

The dinner which opened the Y. W. C. A. campaign for funds Monday night in the Y. M. C. A. building proved an excellent beginning for the week of strenuous work on the part of campaign workers to raise a $4500 budget need.

The dinner also marked the initial appearance of one of the organization's latest undertakings, that of developing a woman's orchestra. Priscilla Meisinger is director of the orchestra, which includes: Spanish guitar, Mrs. Ruth Versteeg, Pauline Lewis, Gertrude Daly, Lulu Parks, Laura Phipps; steel guitar, Mrs. Marvin Wells, Mrs. W. Welsh, Mrs. H. B. Carl, Betty Elofson, Sylvia Daly, Esther Rickey; ukulele, Mrs. Harry E. Martin, Mrs. W. J. Culver, Mrs. Cora Plank.

An interesting interview which developed the work of the organization and its needs for the future was given by Mrs. Milton Meyers to Mrs. John Lewis.

A demonstration of work done by Girl Reserves in handicraft and like activity was given by a group of the Reserve members. Special music, reports of committees and an interesting and enthusiastic talk by Mayor Douglas McKay concluded the dinner program.

Dr. J. Vinton Scott Will Address Zontas

The regular dinner meeting of the Salem Zonta club will be of more than ordinary interest tonight at the Marion hotel. Dr. J. Vinton Scott will address the group on the general subject of China as he knows it after having lived there for the past 10 years. He will show motion pictures taken by himself while in China and thus add to the interest of his remarks.

Announcement was made at this meeting that there will be no luncheon meeting for February 9 because of the February 11 dinner meeting at which time Salem Zonta members will be special guests of the Salem club.

Among the local Zontas who motored to Portland Wednesday night to attend the banquet given there in compliment to Miss Amelia Earhart were Hazel Cook, Kathryn Gunnell, Nellie Schwab, Francis Johanson, Winifred Herrick and Ruby Morris.

Bridge Luncheon At Adolph Home

An attractive 1 o'clock luncheon complimented club members of Mrs. Rex Adolph Wednesday and this was followed by cards for the afternoon hours. Mrs. John Caughell, Mrs. Frank Chapman and Mrs. Kenneth Power assisted in serving.

Mrs. Milton Steiner of Portland was present for this meeting of the club. Mrs. Steiner is spending a few days in Salem.

• • •

Members of the Encinitis club entertained with the regular fortnightly dinner at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday night. Plans were made at this time for the March 4-5 Northwest conference in Seattle. Plans were also made for a benefit bridge party to be sponsored by the Encinitis group. Miss Mildred Judson was appointed committee chairman on arrangements.

• • •

Mrs. Leslie Springer entertained Friday for her "quilt" club. Present were Mrs. Albert Blankenship, Mrs. Jean Gritton, Mrs. Ellis Lauderback, Mrs. Leo Reiman, Mrs. Emil Stripling, Mrs. Henry Watson, and Mrs. Springer. Mrs. Lauderback will be hostess to the group in two weeks.

• • •

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robinson gave a bridge party Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson of Portland, who were week-end guests. Mr. and Mrs. Lex Wheeler won high score prizes.

Visiting D. A. R. Women to be Guests

Chemeketa chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution will be hostesses to visiting D.A.R. members who are in Salem during the legislative session Saturday at the home of Mrs. B. L. Steeves, 1694 Court street. An invitation through the press is extended to them.

A special program has been arranged for the afternoon under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Byrd, chairman of the Indian welfare committee. Miss Gertrude Eakin of Chemawa will be in charge of the program numbers.

The committee on arrangements will include Mrs. B. L. Steeves, chairman, Mrs. W. L. Stolz, Mrs. J. W. Harbison, Mrs. C. F. Turner, Mrs. S. L. Minard, Miss Ruth Rulifson, Mrs. V. E. Newcomb, Mrs. J. C. Kimball and Miss Faith Kimball.

LUDANEY'S TRIAL CONTINUES TODAY

Trial of Frank Ludaney, indicted for attempted assault, got under way yesterday afternoon in Judge McMahan's court, and will continue through today. Theresa Zach, Mt. Angel girl on whom the attack is alleged to have been made early last November, was on the witness stand at the close of the day.

Only one other witness testified yesterday, Dr. A. F. E. Schierbaum of Mt. Angel.

Before the trial opened, Judge McMahan excluded from the court room a number of young boys and girls who gathered. Their places were quickly taken by older men and women, and at the close of the day all seats were occupied and a number of persons were standing up.

Ludaney is said to have made a confession to state officers sometime after his arrest, and attempt will be made by the state to introduce this. The state will call three or four more witnesses this morning.

Ludaney's wife sat at his side through the trial yesterday.

Mt. Hood Road in Good Condition, Chains Advisable

Winter sports enthusiasts can make the trip to Mt. Hood Sunday with scant danger from snow and ice conditions on the highway, provided they equip their cars with chains, Sergeant Powell Clayton of the state police stated while here on business yesterday. Snow plows are kept on duty day and night to keep the road clear and traffic goes through regularly unless the road-clearing equipment breaks down, he said.

State police patrol the loop road day and night, according to Sergeant Clayton, who is in charge of that district with headquarters at Oregon City.

SHIPLEY'S

STAR OF STARS ON SKIIS

Stars may come and stars may go, but Mickey Mouse, like the famous brook, goes on forever. He never has any marital tangles or rows over contracts, so it is but natural that he is just as popular with the studio magnates as he is with the millions of movie fans whose risibilities he provokes. Mickey is here shown as he tried his hand, or rather his feet, skiing at Lake Arrowhead, Cal., whither he was taken by his creator, Walt Disney, shown in inset with Mrs. Disney.

SALARY CUT SCHEME EVOKING CRITICISM

Supreme Judges may Stand On Constitution Right; All Levels Affected

Drastic cuts in state salaries enforceable under a ways and means committee resolution already adopted, are evoking much criticism from departments and individuals effected, it was reported at the capitol yesterday. Salem business men who will be affected are also making protest at the scale, it was learned, and several ways and means committee members have agreed the cuts are too drastic and should be revised downward. Under the adopted scale, reductions range from five per cent on salaries below $85 to 50 per cent on salaries above $750 a month.

No formal announcement has been made by justices of the state supreme court who would be reduced 45 per cent to an annual salary of $4125 or nearly $2000 less than is now paid most circuit judges. It is understood, however, that rather than to accept such a cut, the justices would stand on their constitutional rights not to take any diminition in salary during their term of office.

Not taking any chances, the state treasurer's office made no advances on state salaries for January in excess of the net amount receivable under the reduction schedule agreed upon so far by the ways and means committee.

The scale thus far agreed upon is:

$ 50 to 85	5%
$ 85 to 99	7%
$100 to 124	9%
$125 to 149	11%
$150 to 174	13%

FOLQUET APPEALS SCHOOL BUS CASE

Appeal in the Paul Folquet bus controversy between heirs of Folquet and the Woodburn school board was taken yesterday by Paul Folquet Jr., executor.

In decision handed down by Judge Lewelling December 6, last, the complaint was dismissed on grounds that action could not be maintained by plaintiff. Paul Folquet Sr. held a contract to transport pupils of the Woodburn school, but died before the contract expired. The heirs attempted to hold the school board to the contract.

In handing down his decision late last year, the judge stated in court that the contract was for personal service which could not be assigned and so was not an asset of the estate.

Thomas Club Gets Special Mention For Its Cookery

The second achievement certificate for a 4-H club in Marion county was received yesterday by County Club Leader Wayne Harding for the Thomas cookery club, division two, composed of Margery Schlottmann, Reta Drake, Elsie Satterlee, Delores Thompson and Betty Whitlock. The certificate is for 100 per cent work in finishing the club project.

Incidentally, a Thomas school club also won the first certificate of the club year, finishing its work about two weeks ago in record time. Emma Oveross Wolfard, teacher at the school, is leader of both clubs.

MRS. MARTIN BACKS $50 MINIMUM PLAN

Loses; Report Adopted for Moratorium on Teacher Salary Minimum

Mrs. Hannah Martin of Marion county led an unsuccessful fight in the house Wednesday morning against a two-year moratorium on the existing $75 monthly minimum for elementary teachers salaries. Mrs. Martin urged the adoption of the report of the minority of the education committee which placed teachers' salaries at a minimum of $50.

Pleading that the interests of the home, the schools and the teachers would all be violated by the moratorium proposal, Mrs. Martin made her first major speech in the house.

Opposing her and asking the adoption of the majority report was Representative Nichols of Douglas county who said conditions were so bad in many districts, teachers should be hired for small salaries until depression ceased. Other members including Representative Winslow, held for the moratorium proposal and the no-minimum plan on the basis that Mrs. Martin's proposal would by indirection encourage a $50 minimum and furthermore would make it hard for teachers' salaries to be raised in good times.

Twenty-two votes were cast for the minority report. The house bill comes up on final passage today.

HOUSE FACED TODAY WITH HEAVY DOCKET

With its committees working steadily, the lower house in the legislature today will be faced with the heaviest docket of the session, about 20 measures being up on final passage.

Yesterday the house approved a half-dozen bills and killed five more when committee motions of disapproval were carried in the house. Two of the defeated measures would have provided higher insurance fees.

The flood of new measures in the house which has prevailed the last week decreased to a rivulet yesterday with only 11 measures handed to the clerk. Most of these proposed only minor changes in the laws. The state senate, without a limit rule for the introduction of bills, saw a continuing stream of bills come in.

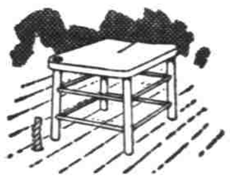
EXPLANATION: The chair's rear left leg is made of tubing. A hole is bored in the stage and the chair is placed so that the tube leg is over it. An assistant pushes the rope up through the chair leg under the victim's coat.



ILLUSION: Some member of the audience is politely requested to sit down on a chair. The magician tells him that his coat seems to be bunched up in the back, and offers to correct it. Whereupon he pulls out a big coil of rope.

IT'S FUN TO BE FOOLED . . . IT'S MORE FUN TO KNOW!

Let's look at the cigarette advertising trick called "Heat Treatment."

EXPLANATION: All cigarette tobaccos are treated with heat. But it is not from "heat treatment" that a cigarette gets flavor and mildness.

Mildness, flavor, throat-ease—all come from the use of costly, ripe tobaccos.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, more expensive tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Camels have given more people more pleasure than any other cigarette. Smoke Camels, and enjoy the fine delicate flavor of costlier tobaccos.
