Light Peach Crop is Prospect at Dayton

DAYTON, June 23—Despite the current sentiment among fruit farmers of this vicinity that the peach crop this season would be below normal yield, thinning has been done in the W. E. Foster orchard of Early Crawfords and seven people were employed in thinning the George Hessler 10-acre peach orchard Thursday. Other prominent growers in the locality report that their crop of peaches are light and no thinning is necessary.

WOOL PRICE UP TWO CENTS, CLEAN BASIS

Western Clip Being Cleared Rapidly; Foreign Mart Firm to Higher

BOSTON, June 23—(AP)—The commercial bulletin will say tomorrow:

"Wool prices are up another two cents a pound, clean basis, at the end of the week, over the prices prevailing a week ago, following a fairly good demand continuing from the mills, both worsted and woolen.

"Manufacturers have sold a very decent yardage of goods but have been marking prices higher. There is some reluctance to quote on yarns and tops at the moment, as well as on goods, except at protective prices, on account of the imminence of higher production costs under the terms of the industrial recovery act.

"In the west, the new clip is rapidly being cleared from the market and buyers have commenced to return to the eastern seaboard again. Prices continue at about the top levels reported a week ago.

"The foreign markets are all firm to slightly higher, with continuing good demand in all departments. America is buying sizeable quantities abroad.

"Mohair is moderately active with prices fully maintained in this market. The new clip is getting rapidly cleared from the northwest."

The bulletin will publish the following quotations:

Scoured basis:

Oregon: Fine and F. M. staple 69-71; fine and F. M. Fr. combing 67-69; fine and F. M. clothing 62-64; valley No. 1, 63-65.

Mohair:

Oregon, 22-23. Domestic graded: first combing 35-40; second combing 32-35; third combing 27-30; fourth combing 23-25; good carding, 27-29; first kid, 60-63; second kid, 50-53.

STEADY TONE STAYS IN BUTTER TRADING

PORTLAND, June 23—(AP)—There continued a fully steady tone in the butter trade generally within the immediate Portland territory. Prices were unchanged for all cube offerings on the open market. Demand continued best for extras but others were cleaning up easily and within the price limits.

Butterfat values were steady to firm. In spots a premium was again being offered but general prices were unchanged.

Storage movement continued with both extras and standards moving into ice plants.

A considerable showing of 'hot weather' eggs was creating more or less of a depressing influence in the trade here although nominally the co-ops were still reporting the full prices realized. Many retailers were actually quoting extras below this level.

Demand for live chickens was a trifle slow here although there was no further change in the price. Call was best for light weight broilers with these bringing full prices.

Friday trading in the market for country killed meats was practically at unchanged values. There was a better cleanup reported overnight in all lines.

Shares Close Up 1 to 4 Points as Late Rally Comes

NEW YORK, June 23—(AP)—Stocks rallied ambitiously late today, thus reversing yesterday's procedure.

Shares roused from an early afternoon siesta and closed with many net gains of 1 to 4 points. Despite this final splurge, which was fairly active, the day's business totaled only 3,334,050 shares, smallest volume since May 23.

Case, National Distillers and Delaware & Hudson rallied 4 net. Chrysler led the Motors with a 3 point appreciation which was matched by Johns-Manville, Western Union, Owens-Illinois, Corn Products, Allied Chemical and Du Pont. American Telephone, U. S. Steel, American Can, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Sears Roebuck and International Harvester were up around 2 or more. Celanese was 6 points higher.

CROP DAMAGE HUGE, GRAINS RISE

STRAWBERRY OFFERINGS SMALL

New Peak Records are Set; Large Scale Buying Occurs

CHICAGO, June 23—(AP)—Sensational damage reports, indicating immense losses of crops in the Dakotas, Minnesota and Canada, rushed grain values up today to above latest peak records.

Flurried buying on a big scale took place, with all deliveries of wheat, oats and rye outdoing the season's previous top quotations. It was unofficially estimated the United States 1933 probable production of wheat would prove decidedly less than actual consumer use in recent years.

Wheat closed feverish at the day's top, 1⅝-2⅝ cents over yesterday's finish, corn ½-1½ up, oats ⅜-1⅜ advanced. Today's closing quotations:

Wheat—July, 79⅞-80¼; Sept., 82½-⅝; Dec., 85⅛-¼.

Corn—July, 48⅞-½; Sept., 52-⅛-½; Dec., 56⅛-⅜.

Oats—July, 34⅞; Sept., 36⅛-⅜; Dec., 38⅛-¼.

$1.50 Price Continues; Tomatoes Higher; Melons Slow

Strawberry offerings to the local market decreased in quantity yesterday, while the price continued at $1.50 per crate.

Hothouse tomatoes are stronger at $3 and Texas tomatoes command a higher figure, $3.40. Potatoes are weaker, with No. 1 new crop quoted at $2.25. Only No. 1s are offered on the old Yakimas, and these are quoted at $2.75.

Watermelons have been on the market the past week. Demand is slow. The price is 3½ cents.

Local carrots and beets, coming in in greater quantities, are down ten cents per dozen bunches to 25 cents.

EGG PRODUCTION SHOWS USUAL DROP

CORVALLIS, Ore., June 23—(AP)—Egg production along the Pacific coast is now showing the usual seasonal decline, though the rate has not been as rapid as in former years because of favorable cool weather, it was stated in a review issued today by the USDA bureau of agricultural economics cooperating with the OSC extension service.

Prices for the past week remained unchanged on leading grades, with top grades in stronger position than others. In the northwest cheap eggs of good quality were in demand. Portland jobbing prices have remained unchanged since the middle of May with large Oregon extras at 18c and mediums at 17c.

Coast white eggs at New York continued in an unchanged position. Eastern markets generally reported a falling off in receipts and some increase on consumption.

Heavy storage reserves continue both east and west, with the into-storage movement on the coast slowed up a bit this last week. Total holdings increased and are now about 7,000 cases above a year ago.

Poultry markets showed some weakness with supplies in excess of local demand.

Advance in Price Of Strawberries Forced, Portland

PORTLAND, June 23.—(AP)—Further advance in the price of strawberries has been forced here with rather limited offerings. Sales were made up to $1.85 crate for quality stuff.

Very fancy quality Bing cherries were arriving from The Dalles and finding a general top of $1.50 box for 15s with Annes general around $1.25 top. Local soft varieties around 5-6c lb.

Silverton Means Business on 4th Triple Holidays

SILVERTON, June 23—Actually assured this time is the three-day holiday which Silverton business houses had hoped to have over Memorial day. Business will close here Saturday night, July 1, and continue down until the morning of July 5.

The Silverton Ad club sponsored the affair and it is said these circulating petitions had no refusals even from the refractory business men of the attempted Memorial day holiday.
