On the program were Ruth Briedwell, Mary Lou Fuller, Eleanor Massey, Barbara Rogers, Eleanor Massey, Gertrude Cannell, Lois Vincent, Needra Massey, LaVaine and Gertrude Cannell, Cleo Odom, and Mrs. Lynn Lancefield.

Joseph Santee of the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth and Charles M. Duncan of Willamette university spoke before the seniors here this week.

Telephone Lines Changed For New Electric Patrons

LYONS, May 18 — The Pacific States Telephone company have several men at work on their phone line east of Lyons. The line had to be transfered to the opposite side of the highway to permit the Mountain States Power company to build their line extension. Also the Farmers lines which occupy the same poles as the Pacific States line had to be moved.

At the community hall Monday afternoon, a surprise affair was held in honor of Mrs. Elmer Hiatt whose birthday was May 15. Her daughters, Mrs. Eva Bressler and Mrs. Alta Bodeker arranged the affair. Each woman gave Mrs. Hiatt a block for a friendship quilt and she received over 40 blocks for her quilt.

ROBSON BADLY BURNED

PIONEER, May 18 — Mrs. Mark Blodgett has received word that her son-in-law, Glen Robson of Orenco, was badly burned when a blow torch he was using caused a gasoline explosion. He is in a hospital.

REVIVALS ARE CLOSING

FALLS CITY, May 18 — Rev. Mead and his assistants, Miss Dorothy Mead and Miss Alice Lamb will bring to a close their old fashioned interdenominational evangelistic meetings with Sunday night's service. Large crowds have attended.

REMODELING HOUSE

JEFFERSON, May 18 — John Henderson is having his house on east Hazel street remodeled, by changing the interior of the first floor, converting the large store room into a bath room and a dining room. The kitchen has been made modern by putting in hot and cold water, and a sink, also all kinds of built-in work. The former dining room will be used for Mr. Henderson's office, as he is foreman of the Southern Pacific section crew here. The house has been lowered, and cement walks added.

to enjoy these crisp, nourishing cereals

Don't put it off. Begin today. Your own grocer has a complete stock of Kellogg's Cereals. Made of wheat, corn and rice. Fresh in a form you like. Flaked. Shredded. Toasted. There is variety to please every one.

Try Kellogg's Cereals. Buy several packages of your favorite. Enjoy them often. Breakfast, lunch or supper. Wonderful with milk or cream. Add fruits or berries for extra goodness. Kellogg's Cereals are always oven-fresh in the patented WAXTITE bag. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

INTERESTING FACTS

- The Kellogg Company uses 20,000 bushels of corn every day. An entire year's yield from 675 acres!
- 6500 bushels of wheat are made into Kellogg's Cereals every day. Equals the yearly yield from 450 acres.
- Every week the Kellogg Company uses as much bran as could be raised on 9600 acres of wheat.
- Kellogg's Cereals are responsible for the use of 2,500,000 quarts of milk and cream every day.
- Hundreds of tons of fresh fruits and berries are eaten with Kellogg's Cereals.

These are notable examples of how one industry helps another

SPECIAL NOTICE!

FROM OUR PURCHASING DEPARTMENT

WE believe in being fair with the public. Wholesale commodity prices have gone up, but we have held our prices down because we bought before the advance. Now, our low-priced stocks are nearly depleted and we do not know how much longer we can advertise such pre-inflation prices as we are quoting here: Therefore, we urge you to stock up this week-end to the full capacity of your pantry shelves.
